

The Alliance Rotary club entertained the teachers of the Alliance schools at the ladies' night festivities on Wednesday evening at the Fern Garden of the Alliance hotel. With one or two exceptions, the teachers were out in full force, and the program was so arranged that they were made acquainted with every member of the club. Following the opening announcement by President Charles E. Slagle, who told of the importance of the school teachers and their limited opportunities for meeting the people of the city, the plan for getting acquainted was put into effect.

There were ten tables in the Fern room, at each of which two or more Rotarians and their wives were seated. When the teachers marched in, to music furnished by Mrs. John Wiker at the piano, they were seated all over the room. Five or ten minutes were allowed for them to meet the members and their wives, and then the teachers changed to another table. The teachers changed tables again and again during the evening, between the serving of courses. There were some little mixups due to failure to bring along the quota of silverware and drinking water, but the scheme was highly successful in the primary object, acquainting all of the teachers with all of the guests.

A number of Rotary songs were sung during the evening. Rotarian Robert I. Elliott of Chadron had been secured for an address on the occasion, but at noon Wednesday he notified the entertainment committee that he could not be present. Attorney E. L. Meyer was pressed into service, and with the assistance of the club members, who filled up pauses in his address with songs, he managed to convey to the visiting teachers the idea that the Rotarians and their wives thought very highly of them and of their work and expected to take more than a perfunctory interest in them during their stay in the city. Mr. Meyer closed with an original poem, the execution of which qualifies him for a place on the club's song-writing squad. Mr. Meyer was at one time principal of the Alliance high school, and his acquaintance with the profession made him exceptionally well qualified to make an address of welcome.

Following Mr. Meyer's address, the entertainment committee staged a guessing contest for the teachers. They were given sheets of paper containing the last names of the club members, and were asked to supply the club nicknames. Each of the club members wore a badge giving his name and the name by which the club knew him, and the test was one of observance as well as acquaintance-ship. But one of the teachers, Miss Elsie Johnston, wrote correctly the club names of each of the members, and she was presented with a gold pencil.

The following teachers were on the guest list: Miss Ida Clark, Mrs. Inice Dunning, F. C. Prince, Charles Phelps, Miss Dorothy Waite, Miss Elsie L. Johnson, Miss Bertha Bradlock, Miss Margaret Minor, Miss Hazel Sneathen, Miss Nina Nation, Mrs. J. D. Emerick, Leonard Redd, Miss Blanche Wilson, Miss Maude Wilcox, Mrs. Elva Kase, Miss Jeanette McConnell, Miss Ada Watwood, Miss Ruth Nation, Miss Doris Abbott, Miss Mary Daugherty, Miss Anna Lind, Miss Madge Graham, Mrs. Ruby Chapman, Miss Emma Davis, Miss Eva Crocker, Miss Vera Spencer, Miss Izola Worley, Miss Laura Johnston, Miss Thelma Westley, Miss Lucille McNichols, Miss Violet Sandstrom, Miss Elizabeth Young, Mrs. Devona Price, Mrs. Nettie Donovan, Miss Katherine Jennett, Miss Inis Jennings, Miss Glen Soper, Miss Marjory Coleman, Mrs. Elizabeth Cornu, Miss Alta Young and Miss Margaret Harris.

The Misses Katherine Buechsenstein and Margaret Dwyer entertained at a miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening at the home of the former for Miss Agnes Newberry whose marriage to Edward McNulty will take place on the twentieth of this month. The evening was spent in making fancy work for the bride to be, after which a dainty two course luncheon was served. Those present were the Misses Agnes Newberry, Helen Newberry, Margart Brennan, Mary Heriman, Frances Brennan, Madeline Brennan, Sarah O'Keefe, Helen McCoy, Katherine Dwyer, Winnie Barry, Emma Barry, Mary Barry, Lillian Berzina, Frances Kuten, Alice Hamilton, Ruth Morris, Katherine Kleigle, Frances Collins, Marguerite Cary, Marie Buechsenstein and Mesdames C. A. Newberry, Frank Aebeg, Harry Morrish, Walter Mullane, Walter Buechsenstein, Frank Buechsenstein, A. Le Sage and A. J. Dwyer.

C. L. Fenn, formerly with the western branch of the Minneapolis Steel and Machinery Co. of Minneapolis, Minn., at Salt Lake City, has accepted a position with the A. H. Jones Co. of this city. Mr. Fenn handled Oldsmobile cars in Salt Lake City for two years. He will act as retail salesman for the A. H. Jones Co.

The Scottish Rite Masons ladies' club of Alliance held a basket supper at the Masonic Temple at 6 o'clock last evening. It had been intended to stage the picnic at the Purinto grove four miles north of the city, but the inclement weather caused a change in the plans. A program of entertainment that had been arranged was called off, due to the fact that a lodge meeting was scheduled for 7:30. The picnic dinner was served cafeteria style and was most elaborate.

Mr. and Mrs. Clavin D. Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mettlen were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hickey, living near the Niobrara river. After a splendid chicken dinner the party drove to Cook ranch. Mrs. Hickey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mettlen.

Mrs. Henry Davis entertained at a Kensington Thursday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. Betts of Kansas City. Those present were Mesdames Cherry, Mann, Brennan, Kearns, Wells, Scotten, Finegan and Drake. Dainty refreshments were served.

O. P. David of Belvidere arrived in Alliance Thursday for a visit with his niece, Mrs. L. H. Highland. Mr. David said he heard that the ducks were so thick here that hunters had to wear masks to keep them off, so he thought he would come up and get his.

The Methodist Ladies Aid society will give a reception for the teachers of the public schools this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCorkle. It is to be a musical entertainment and refreshments will be served.

John L. Rayner and Miss Hallie T. Comer, both of Chadron, were married Thursday at noon by County Judge Ira E. Tash. The couple left on an afternoon train for a honeymoon in Denver.

Mrs. Kenneth Schuyler who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. A. S. Gerdes, left Wednesday night for her home in Denver. Mrs. Schuyler was formerly Miss Naomi Taylor of this city.

The entertainment committee of the Alliance Country club announce an "open house" for tonight. There will be dancing and other amusements provided.

Mrs. I. M. Myers of Hemingford was operated on for appendicitis at the hospital Wednesday. She is reported to be doing nicely.
