

CHURCHES

BAPTIST CHURCH.

Our work for the fall is opening up fine. We were glad to welcome into our membership Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, who were of us several years ago. Several others have signified their intention of coming into our church real soon. There are many Baptists in the town who have not as yet affiliated themselves with us, and we are hoping and praying that they may see how they unintentionally though it be, are obstacles to the progress of the church. As Baptists, you owe the Baptist cause the same faithful allegiance here in Alliance as you did back in the church you have left. To say that your home church was greater than this, only emphasizes, more than ever your duty of making this church as great as that one. Detached Baptists, or any other denomination, have no scripture to justify their remaining detached, but all the Bible urges them to "Be ye separate from the world, unto the church." Why not obey it?

We are preparing for promotion Sunday. Let every teacher work to make it a success. The pastor is working hard, getting ready for his fall special meetings to which he looks forward anxiously.

Did you attend the prayer meetings? If not you are missing the greatest source of inspiration.

Evening service hereafter will start at 7:30 instead of 8:00.

Sermons Sunday: morning, "Will Ye Also Go Away." Evening, "Cornered" Text. "And they answered him not a word."

B. J. MINORT, Pastor.

CHURCH OF CHRIST.

"Antecedents of a Good Meeting", or "Preacher and People", is the subject for next Lord's day morning sermon. "Who Authorized Religion?" is the subject for the evening service. These are the efforts in preparation for the evangelistic meetings to begin October 16 with the help of Evangelist C. W. Cooper. The evening service will begin a half hour earlier. Endeavor meeting at 6:30 and preaching at 7:30. Remember the change.

The Bible school under the splendid leadership of Mrs. Reed affords a class for all ages.

Beginning with the first Sunday in October we will use the unified service which means one continual service from 10 o'clock to noon.

The mid-week service on Wednesday evening is always interesting and helpful. This is also being used in preparation for the evangelistic meetings.

State Convention at Hastings, October 3-6.

Come to the church with a message and a welcome.

S. J. EPLER, Minister.

LUTHERAN CHURCH.

Sunday the Lutheran church will observe its annual mission festival. The services to be conducted at 11 o'clock and 2:30 o'clock. This celebration will take place in the Community church in Berea. The morning service will be conducted by the Rev. Alfred Sueger from Scottsbluff. The afternoon service the pastor from Alliance will conduct. Everybody welcome.

F. DROEGEMUELLER, Pastor.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Beginning with next Sunday evening, September 18, the time of the Sunday evening services will be one half hour earlier. Epworth League at 6:30 and evening service at 7:30.

Last Wednesday evening we had what the pastor considers the most enthusiastic and optimistic Sunday school board meeting in two years. Every officer and teacher plans to make this the best year of our school. It was decided to observe October 2 as Rally day. Next Wednesday night the subject will be, "The Year's Program for the Church."

The sermon topic for Sunday morning will be, "Unpaid Debts." In the evening, at 7:30, "Our Eternal Home".

We are glad to announce that Mrs. Dunning, who has been away most of the summer, has taken charge of the choir again, and we can safely promise that you will be pleased with the music that will be given from Sunday to Sunday. A large chorus choir is being organized and special music will be rendered at each service. Mrs. Fred Yanders has accepted the position of church organist for the year, much to the delight of our people.

M. C. SMITH, Pastor.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Next Sunday morning we will consider the theme: "Is Your Christianity Working? If Not, Why Not?" The pastor will fill the pulpit. If your Christianity is working you will help fill the pews. And you are cordially invited to do so.

Sunday evening at 6:30 the Christian Endeavor meeting.

At 7:30 p. m. the evening service. Note the change in time. Be there on time, for the musical service will start without delay and the sermon will be on the subject, "The Lamps that Fail."

The Presbyterian church is a going concern. She gave away in her mighty benevolent works over $17,000,000.00 last year. She received to the communion table over 96,000 new communicants on profession of faith in the last twelve months. Three young persons from this community are this year in attendance at one of her fifty great educational institutions. These educational institutions are accredited and carry the same standards of work as our large tax supported state universities. The work of the church in the field of education alone is a remarkable contribution to the life of the nation. So much for the Presbyterian church for this time. We are justly proud of her past achievements and in a humble and hopeful spirit we approach her great responsibilities.

The Presbyterian church in Alliance is located at the corner of Box Butte avenue at Seventh street and there is not another Presbyterian church for sixty miles in any direction. Let us take advantage of our opportunities. Again you are cordially invited. First Presbyterian church, A. J. KEARNS, Pastor.

The big noise at the Imperial tonight will be Eileen Percy starring in "Why Trust Your Husband?" The thumbnail sketch of the drama shows that it is fully as good as "Twin Beds," and parts of it are much on the same order. A newly-wed comes home and hears his wife making clearing remarks to a Kewpie doll—one of the kind you win at street carnivals. He doesn't know it's a doll. Rushing from the house, he joins two or three friends, and agreed to slip away to a masque ball. The wives agree to do the same thing, and then follows one of the most uproariously humorous mixups you've even seen. It ought to get over big.

Saturday night will be featured a photoplay made from O. Henry's "Roads of Destiny," one of the most different of the different short stories by the famous writer. Pauline Frederick takes the lead. There has been but one change in the story. In the original, a man, David Mignot, underwent all the trials and terrible experiences—in the adaptation it is a woman. If the film preserves the essence of O. Henry's story it should be too good to miss.

An additional attraction of Saturday night will be a short lecture between the first and second show by the Rev. B. J. Minort, who was much impressed by the original story and has framed a talk based upon it.

Sunday's attraction is "Footlights and Shadows," featuring Olive Thomas. The story deals with the strange adventures of Gloria Dawn, a beautiful actress who is the star in the "Midnight Revue." Her strange experiences begin when, in the middle of the night, a man admits himself to her apartment with his own key. He then collapses with brain fever, and Gloria, to avoid scandal, announces him as a distant relative. Then follows a series of complications which make the solution of the plot one of most intense interest.

Monday comes "Thunder Island," featuring Edith Roberts. Miss Roberts appears as a little shepherdess who is content to watch her flocks on the sun-washed slopes above the gulf, until her marriage to a dying old don of countless dollars complicates the story and starts things moving faster than a Mexican election.
