ELLSWORTH.

Sunday was a big day in the baseball line for Ellsworth. Bingham who had challenged us to a battle royal with a "one hundred side, and winner take all gate receipts" clause finally arrived on the scene after one hour and twenty minutes of patient over-due waiting but the slowness in arrival they with over-supplied with speed in the ensuing game. Ed Hill of Hyannis who pitched for a salary in the eastern part of the state all summer was Bingham's selection while Maupin and Seebom were the battery for Ellsworth, both playing an excellent game, Maupin striking out seventeen while his opponent chopped out fourteen. Maupin and Hill both did excellent work at bat also. The game started out with a rush Bingham getting men on base in the first inning but not scoring, and Ellsworth to bat with Schonard and Young who had been generally good for a single all season fanned out clean and Ellsworth rooters were somewhat at a disadvantage but House next up cracked the first one over for a clean "homer" to deep left and Black up next made second but was unable to score, Arms being thrown out at first. From then on the game was nip and tuck neither side having much advantage, both scoring almost every time at bat. A high wind and rough diamond made fielding difficult but plays were close and snappy and the last half of the ninth found Ellsworth to bat with score 11 all. With no men out Black connected for another double and Wightman's single after Black's steal for third, scored the winning run. The game was well played, free from arguments and enjoyed by nearly two hundred enthusiastic fans which is equal to the Yanks and Giants high record for us. Bingham was seeking a return game to be played on their diamond but as this was an entirely challenge affair and season now over Ellsworth decided not to go to Bingham for a return date Sunday but gave them privilege of accepting a game under such terms and conditions and line-up to be played on the Ellsworth diamond, but at last reports the Binghamites were undecided but will no doubt postpone till next season.
