

The Home of

Better Values

served in the world war was held at the Episcopal parish house at 8 p. m. Mrs. W. E. Spencer entertained sev-Wednesday, some fifteen women being eral triends at a Monte Carlo whist Wednesday, some fifteen women being in attendance. Rev. Andrew Dodge, party Thursday afternoon. A dainty rector of St. Matthews, and Mrs. luncheon was served. The guest list Dodge explained the organization of a ladies' auxiliary to the local post of the American Legion, and it was decided to ask for a charter. Mrs. Andrew Dodge was elected temporary chairman and Mrs. George L. Burr, temporary secretary. In the near fucture a campaign for charter members will be staged, following which results at a Monte Carlo whist party Thursday afternoon. A dainty rector of St. Matthews, and Mrs. luncheon was served. The guest list luncheon was ser

A meeting of wives, mothers, sis-ters and daughters of the men who formed.

"open house" tonight at the Alliance Country club. One of the most pleasant entertainments ever given at the club is expected to be enjoyed by the members and their guests. A specially prepared dinner will be a feature

Miss Janice Adams, Josephine Wilson, Katherine Harris, Edna Mae Miller, Helen Young and Dolly Dailey, members of Kinunka campfire, are entertaining the rest of Kinunka this evening at the home of their guardian, Mrs. Geo. L. Burr, jr., at the McDonald apartments, at a six-thirty o'clock dinner. The dinner is planned, cooked dinner. The dinner is planned, cooked and served by the girls themselves in order to win their first honor toward the Firemaker's rank of the Campfire girls. Other members of Kinunka will take their turn at similar activities, as such group of girls must serve two dinners, serving a different menu and taking a different part of the work each time. The next dinner in the series will be served at the home of Mrs. E. I., Potarf, assistant guardian within the next week or two.

Mrs. C. H. Worster and daughter, Viola, of St. Paul, Minn., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hicks. Mrs. Worster is a sister of Mrs. Hicks. Mrs. Worster expects to leave Tuesday for California to spend the winter, but Miss Viola will remain here for the winter.

Lloyd C. Thomas has accepted an invitation to speak at the Eleventh annual convention of the Nebraska State rrigation association, to be held in Bridgeport on December 7, 8 and 9. The subject of his talk will be, "Op-portunities of Western Nebraska".

Harry Thiele is having a "Win the Ford" sale this week. He's selling standard goods at reduced prices, giv-ing a Ford ticket with each dollar pur-

A. L. Rofinot of Carwith, Ia., is spending a few days in Alliance on business in connection with a farm recently purchased here. Mr. Rofinot is a retired I wa farmer and recently moved to California to make his home but says he does not like the country there. He says he is very much pleased with the country around Alli-ance, and thinks he has one of the est farms in the county.

E. A. Beckwell, former old time rancher of Antioch, and little daughter were in Alliance Wednesday on their way to Antioch. Mr. Beckwell moved to Washington several years ago. He will spend a few weeks here visiting old friends and attending to business. Mr. Beckwell still owns a nice ranch

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Scott, former mr. and Mrs. Elmer Scott, former residents of Antioch who moved to the new town of Lyman. Neb., last year, were in Alliance Thursday. They have rented their property in Lyman and will probably locate in Alliance or Scottsbluff for the winter.

Walter Perry, for the past six months proprietor of the VanGraven studio, is leaving tomorrow for Craw-Lumiere studio. Mr. Perry has made many friends here during his brief stay who regret seeing him leave.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McNulty, who have been spn ing a month's honey-moon in California, returned Friday morning. Mrs. McNulty was former-ly Miss Agnes Newberry.

WANTED-Practical nursing or day work. Phone 234.

H. F. Thiele left Thursday for a few days' business trip to Bayard.

George Leidy who has been very ill for some time, is making a nice re-

Lou Frankle o fthe Famous Cloth-ing company arrived in the city this morning from a trip to Denver.

J. T. Hirst of Tipton, Mo., is in the visiting visiting at the home of his son, H. Hirst and family. Mrs. F. J. Peterson entertained the teachers of the city schools at a kenington Saturday afternoon. The M. E. ladies aid will serve chicken dinner and roast beef supper at the Armory, Saturday. 50c per meal. Be-Robert Atz, formerly employed by he Northwestern railroad shops in Casper, Wyo., resigned his position there and has taken a position with the Calvin D. Walker, manager of the A. H. Jones Co. left Tuesday for a few days' business trip to Hastings.

Burington in Alliance.

Mrs. Herman Peters of Hay Springs was in Alliance Thursday on shopping trip.

Mrs. E. J. Hickey and daughter, Mrs. Frank Harris, of Marsland were in the city Thursday.

Sheriff and Mrs. J. M. Miller returned Tuesday from Kearney, where they have been visiting for the past few days. Mrs. Miller's sister returned with them and will make her home

Mr. Pemberton of Council Grove, Kas., arrived Thursday to attend to some business matters here.

H. C. Smith, proprietor of the Pot-sh garage of Antioch, was in the ty Wednesday on business.

David Miller of Marsland arrived Thursday for a few days' visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. H. A. DuBuque underwent a throat operation Wednesday at the hospital. She is getting along nicely.

Paul Red Feather, son of Chief Red Feather, was taken to the hospital Thursday.

Rufus Jones, of Minatare, is spending a few days in Alliance on busi-

Prosperity Specials

for the-

Harvest Festival

Every woman attending the Festival will find something that she will need for the winter wardrobe for herself or for the girls at a wonderful saving in these and other specials. for Ford ticket.

All Winter FURS

Reduded 1-3

of the original price for this occasion.

Cambray Wool Scarfs

Worth $10.50 to $20.00, special—

$4.49-$6.69-$9.38

Boys and Girls

Hats & Caps

$1 to $3

Silk, Jersey and Taffata

PETTICOATS AND BLOOMERS

$4.50

Silk Jersey

Sweaters

All shades, values up to $13.75, special at—

$5.00

New Fall and Winter

Silk and Cloth

Dresses

$18.75 $10.95 $24,75

MILLINERY

EXTRA SPECIAL Trimmed, Sailor and Sport Hats, SPECIAL AT

$2.98 and $4.98

Highland-Holloway Co.

Men's Foot Fitters $6.50 Pair

Value Crowded Into Shoes

We've crowded value into this Shoe because we centered our efforts on giving a maximum of style—quality and service at minimum of Price.

Three Styles:

BROAD TOE-MEDIUM TOE— NARROW TOE-

You Can Trust Our Service

Baer-Alter Co.

to help a to the state of the

Saturday Specials

One pound special Coffee	19c
One pound May Belle Coffee	35c
One large package Corn Flakes	16c
One pound can Red Salmon, flat	25c
Apricots, per Gallon	79c
Blackberries, per gallon	$1.15
Black Raspberries, per gallon
Pitted Cherries, per gallon	$1.85
Aunt Jemima Pancake Flour, 4 pounds	50c
Goochs' Pancake Flour, 4 pounds	45e
Sweet Potatoes, per pound
Cranberries, per pound	20c
Small Hebe Milk, per can	6c
Small Enzo Milk, per can
Fleishman Yeast, three cakes for	10c
Sirloin, Round and T-bone Steaks, per pound	25e
Boiling Beef, from
Roasts, per pound15	to 20c
Breakfast Bacon, Swift's, per pound	30e
Skinned Hams, per pound
DRESSED AND LIVE HENS AND CHICKES	NS

FRESH FISH CALL FOR THE TICKETS ON THE FORD.

Rodger's Grocery