

THE LIVESTOCK MARKET

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 13.—CATTLE—Receipts, 2,700. There was the usual Thursday run of cattle and the market was practically steady. Best yearlings and light weights are around 15@25c higher for the week, but heavy cattle and short-feds are about that much lower. Most of the short-feds are selling today around $7.00@8.00. Quality of the western rangers was rather common and sales largely around $4.00@5.00. Cows and heifers have found a very fair outlet this week, with little change prices from day and there has been no radical change in stockers and feeders; best light being perhaps a little strong and plain kind unevenly lower than a week ago.

HOGS—Receipts, 4,500. Trade opened at small declines but became fairly active and closed at prices little different from those paid yesterday. The market as a whole was quoted steady to 15c lower with a good clearance. Best light hogs topped at $8.25 and bulk of receipts sold from $6.25@7.50.

SHEEP—Receipts, 8,600. Arrivals of sheep and lambs were moderate, but demand was rather quiet in spite of the light receipts. Fat lambs ruled steady to easier and other classes of stock were generally steady. Fancy native lambs and good fat westerns sold up to $8.75, the day's top and other sales of killers were reported at $8.50 and less; good fat yearlings brought $6.25 and some aged wethers moved at $5.25. Fair to good ewes sold around $4.25. Feeder prices held up in good shape with strictly choice class quoted at $7.75. Some pretty good feeders brought $7.50 early.

At the Odd Fellows meeting Wednesday night the matter of entertaining the district meeting was discussed and plans made for the program and the supper. A good time is anticipated. The meeting will be on November 2 and there is expected to be about 300 in attendance including the home folks.

William Cory has purchased the new pop corn stand from Foster Whiteel and his son, George, is the proprietor. The first number of the Lyceum course under the auspices of the American Legion will be given in the opera house on the 26th of this month.

W. D. Johnson and Dr. Neff the dentist are drilling this week for something we do not know exactly what. They have gone down several inches and have found something which seems to be a nerve. It takes nerve and a little cash to drill for anything in this country so they are probably on the right track. Dr. Neff is furnishing the machinery and W. D. is furnishing the nerve and the cash.
