

The entertainment committee of Alliance lodge No. 961, B. P. O. Elks, has made arrangements for a series of eight dances during the fall and winter months, the first of which is scheduled as a Halloween ball on Friday evening, October 28. Others in the series are a Thanksgiving dance on Thursday, November 23; New Years, Friday, December 30; Friday, January 20; Valentine dance, Friday, February 10; St. Patrick's day dance, March 17; Friday, April 21, and Friday, May 12. The committee has made plans to sell season tickets to cover admission to all these dances at $4, with the understanding that if one hundred tickets are sold, an extra dance will be given with no admission charge. The ninth dance, if given, will be a formal.

The "open house" at the Alliance Country club last Friday evening was one of the most successful of the series of these events. Practically every member of the club was present at some time during the evening, and a large number of them brought guests. The entertainment was in the nature of an old-fashioned party, with dancing to the music of the folding organ, played by Mrs. W. D. Rumer, and the violin, played by "Cy" Laing. City Manager Kemmish presided at the popcorn popper; Howard Reddish dispensed cider and other members of the club passed about red apples. A special four-course dinner was served, which was said to be the best feed ever put on at the club house.

GIFTS THAT LAST

WERE YOU BORN IN OCTOBER?

There is no gift quite so nice for a birthday present as a bit of dainty jewelry. It is so useful, so artistic and so personal.

And jewelry set with the birthstone is especially appropriate. Maybe it is just superstition to think that it is lucky to wear your birthstone, still there maybe something to it after all. Lots of folks believe it.

Opals are such wonderful gems—so lively with exquisite colors—that October-born folks are uncommonly lucky in their birthstone. We have some fascinating opal jewelry not too-costly for gifts.

A Grand Success Was the Cooking School

And to those ladies who attended we want to say that we (our store) appreciate your attendance as fully as do you appreciate the knowledge gained.

Some of you were entire strangers—having never been inside our store before—others were occasional customers, while the remainder were our regular customers.

Did the fact appeal to any of you that we did not ask you to buy goods? We hope it did, as it was never our intention to ask this of you. We did our part for you and were glad to do it. When the opportunity affords just say a good word for our store.

All of the articles used in the Modern Kitchen were new. We now offer them at reduced prices.
