

CHURCHES

LUTHERAN CHURCH
Service Sunday morning at 10:30 in German. Sunday school at 10 o'clock.
F. DROEGEMUELLER, Pastor.

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST
Methodist church building, East Fourth street. Sabbath school, 2:30 p. m. Bible study, 3:30 p. m. All are welcome.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
Last Sunday's record breaker must be broken next Lord's day. We lacked twenty-nine of having three hundred in Bible school. Now, it is not impossible to run over that mark. The meetings will close on Sunday. Evangelist Cooper has preached some great sermons. His sermon subjects for the closing day are: Morning,

"Christ's Temptation and Ours"; evening, "The Gospel Railway," illustrated by chart. The subjects for Friday and Saturday night are: "God's Plan of Saving Men" and "Profit and Loss."
Just four more opportunities are offered to hear Mr. Cooper. Those who have heard him are taken with his plain and simple way of presenting the teachings of the Bible. There is a question box at the door. Many have availed themselves of the privilege of asking questions which have been answered by the evangelist. The remaining four services should be the best of the entire series of meetings. Come to the church with a message and a welcome.
STEPHEN J. EPLER, Minister.

BAPTIST CHURCH
We begin meetings next Sunday morning, the pastor to do the preaching and the singing to be in charge of Miss Alta Young. With her efficient help we are assured of some real congregational singing. Each evening service will be preceded by a singfest, and all who love to sing the old time religious songs are invited to come out at 7:30. The services will all close promptly at 8:30. It has been a policy of the pastor that he knows the needs of the people and town better than an outsider, and that he need not employ an outside preacher to come and tell his people what he himself would not tell them. If we must say some unpleasant things we will say them ourself and take the consequences.
There is no good reason why a church should pay an outsider a great sum of money to do what the pastor is employed to do. We claim to be better able to tell the Alliance people what they should hear than any outsider, and therefore at the Baptist church you will hear the old-time religion preached with the old-time plainness, and if the sermons cut you to the heart, you will know who did it. These meetings are to be held not more than two weeks, and each meeting will begin on time and end on time, so be there promptly if you wish a good seat.
Next Sunday's subjects will be as follows: Morning, "What is a Revival?" Who are to be revived, the Christians or the unsaved? We claim that a revival is not held principally to save the unbelievers. We hold, and the Bible states, that an unsaved person cannot be revived. Do you agree with us? The evening topic, by request, will be: "Friendship, or Jonathan and David." We are told that the Odd Fellows are preparing to come in a body, and crowd the house. Come on, boys, we are ready—but come early or you will be crowded out. Previous to the evening sermon Brother Herbaugh will tell the story of his conversion and the pastor will answer the question: "Did the Catholic Church Change the Sabbath?" at the morning sermon.
The pastor has been made honorary member of two of the labor unions and we are told the same will be done for him by the federation. We are proud to enter these organizations and to help the men, as they are gradually helping us by attending our services more and more. We acknowledge the gift of a check for $26 from the carmen, and assure them we will use it to good advantage. Come to the services.

B. J. MINORT, Pastor.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
November 6 is the 34th anniversary Sunday of the founding of the First Presbyterian church in the vicinity of Alliance, as the first organization was made at what was then called Grand Lake before Alliance was organized. The organization of the church was planned in the spring of 1887 and would have occurred early in spring of that year but a great prairie fire swept the country, disorganizing plans and scattering the settlers so that it was not until the first Sunday in November that the synodical missionary and others returned and the First Presbyterian church organization was effected. We are told it was the first religious body to be formally organized in this vicinity.
In the evening at 7:00 we unite with other churches of the city at the M. E. church.
A. J. KEARNS, Pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boyer are the proud parent of a baby boy, born Thursday night.
James Eaton and wife called at the Olsen home Friday morning.
There was an attendance of only eighteen at the Union Sunday school October 23.
Mrs. Bankson was an Alliance caller one day last week.
Jake Elsea and wife were Alliance shoppers Saturday.
Miss Sibyl Hutchinson spent the week-end in Alliance.
Thorwald Lunn is busy delivery potatoes to Anton Thompson.
James Eaton and family motored to Alliance Friday. Mrs. Elsea returned home with them.
The Wilkins young folks attended the dance at Duskins Saturday night. Kilpatrick's shipped some cattle on Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. Hurlburt and Mrs. Langford motored to Alliance Monday.

1,000 pounds new California Almonds at Fairmont Cream Station. Harvey Myers. 98

METHODIST.
"The Trial of Your Faith" will be the sermon topic Sunday morning. In the evening the church is to be turned over to the three women's organizations of Alliance, the Woman's club, the W. C. T. U. and the league of women voters, who have secured Miss Margaret Wintringer as speaker.
MEARL C. SMITH, Pastor.

Information about styles in winter overcoats arouses about as much interest at this season as an announcement of a coal dealer that fuel should be purchased early.

FOWLING
Mrs. William Butler has returned from a several weeks' stay with her sister in Rhode Island.
Mr. and Mrs. Jake Elsea were Alliance callers Saturday.
C. P. Mann shipped two cars of cattle to Omaha last Saturday. He accompanied the shipment, returning Tuesday.
Lonnie and Ernest Wilkins and Harley Brooks were callers at Eaton's Wednesday night.
Mrs. Nichols and babe visited at the Mann home Thursday.
Mrs. Elsea went to Alliance Wednesday for a few days' stay.
Ed Wilkins and brother, Alva, were Alliance callers Wednesday.
Jasper Colvin and wife motored to Alliance Saturday.
Nels Peterson and Einar Christensen motored to Alliance Friday with a load of potatoes for the latter.
Mr. Mann hauled out a load of coal Thursday.

DRESS MY TOP

The top protects you from the sun, the rain, and all other weather.

Now you should protect your top.

Tops cost money, and wear out fast, but,

Tops can be protected. I have a dressing of my own make that will put, and keep your top in perfect condition, providing you bring your car in a couple of times a season, and let me give it the once over.

My charges are so small for this service, that you cannot afford to let it go another day.

When it comes to SERVICE see A1.
