

The young people's missionary society and Sunday school class of the Christian church gave a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening at the church basement in honor of Miss Leila Cutts and Miss Glenna Lawrence, who was married Monday evening to H. M. Houston. On account of Mr. Houston being called to Trinidad Monday night, Miss Lawrence was married two days sooner than was expected, and was unable to attend the shower. The entertainment was a surprise, and the bride and bride-to-be received many beautiful presents. The guest list included: Mesdames Kenneth Morman, W. E. Cutts, J. S. Robbins, F. C. Lape, Roy Sanders, S. J. Epler, J. R. Lawrence, the Misses Lemand Wilcox, Inis Jennings, Cora Lewis, Laura Ryckman, Thelma Sanders, Lily Lawrence, Ida Clark, Marie Frazier, Carolyn Hahn, Valentine Lawrence, Evelyn Robbins, Leila Cutts, Maud Nason, Fern McFarland, Irene Epler; and Messrs. Arthur Lawrence, Robert Lawrence, Bruce Epler, Charles Lar-kins, Joe Alspaugh, Edie Hopkins, W. C. Cooper, F. C. Lape, John Bauer, W. E. Cutts, E. D. McCarty, Froy Sanders and Stephen Epler.

Mrs. J. M. Andrews expects to leave Sunday for Edgemont for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Minor Morris, Mrs. Stephen J. Epler and Mrs. Harry Thiele, committee of the Alliance Woman's club on a parent-teachers organization, has reported that a meeting was held at the high school November 3 at 4:30 p. m. to consider the matter of organizing such an association. Miss Blanch Wilson, principal of Central school, presided. There were present three teachers, representing the teaching force of the city, three members of the P. E. O. and the three members of the Woman's club committee.

After calling the meeting to order, Miss Wilson read some literature on parent-teacher associations, their aims and objects, it being some material on the subject which Mr. Pate had secured previous to the meeting to help in the organization.

Monday evening, October 28, at 8 o'clock at the high school auditorium were chosen as the time and place for the first community or mass meeting of those interested. The following committees were then elected: Constitution and by-laws, Mr. Pate, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Gavin; program and entertainment, Mrs. Epler, Miss McNichols and Mrs. Hively; publicity, Miss Wilson.
