

CHURCHES

LUTHERAN CHURCH.
Divine service Sunday morning at 10:30 in German. Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Come and worship with us.
F. DROEGEMUELLER, Pastor.

BAPTIST CHURCH.
People cannot speak in high enough terms of the meetings now going on under the guidance of the pastor. Neither can he speak in high enough terms for the faithfulness of his people. With but few if any exceptions the church membership has stood by the meetings nightly. The choir could not have done better. We close next Sunday night, notwithstanding there is a great demand that the pastor continue at least one more week. But we shall hold to our winter's program which called for two weeks meetings. Several additions thus far have been voted on and several more have been promised to come in with us.

Sunday morning the service will be special, in honor of the old people. Everyone with a car is asked to find some old man and woman and bring them to church. The pastor will have a special message for them.

At the evening service we will have the privilege of having with us Mr. Mann's orchestra which will furnish the music.

Tomorrow night the pastor preaches on "Baptism—Does it Save? Why it Does Not."

B. J. MINORT, Pastor.

CHURCH OF CHRIST.
The Apostle Paul said, "I am not ashamed of the Gospel for it is the power of God until salvation to every one that believeth." The gospel being the power, let us rely upon that to win souls to Christ. Again we read, "It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe."
The minister will preach his sermons for next Lord's Day using the subjects, "The Light of the World," and "The Age-Long Battle." It will do you good to attend these services. In the morning, come in time to be in a Bible class at 10 o'clock. On account of the storm last Sunday we lacked about 60 of having 300 in Bible school. We can make it next Sunday if we will try.

The mid-week meeting on Wednesday evening is the place for all to attend.

The Junior Orchestra* plays every Sunday, both morning and evening. Come to the church with a message and a welcome.

S. J. EPLER, Minister.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
This is Presbyterian Magazine week. All over the United States the Presbyterian church is trying to get its own Presbyterian people to read about their own great work in the Kingdom of God, through their own official medium, the Presbyterian Magazine, a publication of from 50 to 60 pages coming every month for only 75c a year and worth double the price. Every month there are articles of interest from the whole field of service of the Presbyterian church. Hand your subscription to the pastor. To make it possible for you to know about the forward movements of Christianity is an integral part of the church's work.

Next Sunday's services: Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. The only medal ever won by Will Hays, postmaster general, who by the way is a Presbyterian elder, was one for regular attendance at Sunday school. Can you qualify in the same class as this national leader? Attend one of the classes in our school Sunday morning. You will be made welcome.

Morning worship, 11 a. m., "The Gentleness of God," text, "Thy gentleness hath made me great." Psalm 18; 36.

Evening service, 7:30 p. m.: Annual praise service of Woman's Missionary society. The program follows:
