The Eastern Star gave an entertainment at the Masonic hall Tuesday evening in honor of the teachers of Alliance who are members of the order. After the initiatory service at which one of the teachers, Miss Frances Fletcher, was admitted to the order, a short program was given, consisting of several selections by a male quartet, composed of A. H. Robbins, E. G. Laing, C. H. Fuller, and Floyd Lucas; a reading by Mrs. Minor Morris, and a short talk by Rev. Stephen Epler. Refreshments of sandwiches, salad and coffee were served by the "S" group. The following teachers were present: Professor W. R. Pate, Principal F. C. Prince, Mesdames Lam and Price, and the Misses Sneathen, Braddock, Waite, Wilson, Young, Graham, Durwell, Atwood and Spencer, and Miss Fletcher, candidates. Each teacher was presented with a carnation.

Mrs. Inice Dunning will be honorary guest.

A meeting of the charter members of the woman's auxiliary to Alliance post of the American Legion was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. A. O. Dodge. Eight charter members were present. Mrs. Jennie Williams, Mrs. Rathburn, Miss Marie Rathburn, Mrs. Ella Bock, Mrs. Joe Williams, Mrs. M. L. Johnson, Mrs. Andrew Dodge and Mrs. George Burr. The meeting night was set for the second Monday in each month. All charter members who were not present and who have not paid the fee should leave the money with the acting chairman, Mrs. Dodge; the secretary, Mrs. Burr, or at The Herald office.

Alliance friends have received announcement of the birth of Louis Brokaw Stryker, who arrived December 4, weighing ten pounds, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stryker of Kearney. Mrs. Stryker was formerly Miss Elsie Johnson, penmanship instructor in the Alliance schools, coming to this city in 1918. Miss Johnson introduced the Palmer method into the Alliance schools and her husband is now penmanship instructor at the Kearney normal. In her short stay in Alliance, she won a wide circle of friends.

The regularly monthly meeting of Alliance post of the American Legion will be held at the Palm Room of the Alliance hotel on Tuesday evening, December 13. The legion is planning to stage a home talent play early in January, and the discussion at the meeting will be concerned to some extent with arrangements for this production. The Joe Bren company, which staged the minstrel show for the Elks last year, has been secured, and practice will start immediately after Christmas, according to present plans.

Miss Alta Young was entertained by the choir and pastor's family Wednesday evening after the choir practice at the Baptist church. Miss Young was compelled to lead the choir to the parsonage where she was to be the guest of honor, unknown to her. After a sumptuous oyster supper, she was presented with a three-piece silver set as a token from the choir of the appreciation they felt for the way she has worked with them. About thirty people made up the party.

The "get-together" party, held at the parish house of St. Matthews Episcopal church Tuesday evening, was one of the most successful gatherings of its kind ever held in Alliance. Mesdames A. O. Dodge, A. V. Gavin, E. W. Harris and F. E. Holsten were hostesses, and the evening was spent in various amusements. It is planned to hold these get-together affairs monthly.

Mrs. F. G. Hitchcock entertained this afternoon at a 1:30 luncheon and Monte Carlo whist party. The guest list included Mesdames C. L. Finch, H. E. Felters, Harry Patrick, Frank Mackey, A. E. Nelson, D. L. Sturgeon, A. W. Newberg, J. H. Standard, A. J. Cole, W. E. Spencer, H. A. Dubuque, C. J. Young and R. M. Tinkcom.

There will be a special meeting of the O. E. S. Kensington next Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of sending a Christmas box to the order's children's home at Fremont and the home for aged members at Plattsmouth. Members are asked please to remember to bring their donations.

The ladies of Mrs. E. I. Gregg's Sunday school class very pleasantly surprised their teacher last Tuesday afternoon in celebration of her sixty-fifth birthday last Sunday. There were sixteen of the ladies present and Mrs. Gregg received many beautiful presents.

Following the regular monthly meeting of Most M. T. P. A., tonight, at the chamber of commerce rooms, the ladies will report at 8 o'clock and the party will adjourn to the armory for dancing and other amusements. A lunch will be served later in the evening.

City Manager's Corner
(By N. A. KEMMISH)

Jack George made application for a pool hall license to the city council last evening. Members of the council were not favorably impressed with the references and delayed action on the license for one week until further investigation can be made, regarding the applicant.

Owing to the increase of crime in other places it was deemed advisable to put on an extra night police officer here for awhile. Applications will therefore be in order, giving age, experience and salary expected.

This seems to be the time of year when contagious diseases are most prevalent. We are now fortunate in being practically free from all contagious diseases in Alliance. We are however using every safeguard possible along this line for your protection. It is the duty of every citizen in case of sickness arising in the family to use reasonable care in seeing that the sick are cared for without exposing others until it is established whether or not the patient has some contagious disease. In doing this you are doing your duty as a good citizen and helping us to protect your family and your neighbors.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Sedan is the favorite family car, seats five comfortably. While an enclosed car with permanent top, it has large windows, and may in a minute be changed to a most delightful open car with always a top protecting against the sun. In inclement weather it is a closed car, dust-proof, water-proof, cold-proof. Finely upholstered. Equipped with electric starting and lighting system and demountable rims with 3 1/2-inch tires all around. A real family car. Anybody can safely drive it. It has all the conveniences of an electric car with the economy which goes with Ford cars, low cost of purchase price, small cost of operation and maintenance. Won't you come in and look at it?
