ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE NORTHWESTERN CATTLE LOAN AND INVESTMENT COMPANY.

We, the undersigned incorporators, for ourselves and others hereafter to be associated with us, do hereby in pursuance of the statutes of the State of Nebraska, in such cases made and provided, associate ourselves as a body corporate, in the manner and for the purpose of forming an Installment Investment Company in accordance with Article 17, of the 1919 Session Laws.

ARTICLE I. Name.

Said corporation shall be and is hereby named the NORTHWESTERN CATTLE LOAN AND INVESTMENT COMPANY.

ARTICLE II. Place of Business.

The principal place of business of the corporation shall be in the City of Alliance, Box Butte County, Nebraska.

ARTICLE III. Nature of Business.

The general nature of the business to be transacted by the corporation is the extension of credit and the loaning of money to and for the benefit of the agricultural and live stock interests of Nebraska. In extending credit and making loans, the corporation may take security, by note and mortgage or otherwise, upon live stock, grain, hay, alfalfa and other farm products, and upon agricultural implements and appliances used for farm purposes. It may take, as additional security, mortgages on farm lands, ranches and other real estate. The corporation may also purchase notes and mortgages heretofore or hereafter executed upon such security. It shall have power and authority to handle, hold, sell, assign, transfer, endorse and guarantee the payment of any and all notes, bonds, mortgages or other obligations, taken, bought or held in the exercise of the powers herein granted. The corporation is further authorized and empowered to borrow money for corporate use; and, to that end, it may execute, endorse and deliver notes, bonds, mortgages, assignments, or other instruments or evidences of indebtedness, and guarantee the payment thereof; and it may pledge as security therefor any of the property owned or held by the corporation. The corporation may lease, purchase, own, hold and sell all real and personal property necessary for corporate use. In addition to the powers expressly granted herein, it is the intention to vest in the corporation all the incidental and implied powers necessary to carry out in a broad and liberal way the purposes of the organization.

ARTICLE IV. Capital Stock.

The authorized capital stock of the corporation is Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) divided into five hundred shares of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) each. Business may be commenced when two hundred fifty (250) shares have been subscribed and fully paid. Further subscriptions to stock and payments thereon shall be as directed and ordered by the board. Stockholders shall be liable for the full amount of their unpaid subscriptions. When fully paid for, the stock shall be non-assessable.

ARTICLE V. Life of Corporation.

The corporation shall commence when its Articles of Incorporation have been filed, and it shall terminate on the first day of January, 1946, unless sooner dissolved.

ARTICLE VI. Indebtedness.

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which the corporation shall at any time subject itself shall not exceed an amount equal to two-thirds of the capital stock; provided however, the above limitation shall not apply to notes, bonds or debentures where the payment of such notes, bonds or debentures shall be secured by the actual transfer of real estate by trust deed or mortgage; which real estate so transferred shall be of twice the value of the par value of such notes, bonds or debentures. Provided, further, said limitation shall not apply to the guaranty of the corporation for the payment after transfer of any such notes, bonds or debentures.

ARTICLE VII. Business—How Conducted.

The affairs and business of the corporation are to be conducted by a board of five directors, and by the officers by them to be elected, and hereinafter provided. The directors may constitute three of their number an executive committee, with power to act.

ARTICLE VIII. Annual Meetings—Election of Directors.

The first meeting of the stockholders shall be held on the 10th day of January, 1922, and their regular annual meeting shall be held on the 1st Tuesday in February; Provided, however, no annual meeting shall be held until February. At the first meeting, and at each annual meeting thereafter, the board of directors shall be elected; to hold office until the annual meeting next after their election and until their successors are elected.

ARTICLE IX. Election of Officers.

The board of directors shall, as soon as possible after their election, elect from their own number a President, one or more Vice-Presidents, and a Secretary and Treasurer; to hold office until the annual meeting next after their election and until their successors are elected. One person may hold the offices of Secretary and Treasurer.

ARTICLE X. By Laws—Vacancies.

The board of directors shall have full power and authority to make all rules and by-laws necessary for the proper management and control of the business affairs of the corporation, and they may alter and amend the same. Vacancies occurring in the board of directors shall be filled by the stockholders; and other officers, vacant from whatever cause, shall be filled by the directors.

ARTICLE XI. Corporate Seal. The corporation hereby adopts a corporate seal, which shall contain the words: "NORTHWESTERN CATTLE LOAN AND INVESTMENT COMPANY, CORPORATE SEAL."

ARTICLE XII. Amendments. These Articles of Incorporation may be amended by the stockholders at any regular meeting, or special meeting called for that purpose. A draft of the proposed amendment shall be submitted to each stockholder with the notice of the meeting to which it is to be considered, which notice shall be given at least ten days prior to the date of the meeting. An amendment approved by the holders of two-thirds of the capital stock shall be considered adopted, and be and become a part of the Articles of Incorporation; and the directors, or a majority thereof, shall thereafter subscribe, acknowledge, record and publish the same as by law required.

H. A. COPSEY, President. CHAS. BRITTON, Secretary. JAY O. WALKER, Vice President. FRED W. HAYES, Director. BEATRICE O'BRYAN, Director.

Witness: H. E. GANTZ, Notary Public, Box Butte County, ss:

On this 30 day of December, 1921, personally before me, H. E. Gantz, a notary public in and for said county and state, duly commissioned and qualified, came H. A. Copsey, Chas. Britton, Beatrice O'Bryan, Fred W. Hayes and Jay O. Walker to me well known to be the identical persons whose names are affixed to the foregoing articles of incorporation, and they severally acknowledged the execution of the same to be their voluntary act and deed for the purposes in said articles expressed.

In Testimony Whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my official seal the day and date last above written.

H. E. GANTZ, Notary Public. My Commission expires May 9, 1922. Jan. 20-Feb. 21.

A SAFE TEST

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Alliance people. Ask your neighbor.

Mrs. C. O. West, 303 Yellowstone, Alliance, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a standard medicine for kidney trouble in our home and have been for years. My people had Doan's in their house all the time and whenever any of the family needed a kidney medicine it was always Doan's that was relied upon to straighten them up. I sometimes had attacks of dizzy spells, headaches and backaches. Whenever I had one of these attacks I took Doan's Kidney Pills and they always cured me promptly. It is a pleasure to give Doan's my hearty endorsement."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's kidney pills—the same that Mrs. West had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

SURE THING, NOW

Some years ago an engineering company, laying a railroad in the wilds, had occasion to employ a number of foreigners on grade route, relates the American Legion Weekly. In some cases there men, through their own ability or through the scarcity of more competent workers, became sub-foremen, who were instructed to take charge of their particular part of the job in case of the death or illness of their immediate superiors. It was from one of these that the company received the following telegram:

"Boss dead. What to do?" "If you are sure he is dead, bury him. Will send another boss," wired back the company. The next day they received a second telegram from the obliging alien: "All right. Buried him. Made sure he was dead. Hit him on head with shovel."
