Garden County News Urges G-P-C Boosters to Stay on the Job

Garden County News: We learn from reliable sources that the Gulf-Plains-Canadian highway never has been marked between Oshkosh and Broadwater and that the highway south of Julesburg for a good many miles also never has been marked according to the regulations. Isn't it about time that something was being done about this? We would like very much to see the highway given the proper attention from the officers and others interested so that the next road logs, which will be out before spring arrives, will show the route. It won't be shown if the route isn't marked. The marking has been put up the entire distance from here to Julesburg, with the exception of through the canyons over the new road. This was done in accordance with the agreement made at the meeting last fall at Broadwater and some others were to attend to the marking from here west. Who's fault is this?

Another matter that should have immediate attention is the appointment of a secretary to take the place of E. D. Hutchinson. Hutchinson was not only moved away from Broadwater but is now living in the North Star territory. If he hasn't resigned his move would indicate that it was his intention to do so, and it seems that President Merritt should call a meeting of the vice-presidents and advisory board of the different counties, and fill the vacancy immediately.

Of course, we know that there is a lot of this important work that is being left over till spring and a good deal of this kind of work will be done by our own public service club when the weather warms up, but there are some things that should receive attention right away and the matters mentioned above are some of them.

We are not finding fault with anyone, but isn't it certainly proper to keep these things before the people interested?

Wake up! Come alive! Let's put a pinch or two more "pep" in this organization and its success will be more easily realized.

CHURCHES

LUTHERAN CHURCH.

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, English service. Sunday school after the service. You are welcome.

F. DROEGEMUELLER, Pastor.

METHODIST CHURCH.

What name shall be given to the north part of the new building which includes the combined gymnasium and recreation hall, dining room, kitchen, Sunday school hall, parlor, Sunday school departmental rooms, office, and shower rooms? Various names have been suggested such as "Community Building," "Epworth Hall," "Parish House" and "Recreation Building." It will be completed in a few weeks. A fine maple floor has been laid in the gymnasium and a large force of carpenters are rapidly completing the woodwork.

Sunday morning the sermon topic will be "A Church in the Home." It is the firm conviction of this writer that much of the lack of moral and religious standards, as well as the crime waves, are due to an absence of religious atmosphere in our homes. An hour a week of Sunday school training is good, but it can never take the place of religious worship in the home. We are hoping for a revival of family altars in the homes of our congregation. There are quite a number already, but many more are needed.

Sunday evening comes the musical treat when the choir of thirty voices led by Mrs. Inice Dunning will give their special program entitled, "The Story of the Orient" in costume. Nothing like this has been given in our church, at least in recent years. The program appears elsewhere in this issue.

Remember the Epworth league and the story book now being taken up, "John Wesley, jr." It is an interesting story of a modern young man and the things that he is most concerned in. At 6:30 Sunday evening.

M. C. SMITH, Pastor.

CHURCH OF CHRIST.

"How Long Will the Church Live?" is the subject to be discussed at the morning hour of worship next Lord's day morning. The minister is optimistic and believes that great changes and advancement are in store for the church within the next few years. The church is asserting itself in power, not in politics, but in its influence for good. At the evening hour another chart sermon will be given. This will illustrate the contribution that was made to religious life and thought by some of the preachers of the middle ages. You can be among the many who are being helped by these sermons.

The Bible school begins at ten o'clock and is merged into the regular church services, which continue until noon. Judge Tash will address the intermediate boys during their class period. This will be an interesting session and every boy is urged to be present.

We are hoping for the weather to grow warmer so that all members and friends will be present at all services. According to our custom of late years we will enter the pre-Easter campaign which closes with a two week's meeting before Easter. The Bible school and Endeavor society will cooperate with the church in making this campaign a success.

An invitation is extended to you who have no church home to attend the church with a message and a welcome.

S. J. EPLER, Minister.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

Several of our folks who have been sick are getting along nicely at present. Stella Clark, who has been at the parsonage, has been transferred to the home of the nurse, from which she hopes to be able to go home Sunday. We hope to see some that were not at the Bible school this week and will no doubt miss brother Fuller from his post, as he is at the hospital, where he has undergone an operation from which we hope he will rapidly recover.

The men's class will continue to study of last lesson, by unanimous consent, the subject being, "The First Sin." Very interesting thoughts were brought out by the men. Some of the deacons and trustees have been helping the pastor visit some of the sick, and investigating the needy cases; this beautiful spirit of cooperation is appreciated.

Subject for Sunday sermons as follows: "Who Will Go?" morning; evening, special sermon for the Alliance volunteer fire department, who will be our guests. The orchestra will assist in the singing, also have at least one special number. We are glad to greet the firemen of Alliance; they are perhaps the least appreciated class of men. We think of them only when we are in trouble. It is only fitting that we show more interest in these men whose work is one of pure benevolence and service to others. The text will be, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man will lay down his life for his friends."

Welcome all, to the friendly church with the friendly grip.

B. J. MINORT, Pastor.

Burlington Still On Salvage Work At Union Bridge

A girder of the Union bridge which was destroyed in a wreck last June has recently been raised although it was imbedded in twenty feet of sand at one end and five feet at the other. Two powerful derricks were used, one on each end and with these the engineers were able to pull the beam out. Another girder is still in the sand and cannot be removed until the new bridge is completed. To remove these girders it is necessary to pump out the sand before the chains to lift it can be attached.

It was from beneath this bridge that an engine was taken and sent to Havelock to be repaired. The total cost of salvaging this engine was $15,000 and the cost of such an engine new is $60,000. According to D. W. Bradley, master carpenter, this engine will soon be in running order again.
