

Mrs. Inice McCorkle Dunning will entertain Wednesday at a Valentine day party at the home of her parents...

Merchants and Farmers bank of Morrill was in Alliance Monday while on his way home from Chicago.

Billy Ackerman stopped in Alliance today between trains while en route from Lincoln to Bridgeport...

The Altar society of the Catholic church will meet Wednesday with Mrs. John Brennan and Mrs. E. H. Boyd as hostesses.

The Sunday school at Berea will give a poverty social at the church basement Thursday evening, February 9.

Mrs. Cora Hershey this week enters the W. R. Harper Department Store in their millinery department.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Broome of Antioch spent the week-end in Alliance visiting friends.

The Episcopal guild will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. W. Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Ray of Hemingford were in Alliance Monday on business.

W. M. Finnegan and Charles Brittan left Monday for Dunning on business.

The P. E. O. Sisterhood met at the home of Mrs. M. S. Hargraves Monday.

C. Mosler, of Lakeside, was in the city a few hours today on a business trip.

Miss Sarah O'Keefe is in the hospital in training to be a nurse.

Imperial Books Big Features for Next Few Months

What is considered to be the largest entertainment deal ever closed in this part of the west was finished this morning between the representatives of the United Artists, the Associated Producers and the Imperial Theatre...

Judge Bayard H. Paine of Grand Island stopped over in Alliance Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning en route from North Platte to Hyannis.

Alliance council, Knights of Columbus, will hold another card party at the club rooms Thursday evening.

Mrs. H. E. Gantz will entertain her bridge club Thursday afternoon.

Charley McGill of seven miles east of Hemingford left Sunday for Mason City, Custer county, Nebraska.

The funeral of F. E. Reddish was held from the Episcopal church last Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

The degree team of Alliance council, Knights of Columbus, will go to Lead, S. D., on February 26, to confer degrees on a class of candidates for the council of that city.

O. B. Emerson of Afton, Ia., a boyhood friend of County Judge L. E. Tash, visited in Alliance Monday, taking dinner with Judge and Mrs. Tash.

T. E. Carney left Saturday for Chadron where he visited over Sunday with his wife.

The M. E. Choir will meet at the home of Mrs. J. C. McCorkle Thursday evening at 7:30.

Elizabeth Hume, Helen Newman, Calia Newman and Verna Smith, students in St. Agnes academy spent the week end in Bridgeport with their parents.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. J. A. Keegan Thursday afternoon, February 9.

State Senator God was in town Saturday, stopping over on his way from Lincoln after the special session of the legislature, to Scottsbluff.

John Boatsman, president of the Former Alliance Woman and Child to Be Reunited

Mrs. N. E. Burkett of Oroville, Wash., spent several days in Omaha last week trying to find some traces of her daughter, Virginia May...

Disappointed, Mrs. Burkett started on the long trip back home. She knew no more of her daughter than she did before.

When the mother arrives home, she will find there a telegram from the lost daughter. It will be from Mrs. R. E. Dempey, 1322 Park avenue, who did not learn of her mother's search in Omaha until after she had done.

"I was 17 when I left home in Alliance, Neb., ten years ago," said Mrs. Dempey last night.

Mrs. Dempey said she expected her mother would immediately return to Omaha if able to stand the journey.

"One a Minute," a photoplay dealing with P. T. Barnum's famous remark concerning the birthrate of fools, will be the attraction at the Imperial tonight.

Pearl White in "Beyond Price" is the Wednesday feature. In the beginning of the play, she makes three wishes.

The big feature of the week comes Thursday, in Rex Ingram's "The Conquering Power," made by the producer and the cast that made "The Four Horsemen" such a brilliant success.

The present football scandal seems to bid fair for wrecking every strong team in the middle west with the possible exception of Nebraska and Chicago.

Kimball has a town basket ball team that from all reports should give any team a stiff tussle.

Sutton and Geneva, two rather small towns, have made remarkable records in basket ball.

Ravenna defeated the Grand Island business college, 34 to 12, last week. The business college has applied for membership in the state conference.

Few high scores have been run up in western Nebraska high school basketball in recent years and what is believed to be a record game was played between Alliance and Crawford on Crawford's floor in 1908.

Quotations of the value of currency in a few foreign countries indicate very little more than a slight margin of profit on the cost of manufacture.

A woman will thank her stars that a man doesn't notice when the house isn't cleaned up, and then get mad because he doesn't notice it when it is.

The labor gang at the storehouse force has received a cut off 9 cents per hour in wages, effective February 1.

SPORTS

Chappell maintained their lead in the western Nebraska conference by defeating Oshkosh in a one-sided game. This puts Chappell ahead with a seven-game no-lose record.

Scottsbluff defeated Bayard Friday 20 to 17, in a game which, according to the Scottsbluff paper, was one of the roughest ever seen on the Scottsbluff floor.

Buck Herron of Bayard has gone to Michigan to join forces with his former coach, Spruitt. Herron was all western fullback in 1920 and all western quarterback in 1921.

Emerson and Central grade schools tangled in a preliminary to the Sidney-Alliance game Friday night.

A forward on the Shenandoah, Ia., basket ball team set a record which is seldom if ever equalled.

The present football scandal seems to bid fair for wrecking every strong team in the middle west with the possible exception of Nebraska and Chicago.

Kimball has a town basket ball team that from all reports should give any team a stiff tussle.

Sutton and Geneva, two rather small towns, have made remarkable records in basket ball.

Ravenna defeated the Grand Island business college, 34 to 12, last week. The business college has applied for membership in the state conference.

Few high scores have been run up in western Nebraska high school basketball in recent years and what is believed to be a record game was played between Alliance and Crawford on Crawford's floor in 1908.

or rather slaughter the score stood 86 to 0 in favor of Alliance. The team at that time had Leo and Phil Nohe as forwards, John Shay as center and Lyle Mewhriter and Jack Taylor as guards.

Artificial silk is now being made from alcohol. Think of buying this precious stuff by the yard!

There has been so much summer weather this winter that, we are told, fur dealers have done a big business.

Have you noticed that some of the high shoes in the show windows are lower than some of the low shoes were last spring?

Footprints on the sands of time is right, but footprints on the fresh fall of snow go rather hard with a rabbit.

Universal peace is promised in 1922 by the British Journal of Astrology, but we'll have it sooner if the people will only stop fighting.

It cannot cost much to elect a president in Switzerland, or they could not have a new one every year.

The trouble is that in reading about the arms parley you get more dope than hope.

Advertisement for Thiele's Gifts That Last. Features a woman in a dress and lists various Valentine's items like bracelet, earrings, and pins. Includes the slogan 'A Valentine For Your Wife' and 'THIELE'S The Store With a Guarantee Without Red Tape'.

Large advertisement for Lau and Blackbird Brands of canned fruit and vegetables. Features the slogan 'See Them Taste Them' and 'Believing That Our Patrons Will Best Realize the True Excellence of'. Includes details for a 'Three-Day Demonstration' on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, February 9, 10, and 11.

Advertisement for TONIGHT DOUGLAS McLEAN, in FEB. 7th "ONE A MINUTE" a Comedy in 6 Acts. Adm., 10 & 30c

Advertisement for IMPERIAL THEATRE WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 9 Pearl White, in "BEYOND PRICE" And "WINNERS OF THE WEST" Adm., 10 & 30c

Advertisement for THURS. FEB. 9 REX INGRAM PRODUCTION "CONQUERING POWER" Featuring RUDOLPH VALENTINO Same Cast as "The Four Horsemen" One Day Only Adm.—Matinee, 13 & 40c; Night, 25 & 50c, & War Tax