

ANTIOCH

Miss Carlson of St. Paul, Minn., arrived Wednesday to fill the vacancy as high school teacher by the resignation of Miss Graham. Miss Graham returned to her home at Broken Bow, owing to the illness of her mother.

Mrs. Charles Herian returned from Hay Springs Thursday, where she had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bemshoter.

Mrs. H. E. Wolf and Miss Stowell left Friday noon for Hyannis to root for the basket ball game.

Frank Rogers and Bert Newton left Sunday morning for North Platte with a bunch of horses, which they will try to dispose of to the farmers along the river.

Fred P. Brown has been seriously ill with tonsillitis the past week, but is able to be out at this writing.

Steitler Brown suffered a relapse and will be unable to attend school for some time.

Thursday the members of the Woman's club enjoyed one of the finest afternoons of the season with Mrs. F. H. Smith as hostess. The paper by Mrs. Messersmith on "The Well Balanced Menu as Related to Health," was splendid and instructive. The demonstration, salads and sandwiches were much enjoyed, each lady bringing a sandwich and salad for one, and exchanging for lunch. Next Thursday the program promises to be unusually interesting. The subject will be, "National Parks and American Scenery," and will be in charge of Mrs. Wolf. Election of officers will be held.

Wednesday, February 22, the two basket ball teams of Antioch with Coaches Messersmith and Krickbaum, and chaperone, Miss Hoffland, set out for new fields to conquer. Their first stop was Mullen, that town winning easily, score, boys 44 to 20; girls, 20 to 11. The Mullen teams are coached by Professor Paul Richey, who coached the Chadron State normal basket ball teams in 1918 and who is a whirlwind at athletics. After the games a dance was given in the evening and everything possible done to royally entertain the visitors. From Mullen the players came back to Hyannis, where they won an easy victory Friday night over the Hyannis teams, winning both games. Boys' score, 25 to 20; girls, 10 to 5. In the evening Miss Mable Haschube gave a dancing party at her home for the visitors. They report a delightful time. Saturday they played Whitman at Hyannis, Antioch again coming away with honors; score 23 to 11. Oral Case umpired the Hyannis and Whitman games. This is the first real trip our heroes have taken this season and all Antioch is jubilant over their victories, as Mullen boasts the fact that they have never been defeated on their own floor.

The masquerade ball advertised by the I. O. O. F. on the night of February 22 was a failure, owing to the severe weather. The few attending report a good time. They have another dance scheduled for March 4.

Mrs. George Hunsaker spent the week-end in the country, the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. L. Briggs.

The ice on the American lake is frozen smooth and skating is a favorite sport with many of the Antioch people.

Thelma Briggs is suffering with an attack of tonsillitis and is unable to attend school this week.

LAKESIDE

Mrs. Harry Graybill entertained a number of friends at her home in East Lakeside, February 17, at a card party. Refreshments consisting of chicken sandwiches, coffee, ice cream and cake were served. Those present were the Mesdames R. D. Kirkpatrick, R. A. Cook, F. Blumer, B. Reynolds, L. E. Berry, R. Wilson, F. McGinnis, A. Ryland, M. Shay, S. Leonard, and O. E. Black. Out-of-town guests were the Mesdames J. Herman from south of town, G. Hunsaker and J. Wilson of Antioch. A jolly good time was reported. Beryl Reynolds won first prize and Mrs. Shay consolation prize.

Mrs. J. L. Roe and children returned Thursday from a visit with her sister and family at Dunning.

Messrs. Roy Strong, S. W. Thompson, and James Burlington, jr., of Alliance were in Lakeside on business Friday morning.

Fred Speer and Glenn Hays drove in from the ranch Friday to shop, and take Miss Lola Speer out to her home for the week-end.

There was no school in the intermediate room here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, on account of the illness of the teacher, Miss Wilma Mote.

A. W. Tyler and daughter, Bertha, were in town Friday.

Rev. Charles Burleigh returned the latter part of the week from Crawford, where he went to have some dental work done.

Frank Westover and Mable Rose drove in Friday after Mrs. Westover and Emma, who went out to spend the week-end at the ranch.

Mrs. O. E. Black entertained the Five Hundred club at her home here Friday evening.

R. C. Brunson drove in from the Star ranch Saturday to visit home folks.

Alva Ash delivered a load of clover to Charles Barney here Saturday, from his home southeast of town.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. North were shopping here Saturday.

R. A. Cook and Clyde Simmons drove to Bingham Saturday to attend the road meeting and the latter to do some barber work.

R. D. Kirkpatrick returned last week from a business trip in the east.

N. McDaniels is in Wyoming on business.

Mrs. Clyde Fosdick and children of Alliance visited her parents here Saturday evening.

Edward Kennedy of Ellsworth was a Lakeside caller Saturday on his way home from Sidney.

Roadmaster F. M. Hoenshell was here Saturday with a work train and unloaded cinders between Lakeside and Ellsworth.

E. A. Olson, Wilbur Goodrich, Walter House, Lee Meeker, and Bruce Hunsaker helped with the cinder train here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Whaley and Mrs. Clyde Fosdick drove to Bingham Saturday evening.

Lee Meeker attended the dance at Bingham Saturday night, and returned home Sunday.

Jack Ballenger came up from Bingham Sunday to visit friends here.

Miss Ruth Pollard went to Halsey Sunday, to visit her sister and family, before going to Kearney to attend normal.

The Misses Wilma Mote and Alice Schill returned from Alliance Sunday.

ANGORA

C. M. Dove was a Bridgeport visitor Thursday.

W. N. Thompson is away on a business trip at present.

A. D. Hull and W. R. McCroskey were transacting business in Alliance Saturday.

O. A. Woods and Leslie Carson of Gering attended the Ely and McCroskey sale Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shoopman were in Bridgeport Saturday having dental work done.

Mrs. George Humphrey is quite seriously ill.

Miss Allee Boon spent the week-end at the ranch with home folks.

Miss Leeta Henderson came down from Scottsbluff last Saturday and visited with friends and relatives, returning Sunday evening.

Elmer Morehead has begun work on his new house, replacing the one that was destroyed by fire a few weeks ago.

Mrs. J. R. Kelly accompanied their son, Kerwood, to Alliance last Saturday, to have his eyes examined. He returned to Sidney Sunday, where he is attending school.

A. D. Hull made a business trip to Bayard Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Suit and children are visiting with relatives at Oshkosh.

Boyer Bros. are loading a car of potatoes this week.

Mrs. L. D. Carnine, who attended the dress construction school at Bridgeport a few weeks ago, held the first class of Communion club ladies which she is instructing at her home last Friday, and the same ladies will receive their second lesson at Mrs. Burry's this next Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Beister entertained quite a number of their friends at a card party Saturday evening. A very pleasant evening was spent, a delicious lunch was served.

The Ely and McCroskey sale, which was held Thursday, was very well attended and things sold well, although the day was extremely cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Miles gave another very enjoyable dance at their home Saturday night which was well attended.

The parents' and teachers' association met at the school house again Friday evening and an excellent program was given by the pupils and teachers. A very large crowd attended. It was a most enjoyable evening for the ladies, as the men were on the menu committee and everyone was served with the finest of oyster soup with no help from the ladies.

ELLSWORTH

J. H. Wehr left Saturday afternoon for Marsland, where he will visit for a short time with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wehr, and assist them in getting situated on a nearby ranch, where John Wehr will take up his new position as foreman of a large ranch April 1. His former employer has leased the ranch where John was formerly employed as foreman the past year. Mr. and Mrs. Wehr will visit relatives and friends in Ellsworth for a short time soon.

J. B. and E. J. Schonard, B. F. Bolinger, A. Moore, and Edward Kennedy visited Lakeside last Monday.

P. E. Law and J. L. Young were in the "slaughter" business Thursday evening, butchering a 300-lb. "porker" purchased from John Schonard.

A stray cow belonging to Walter Wightman, after nearly a week's search, was located at the ranch of C. E. North Thursday evening.

Patrick Reid and A. Moore shipped the last bunch of muskrats to leave this office this season, the carriers of this state being prohibited from hauling muskrat pelts after February 25, although this does not affect the shipment of other kinds of furs.

Many from here attended the Bingham dance and meeting of the Community club, which with the assistance of others from this end of the county, have been persistent in getting the proposed Alliance-Omaha road completed from Bingham to Lakeside and as the club was re-organized and outside help is now anticipated plans are under way for pushing the completion of this road. J. B. Kennedy represented Ellsworth at this meeting and H. Whaley and others from Lakeside attended and it is hoped that our united efforts will soon "start something" in the line of road building.

Gene Kennedy, Clinton and Ethel Fields, James McCulloch, Dillion Donohoe, Don Shrewsbury, Sarah Craig and others attended the Bingham dance Saturday, reporting a most enjoyable time.

Neal Ballinger visited friends in this vicinity Sunday.

Clyde Simmonds, Lakeside barber, will sell "hair cuts" in Ellsworth Thursday, coming up on 44 and returning on the evening local.

Edward Kennedy left Thursday evening on the west local for Alliance, where he visited friends that evening, going to Sidney Friday with the Alliance high school where he had the pleasure of seeing Alliance wallop the Sidneyites to the tune of 26 to 23.

J. B. Kennedy attended the funeral of a deceased friend, Dispatcher A. Gregory of Alliance, Sunday, going on 43 and making arrangements for night train 42 to stop that evening. Many from here took advantage of the night train stopping Sunday night and visited in Alliance that afternoon. Among those who went in were P. E. Law, L. E. Dunn, Misses Ruth Crofut and Fay Donohoe.

Mrs. J. B. Kennedy and daughter, Mrs. G. R. Schaffenberg of Casper, and her small daughter, Miss Margaret Ellen, arrived home Sunday night on 42. Mrs. Schaffenberg will visit at her former home here for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilbaugh visited friends and relatives in Bingham Saturday and Sunday, returning home

Sunday on 43.

Miss Ethel Fields visited at the home of Mrs. J. L. Young Sunday.

H. Lancaster visited with a sister in Alliance Sunday.

Several Sunday Alliance visitors attended the picture show and vaudeville, reporting a very good entertainment especially in the vaudeville line.

Gustaf Sandoz recently received a prize Duroc hog which he had purchased in the eastern part of the state. He plans to enter extensively into the pig business next season, and many other neighboring ranchers will raise hogs on a larger basis in the future as this season's experiments have proven that they may be quite profitably raised in this section of the sand hills.

McCarty Bros. plan in the near future to load out nearly a car load of potatoes which they had some time previous contracted to an Alliance spud merchant.

FAIRVIEW.

A large crowd attended the literary Friday night, despite the bad roads and cold weather. The vaudeville put on by Johnson and DeWester made quite a hit. The evening's entertainment was most enjoyable.

Vera, Laverne and Esther Nason spent Friday evening and Saturday at the Joe West home.

Lee Perkins, who has been working in the coal mines in Montana for the past year, has returned here and will work the coming summer for D. R. Lawrence.

Ed. Brost sold his ranch in the Marple neighborhood and will move his family to the home place, which he will farm with his brothers this year.

Mrs. F. H. Nason has been on the sick list for several days.

Anna Heath of Hemingford attended the literary program here Friday evening.

Eva Wilson and daughter, Jane, returned to their home near Dunlap Saturday. The little girl is much improved in health after being treated by an Alliance doctor.

Mrs. Hadley returned home Saturday after a ten days' stay in town.

D. R. Lawrence is hauling 300 bushels of barley to town, which he traded to O'Bannon & Neuswanger for corn.

J. W. Frazier visited with his family in town Saturday.

Barton Kline and wife and Miss Emma Kline spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. B. L. Kline.

Rev. Mr. Johnson, Ross DeWester, J. W. Frazier, and Virgil Wessel, wife and daughter took dinner Sunday at the T. J. Lawrence home.

Little Gladys Chilson was quite sick Sunday. Grandpa and grandma Loranee took her to town to a doctor.

D. R. Lawrence, wife and son, Phil Lee Perkins and Ray Heath were callers at the T. J. Lawrence home Sunday afternoon.

The Herb Nason family spent Sunday evening at the Fred Nason home.

Nels Nelson is moving to the farm which he has rented west of town.

The farmers' union will hold an all-day meeting at the home of W. J. Lorance Wednesday, March 1, instead of a social in the evening, as was announced last Friday. Everyone invited.

Tanlac makes people strong, sturdy and well by toning up the vital organs. F. E. Holsten. 27

Opera by wireless isn't such a feat when one record can cover an entire neighborhood.

So much is happening that nowadays very few persons get heated over the Darwinian theory.

The man who says sugar is the sweetest thing known never slept until ten o'clock in the morning.

If the wagon starts on its rounds with milk and is driven so fast that it delivers butter it is at least proof that the milk was genuine.

It is an ill wind that does not blow some business in the direction of manufacturers of overcoats.

The trouble with some bank bandits is that they are not suited for the job.

Do the bandits that hold up the soft drink parlors use a pop gun?

Nature's Remedy
NR-TABLETS-NR
 Better than Pills GET A
 For Liver Ills. 25c Box
 Thiele, Prescription Druggist.

Never have a garden before? Well you don't know what you've missed. It's real joy working in the pure fresh air and most healthful recreation. Besides look at the satisfaction of eating vegetables from your own garden—surely compensation enough for the little care required. Write for our 1922 Year Book—it will be your guide and cost you nothing.

THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN SEED CO.
 DENVER, COLORADO.

PUBLIC SALE

We, the undersigned, have decided to dissolve partnership, and will sell at public auction, at the Dick O'Bannon farm, three miles west and 1/2 mile south of Alliance, on

Monday, March 6, 1922

Beginning After Free Lunch at Noon
 the following described property, to-wit:

32--HEAD OF MULES--32

All from 2 to 4 years old. Three teams broke in good shape

18--HEAD OF HORSES--18

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1 team, 6-year-olds, broke, weight 2500.             | 1 team bays, 7 and 9 years old, broke, weight 2200. |
| 1 team mares, 7 and 9 years old, broke, weight 2500. | 1 saddle mare, 6 years old, weight 1000.            |
| 1 spotted saddle horse, 6 years old, weight 1100.    | 1 saddle horse, 4 years old, weight 900.            |

3 HEAD OF HOGS---Weight 75 pounds each

200 BUSHELS SHUCKED CORN                      200 BUSHELS SNAPPED CORN
 A LOT OF GOOD SEED CORN

FARM MACHINERY

- |   |                                      |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| 1 wagon, nearly new   | 1 cultivator                         |
| 1 hay rack and wagon  | 1 plow, riding attachment            |
| 1 International haystacker  | 1 gasoline pump engine               |
| 1 McCormick mowing machine  | 1 two-section harrow                 |
| 1 McCormick hay rake, 12-foot                                       | 1 14-foot galvanized tank            |
| 1 hay sweep, 12-foot  | 4 sets good work harness and collars |
| 1 corn planter  | 1 Cogshell saddle, as good as new    |
| 1 garage and pump house, and other articles to numerous to mention. |                                      |

TERMS OF SALE—All sums of $50 or under, cash; over that amount a credit of seven months' time will be given on bankable paper bearing 10 per cent interest, or a discount of 3 per cent will be given for cash. Parties desiring credit will arrange for same before sale. No property to be removed until settled for.

Walt Vogel and Jim Jacobs, Owners
 FIRST STATE BANK, Charles Brittan, Clerk.                      Col. H. P. Coursey, Auctioneer, Alliance.