

A letter received this week by Judge J. H. H. Hewitt of this city from R. C. Noleman, attorney, formerly located in Alliance and well known to many residents here, brings the news that he is in good health and is enjoying life. He owns a little ranch about ten miles from his home in Los Angeles, and spends Saturday and Sunday of each week in the open air, which furnishes healthful relaxation from his law practice. Among other things, Mr. Noleman wrote of attending the Nebraska state picnic at Los Angeles on March 31, at which he saw a number of former Box Butte county residents. Dr. H. H. Bellwood is now practicing at Long Beach and is achieving considerable success, he writes. He tells of the picnic as follows:

"At the picnic, I saw T. J. O'Keefe, Dr. Bellwood, George Leidy, Rowan, Morris Vaughn, Jack Reardon, Drake, Preston, Louie Sprise, Zediker, A. Langford, Roberts, Miles, many of their ladies, and also some acquaintances from Dawes, Sheridan, Scottsbluff and other places. There were several thousand Nebraskans there, much talk-fest and all seemed to be proud of the state and the assembly—I was impressed with the small number who stood up and said they were born in Nebraska, most of them had gone to Nebraska from some other state.

Although this is a trifle early in the season, activities at the Alliance country club are almost in full swing. The golf links are especially popular. Last Sunday golfers were in evidence from early morning until night, and early morning games are now being scheduled. The dining room at the club is open, and is drawing a good number of dinner parties. The lake will be one of the drawing cards this summer. Several new canoes have been ordered, and some of them have already put in an appearance. From all indications, when the summer's dance series begins, the club will be the center of social activities in the city.

The Presbyterian ladies' aid society was entertained Wednesday by Mrs. William Bevington, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: president, Mrs. J. S. Rhein; first vice-president, Mrs. H. E. Marvin; second vice-president, Mrs. D. L. Sturgeon; secretary, Mrs. F. J. Peterson and treasurer, Mrs. R. E. Knight.

The ladies of the Eastern Star Kensington are giving their parcel post sale Saturday, April 8, at the old express office in the Masonic Temple. It is to be in the afternoon and they especially invite country people to attend. Children's fish pond will be open from three to four o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Renneau will leave this evening for Grand Island, where they will make their home. Mr. Renneau will finish his vocational training as a vulcanize in six more months. He has been employed by the Alliance Tire Works of this city during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schafer drove to Scottsbluff Saturday, returning Monday.

The 1922 club will meet Monday evening at the Odd Fellows hall.

The twelfth annual ball of Alliance council No. 975, Knights of Columbus, will be given at the roof garden Easter Monday, April 17, and extensive preparations are being made for the event. J. W. Guthrie, W. J. Tregeator and George Buchenstein are the committee in charge.

Sheriff J. W. Miller has been appointed special administrator of the estate of John William Boek, bachelor rancher who committed suicide north of Alliance a few days ago. The property left will be sold and will probably come short of paying burial expenses.

The O. E. S. parcel post sale will be held at the old express office location in the Masonic Temple building Saturday afternoon and evening. Packages not sold during the afternoon will be auctioned off in the evening. A cafeteria supper will be served.

Miss Margaret Harris and Mrs. E. L. Potarf will entertain Saturday afternoon at bridge at the home of the latter, in honor of Mrs. Potarf's house guests, Miss Jeanette Moore of Lincoln, and Miss Alice Sedgwick of Newcastle.

T. H. Deering is moving into the house on Box Butte avenue, formerly owned by J. T. Nabb, but which has recently been purchased by W. W. Norton.

The will of Archie Gregory was admitted to probate yesterday morning in county court, and Mrs. Edith L. Gregory was appointed administratrix.

N. A. Kemmish, city manager, returned today noon from Lexington where he went to make a talk to the chamber of commerce of that city.

The ladies who have been solicited for the Eastern Star parcel post food sale are requested to bring food to the hall as early as possible Saturday.

Miss Alice Sedgwick of Newcastle, Wyo., arrived Thursday night to visit Mrs. E. L. Potarf.

Frances Schott is ill with the flu.

The League of Women voters will meet at the home of Mrs. William Bignell, 618 Box Butte Thursday at 2:30. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. William Barnett will return the latter part of the week from California. She will be accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Culver.

N. A. Kemmish has purchased a home on Toluca avenue from W. M. Finnegan, who is leaving for Tekamah.

W. D. Rumer of the Rumer Motor company is reported to be recovering rapidly after his recent operation.

Mrs. A. E. Keller entertained at a dinner Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Pearl Montague of Denver.

Mrs. W. R. Pate and small son, Bobby, left today for a short visit at the Hugh Smith ranch.

Wet wash calls received before 3:30 will be returned by 2 p. m. 20 lbs. for $1. Alliance Steam Laundry. 38-ti

John Cavanaugh Was Arrested Thursday Evening

John Cavanaugh is new in the city but as the result of a complaint made against him by one Charles Frederick, who believes that Cavanaugh wished to do him bodily injury, Cavanaugh is reported to have made threats against Frederick, whom he believes to have been instrumental in bringing about his discharge from his position at the railroad, and was arrested Thursday evening by Chief Jeffers. This is the second time that Cavanaugh has been in the toil of the law as he was apparently trying to shoot up South Alliance.

In The MOVIES

Tonight the attraction at the Imperial is the Boy Scout minstrel and vaudeville show. The Scouts are ably assisted by the girls of the Kinunka Camp Fire, and they have prepared an entertainment that will rank well with the home talent performances given by their elders. A. H. Harper, who is a wizard at whipping a company of amateurs into shape in record time, is directing the performance, which is a Boy Scout benefit. There will be a two-reel comedy, "The Pale Face," with Buster Keaton, and then the real fun will begin.

A Paramount film, "Paying the Piper," is scheduled for Saturday. The story deals with the idle rich—the cigarette smoking, cabaret-loving class of New York—and the chief character is Barbara Wyndham, portrayed with artistry and charm by Dorothy Dickson, who makes her screen debut in this picture. Dorothy is married to an idle rich young man, but there is little of love in their union until their wealth is swept away by a crash on Wall Street. Then both are regenerated in a series of interesting happenings which thrill as they entertain the spectator.

The Sunday film is a John Emerson and Anita Loos production "Red Hot Romance." Basil Sydney plays the part of Roland Stone, a penniless American youth, who is living in hopes of a legacy, but which never arrives. When his bank account is gone he is compelled to pawn the furniture in his bachelor quarters, with his faithful negro valet, Thomas Snow, doing the work of carrying the articles to the pawnshop. When the executor of his father's will appeared, there was only one chair left in the Stone menage, and the caller was given this. As soon as the reading of the will convinced Roland that he was out of luck he deposited his caller from his last posseason, and sent Snow to pawn it in order to pay the taxicab driver waiting outside.
