

The Alliance Rotary club members entertained their ladies and a number of other guests at the Palm Room of the Alliance hotel at a 6:30 dinner Monday, the occasion being the annual visit of District Governor Luther Brewer of the Sixteenth Rotary district, whose home is in Cedar Rapids, Ia. Governor Brewer has been on a trip to Rapid City and other South Dakota clubs, and came to Alliance from Chadron, where he got acquainted with Rotarians there at a dinner. Accompanied by a number of Chadron Rotarians, they drove over to Alliance yesterday.

It was one of the most interesting that has been presented in the history of the club, presided by Earl L. Meyer is chairman of the entertainment committee, and framed up some special stunts for the evening. Dr. C. E. Slagle, past president, made the report of last year's activities to the district governor, who made a Rotarian address. Following the governor's talk, attorney W. H. Metz made a presentation of a gift to the district governor, which had the form of an enormous birthday cake, but which turned out to be a frosted hat box containing a small chicken.

President Ed Morey of the Chadron Rotary club made a brief talk, and was followed by Senator J. W. Good, who was just going strong in describing the beauties of the new and only state park, of which he is the official spokesman as well as the chief factor in establishing, when an alarm clock awakened and put an end to the discourse.

Following the talks, the entertainment committee introduced a competition for the ladies, in which Mrs. Fred Harris was the fortunate recipient of a gift from the club. The guests included J. W. Good, Ed Morey, L. R. Bower, W. S. Bostler, R. G. Smith of Chadron and W. A. Russell of Omaha.

Mrs. A. H. Robbins entertained Monday evening at a 6 o'clock dinner and miscellaneous shower for Miss Thelma Westley who will soon be married. Games and the presentation of the shower gifts were the evening's entertainment. Miss Westley received many beautiful and useful gifts. The following guests were present: Mesdames S. Lotspeich, J. S. Corp, Carr, T. Cross, B. J. Minort, Dobrey, Fuller, Davis, Ackerman, Coker, A. A. Wright, Wayne Smith, Hirst, Tibber, Dora Walker, Lolly Settles, Burkhardt, J. M. Simpson, E. G. Laing, Lewis Fowell, Fred Heipbringer, L. Moxon and the Misses Naoma Moxon, Nell Wright, Betty Waltron, Laura Johnston, Elsie Fowler, Violet Henry, Leila Corey from Hemingford.

Attorneys Eugene Burton, Lee Basye, R. O. Reddish, William Mitchell and P. E. Romig were in Rushville yesterday, the occasion being the first day of a district court term. Charles Brittan was another Alliance man who went to Rushville on that day. Attorney Harry E. Gantz had legal business which took him to Bridgeport. The case of principal interest to Alliance that will come up at this term at Rushville is Krause vs. Long, in which attorneys for the Krause estate will ask that a temporary order enjoining Long or his attorneys from attempting to collect a large judgment given in an Omaha court be made permanent. The attorneys returned Monday evening.

P. D. Muntz, rancher living near Lusk, Wyo., arrived in Alliance Sunday, and will ship out today or Wednesday with a carload of feeder stock. Mr. Muntz tells some interesting details of last week's storm as it struck his part of the country. Fourteen inches of snow fell last Thursday, accompanied by a seventy-five mile gale which uprooted trees and telephone poles, destroyed hundreds of smaller buildings and killed many birds. The storm did not extend beyond Sheridan or Gillette, he said.

The Herald has received a copy of the industrial edition published by the Thermopolis, Wyo., Independent, edited by C. O. Maret. Mrs. Maret was formerly Miss Alice Carlson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carlson of this city. The special edition fills a good many pages with interesting facts about the business and industry of Thermopolis, and should make a most effective advertisement for the newspaper and its community.

Ed P. Shields, grand knight of Alliance council No. 975, K. of C., and J. W. Guthrie, past grand knight, will leave Sunday, May 21, for York, where they will on Tuesday represent the Alliance council at the state K. of C. convention. On Monday, also at York, they will attend the fourth degree convention as delegates from the Alliance fourth degree assembly, of which Mr. Guthrie is faithful navigator and Mr. Shields faithful captain.

B. S. Smith of Lincoln, state agent for the Security Fire Insurance company of Connecticut, and State Agent Miller of Omaha, representing the Queen company, were in Alliance Monday, in connection with a readjustment of the loss at the Alliance high school on December 30, when the heavy wind blew over a large smokestack and caused considerable damage.

The domestic science class of the high school will entertain the high school faculty, the supervisors in the different departments and the principals in the two grade buildings, Friday evening at the Central school building. The entire dinner will be served by the domestic science class who will take this opportunity to demonstrate their skill, along culinary lines.

The American Legion auxiliary entertained the members of the local Legion post last evening in the basement of the Library. Monte Carlo whist was the diversion of the evening. Mrs. Minor Morris won the free-for-all prize, John Leavitt won the high score and John Williams won the consolation. A two-course lunch was served and everyone enjoyed the evening.

The Woman's club will hold their regular meeting Friday afternoon in the basement of the Library. This meeting is to be a reception for new members and the program is in charge of Mrs. William Lamon, the chairman of the music committee. Anyone wishing to become a member of the club should do so this week.

Mrs. Harry Thiele and Mrs. Ralph Cox entertained about forty-five guests Saturday noon at the home of the former. A five-course luncheon was served after which Monte Carlo whist was played. Mrs. Fred Feagins won the high score, Mrs. Floyd Hively the free-for-all and Mrs. Bruce Malvey the consolation.

The Alumni banquet will be held Thursday evening at the Palm Room of the Alliance hotel. A large number of guests are expected, and the Senior class of the high school will be the guests of the evening. The hall will be decorated in lavender and cream, the senior colors.

E. B. Smith, representing an Omaha paper house, was in the city Monday, coming here from Deadwood and Lead, S. D. He reports a severe snowstorm during the time last week when Alliance was in the grip of the record windstorm, but in the Black Hills region wind doesn't really have the proper chance to get started.

The second annual May Festival of the pupils of Mrs. Dunning's expression classes, will be at the Imperial theatre, May 19. The Fairies, Flower Girls and May Maidens will do their part to swell the piano fund. You do your part, and also enjoy a real treat.

The ladies' aid of the Methodist church will meet Wednesday afternoon at the church at 2:30. Mrs. C. A. Dow, Mrs. C. E. Pyle and Mrs. G. E. Townley will be hostesses. This is the regular birthday meeting and a good program has been planned.

"When Polly was Queen of May," is the charming little operetta to be presented at the Imperial Friday, May 19. Fairies, Flower Girls and May Maidens with their happy dances and songs form an evening's pleasure you cannot afford to miss.

A benefit dance will be given Saturday at the Armory for the baseball team. The admission to this will be 75c. The music will be by the Happy Four. The management is planning on a good crowd, and there is little doubt that a large number will attend.

Mrs. Addie Durham, mother of Mrs. Minor Morris, who has spent the winter with Dr. and Mrs. Morris, left Saturday noon for Kewanee, Ill., where she will visit her grandson.

W. R. Harper, Earl Jones and Edwin

M. Burr motored to Denver, leaving from a seven weeks' sojourn in the east. The doctor has been at Excelsior Springs, Ark., also visiting his mother at Decorah, Ia.
