Chet and Monte Speakers at Last Rotary Meeting

D. C. Bradbury of the Keep-U-Neat and Monte S. Hargraves of the Alliance Building & Loan association were speakers at the Wednesday dinner of the Alliance Rotary club. Mr. Bradbury told of the process of dry cleaning, bringing out the fact that considerable scientific knowledge of fabrics, chemistry and other subjects is necessary if the dry cleaner is to really clean clothing entrusted to him, and not either ruin it or do inferior work.

Mr. Hargraves told of the development of the building and loan industry from a small beginning in England in 1748 where a group of weavers started the first one, to the present time when seventy-one associations in Nebraska have over eighty millions of dollars in their possession. The number has grown but slightly since 1892, when the funds amounted to only $3,000,000. It was pointed out that not a single association had failed unless it dabbled in other fields of business.

Trials of Smith and Jacobs Are on This Afternoon

Two hearings are on this afternoon in police court, that of Jimmie Jacobs on the charge of selling liquor, and that of Ernest Smith, Burlington brakeman on the charge of assaulting Officer Stilwill. The former will be a federal charge, and Judge Berry in hearing it will act in his capacity as a federal court commissioner. If he believes the evidence sufficient he will bind Jacobs over for trial in the United States court at Chadron. Should this trial be held it will come up sometime early in September.

Young Smith is the man who during an argument with officer Stilwill in the depot two weeks ago, decided to alter Stilwill's features. He was proceeding to do this when Special Agent Martin arrived and stopped hostilities. Smith was then lodged in the city jail, and the time for his hearing set. It has since been postponed twice, however. The charge against him will be that of assaulting an officer. This will be in police court.

Gold Discovery Is Reported From Moorecroft, Wyo.

J. B. Gripp of Afton, Ia., spent yesterday at the home of Judge and Mrs. I. E. Tash. He was just returning from a trip through northern Wyoming, where he acquired some land.

Mr. Gripp brought the news of the discovery of gold near Dillingier postoffice, twenty miles south and west of Moorecroft. The gold has been discovered on flats, and there are hundreds of claims staked out. Tests show that the gold exists in a stratum some 120 feet below the surface of the earth, and it has been discovered at different points over an area of five miles. Assayers' reports show that it runs from $28 to $30 per ton, which would indicate very profitable placer mining.

Mr. Gripp took advantage of the opportunity to stake out a twenty-acre claim.

Circus Employees Tell Hard Luck Story to Sheriff

W. A. Jacobs and John Thomas, two employes of Christy Brothers circus came to the sheriff's office Tuesday with a tale of woe, which they confided to Deputy Sheriff Tom Miskimen. According to the two men, they, and two others whose names are unknown, quit the circus, and demanded their pay. They were told to sign the payroll and did so. Then they claim that after their signatures had been obtained they were not given their pay and were beat up by the timekeeper, trainmaster, night watch and two others for protesting. They showed evidence of a beating of some sort to the sheriff in a couple of badly battered faces. Jacobs claims to be owed $35 and Thomas $17.60. The other two men had only small amounts coming and made no complaint. Both men maintain that the Christy brothers, and Robinson, the manager are absolutely free from any implication in the matter, and that it was evidently done by the three men named in order that they might appropriate the cash. Whether or not the story is true is hard to say, but Sheriff Koenig of Scotts Bluff county was asked to look into the matter at Scottsbluff where the showed played Tuesday. No word has been received, however, and it is doubtful if the case was given any attention.

An Appreciation

I want to take this means of thanking the many patrons and friends who have given me such a generous share of their business in the past few years. I assure you I have at all times tried to treat everyone fairly and honestly so that I feel perfectly free to return to Alliance and enter into business at a future date if fortune wills it.

I thank you all, and wish you Good Luck.
