Supposing that there are no other changes, the next Senate will be a tie, and with a Democratic Vice President that party would control the upper house of Congress. But the Democrats don't propose to be satisfied with this. They are hoping to capture the legislature of Oregon, to be elected in June, and of it.

Source Bolish is setting out five To stop the numerous frauds on the ballot box, some examples should be set. The grand jury of Frontier county has found six indictments against citizens of Curtis growing out of the county seat election last fall. If the managers of the Lincoln Land Company can be reached, the jury would haul in the butt cut.

A most singular and astounding revelation, if true, has just been made to the public by the Nebraska Teacher for April, a monthly journal known as the "official organ of the state teachers' association,' says the Hastings Gazette-Journal. The statement is sensational in its character and will doubtless cause further investigation to be made concerning the information given. The Teachers' article is as follows: ble.
