

SOME small bore democratic papers are publishing the resolutions passed by the late Republican state convention, with the additions made by the Omaha Herald. They evidently think the forgery will make votes.

The Gazette-Journal of Hastings favors Gresham and Phelps for presidential nominees. They will make a strong team and be sure of election, as would several other combinations.

THE grand aggregation of Democratic managers met at St. Louis and put up Cleveland for President as per previous arrangement. Thurman of Ohio was placed on the tail of the ticket. Henry Watterson, the worst free-trader in the land, was made chairman of the committee on platform, but that document has not yet reached the far west.

WE HAVE received a circular from a set of gentlemen styling themselves anti-saloon republicans, with a request to give our opinion on the subject. The Republican party now has in hand an important work—the election of a president of this United States. No side issues that are likely to endanger the success of this work can be tolerated by the Republican press. Cranks who are trying to force such issues at the present time are enemies of the party and allies of democracy.

Oregon fired the first gun of the campaign of 1888 on Monday, and the shot was a bad one for Mr. Cleveland and the Democratic party. There was a straight Republican issue on Congressmen, the Republicans favoring protection and the Democrats standing by the President's message. On this straight issue the Republican majority was about 4,000, against a plurality of 1,635 in 1886. The Democratic hope of controlling the United States Senate rested mainly on securing a Democratic majority in the Oregon Legislature elected on Monday. Of the ninety members the Republicans elected sixty-six, a gain of thirteen members over the Legislature elected in 1886. The result of this Congressional and Legislative election fixes the status of Oregon for this year. In June 1884, the Republican vote on Congressman was 25,699, and in November of the same year the Republican vote for Blaine was 26,800. The State is strongly Republican on the issue that will be prominent in the Presidential campaign, and as goes Oregon so goes the other Pacific States. The Oregon election is like a slap in the face to Mr. Cleveland and his St. Louis convention.

The Republicans who bolted Mr. Blaine—the great majority of them—were not influenced by the tariff question, and will gladly return into the Republican fold if they are satisfied with the candidate. A majority of them would, we think, support either of the Republicans now prominently talked of for the nomination; a greater number of them would probably support General Gresham than would support any other candidate. But this fact is not due to any lack on General Gresham's part of fidelity to Republican principles or Republican candidates, but to the general impression that prevails respecting his purity of character, his fitness for the office, and the circumstance that while he has been prominent in public life there is nothing in his record calculated to give rise to unfavorable criticism. — Milwaukee Sentinel.

The third party prohibs raised last week quite a little dust at Indianapolis. They expect to muster enough strength to elect Mr. Cleveland again, in which event they would rejoice with exceeding great joy. The success of their own candidate, of course, is merely a secondary consideration. A few days ago one of the leading prohibition orators said: "With strenuous efforts New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Michigan and Ohio will be lost to the republicans this year." Of course what is lost to the republicans, is a gain to the democrats, and for this result this orator advises that "strenuous efforts" be made. The average prohibitionist has a queer way of reasoning, as shown by his great rejoicing over the success of rum democracy through his efforts.

Sarah J. Overton, a convict at the state penitentiary, committed suicide yesterday morning by cutting her throat from ear to ear. She was received at the penitentiary on the 12th of last September from Custer county, under a twenty-five years sentence for killing her husband, whose head she blew off on the 4th of July last, with a shotgun loaded with buckshot. When received at the penitentiary she gave her age as forty-four years, but it is the general opinion that she was a woman of about fifty. The testimony of all the witnesses showed that Mrs. Overton was an unruly and vicious convict and was continually quarrelling with the other convicts. She had always refused to work has not been employed a day during her confinement in the penitentiary. On Saturday morning she was placed in a cell on account of her violent temper, during a fit of which she was tearing up the sheets and other furnishings of her bed. From the testimony of her fellow convicts it was learned that she had frequently threatened to kill herself, saying she would never serve out her sentence. This was unknown to the officials.

The Washington Post, Cleveland's acknowledged organ recently drew a picture of the scene in Paris when Napoleon anticipated the crowning ceremony by seizing the emblem of power and placed it upon his own head, and proceeds: A similar scene will occur in St. Louis on the 8th day of June, in this year of grace, 1888. Mr. Grover Cleveland has summoned a national convention to re-nominate him for the presidency of the United States, and 820 delegates will assemble to do his bidding. But they will really have nothing to do. When the time comes to vote it will be apparent to the veriest tyro among them that President Cleveland has already re-nominated himself. He is a man of destiny and he will do as men of destiny do. The democratic nomination is his by right of conquest, and he will not condescend to receive it from any hands but his own. The scene did occur. King Grover is his name.

NICHOLS. We are having pleasant weather now after so much rain and cold, and crops are looking fine. In some localities corn was drowned out and will have to be replanted, but there is time yet to do this and have a good crop if the season is favorable. Being located on the Platte bottom, we are troubled considerably with mosquitoes and gnats. Just at present they are raising—bumps. Tramps are plentiful and in almost every case they are remarkably healthy individuals. As they are of no particular good to this country, why not send them as missionaries to some cannibal island? What a feast they would make for the human-flesh eaters! Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Stoddard gave a dance on last Friday night which was largely attended. If you think we do not have a grand time at our dances you are very much mistaken. The one Friday night was one that will long be remembered by those who attended.

T. W. Anderson has a potato patch that takes the premium in this section. This vegetable bids fair to be a big crop this year. Enough said. Will write you soon again.

O'FALLON ORACLE. One of our unmarried men was heard to remark the other day that "T's mighty handy to have some one to do washing and mending and I don't know but—Well we won't tell all that you said Mr. M. but we'll wait and see whether you have the grit to do it or not."

Mrs. Roy Thompson visited her husband the first of the week. Mrs. T. is a skilful and accomplished dressmaker and finds Julesburg a pleasant and profitable place to ply her vocation.

The section-house has received a fresh coat of paint inside and out, much to the delight of that most excellent housekeeper, Mrs. Wetzel. There was one pleased man in O'Fallon last Sunday. It was W. H. Dudley. The cause of his joy was a telegram announcing that the injunction on the bridge bonds was dissolved. We did not see Mr. D. jump up and down, nor did we hear him utter any Comanche yells; but we will not swear as to what he did when he got started for home. We learn that he posted a notice in the depot informing the opposition of the change. One of them wrote under his notice "But still there's more to follow."

The young ladies of this vicinity seem deeply interested in telegraphy, some of them taking lessons almost daily. They are very apt too.

There is some talk of organizing a Bachelor's Club for the benefit of some of our prominent citizens. If this is done the club will take an excursion east next fall for the purpose of securing helpmates unless there should be a sudden influx of eligibles into this part of the country.

The pile-driver has arrived and work on the ditch will soon be booming.

The public is cordially invited to our Fourth of July celebration at the new town site two and one-half miles west of here. The orator of the day has not been engaged as yet; but it is thought that home talent will be employed as there is plenty of it lying around loose.

Come Lew, don't be bashful. When she comes around the depot chin up and don't blush so.

A WARNING. The modes of death's approach are various and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of tubercle germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs, producing consumption and to the head, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boecher's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

PLEASANT HILL. From the Pilot. The Paxton PILOT is becoming more and more interesting in our neighborhood. We think it will make a grand success. On Wednesday Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Crosby, Mrs. Luton and Miss Cora Knight were visiting Mrs. Carrie Brown.

Mr. N. B. Whitesides arrived at Paxton on last Thursday morning. He expects to spend part of the summer in Nebraska and the remainder in Colorado.

Mrs. Dave Brown is much pleased with her Durham cow she purchased of S. A. D. Conaway. Mr. and Mrs. Loren Harrington were made happy on the 31st by the arrival of a bouncing boy.

The Peas Bros. and father of Paxton were in this vicinity on a trading expedition last Thursday.

Miss Ollie Johnson has been somewhat under the weather for the past few days but is able to be about again.

Mrs. E. A. Crosby is having a new cashmere dress made by Mrs. P. H. Brown. We expect her out soon decorated in the latest spring style.

Mrs. House is expecting her husband from Cheyenne soon to make her a few days visit.

Mrs. Holbrook will not come west at present as was reported in our last letter, but W. M. Conaway is expected next Thursday.

There must be some attraction over in Perkins county as Steve Conaway has taken up his abode in that neighborhood. Wouldn't be surprised if he would return with Miss Lillie by his side.

Miss Leona Johnson who is teaching school north of North Platte was home on a few days visit, returning Sunday evening on the five o'clock train. She was accompanied as far as North Platte by Miss Maddie Gummy.

The farmers of this neighborhood are making arrangements for a fishing party one week from next Thursday. A basket well filled on this occasion will be found part of the enjoyment. All who wish to join us are welcome.

GUESS WHO.

AN EXPLANATION. What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many now seem to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown—to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and malaria was intended to cover what our grandfathers called biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the liver which in performing its functions find that it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, malaria, bilious fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous.
