 Plans and specifications are on file at the county clerk's office.
 The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.
 By order of the board of county commissioners,
 J. E. EVANS, County Clerk.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.
 Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the board of county commissioners of Lincoln county up to noon, July 7th, 1888, for the erection of a wagon bridge across the Birchwood Creek, at a point near its mouth. Bridge to be twelve feet wide with good railing, supported by oak piles. Each bidder is expected to furnish his own plans and specifications.
 The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.
 By order of the board,
 J. E. EVANS, Clerk
 North Platte, Neb., June 14th, 1888.

NOTICE TO BOND-BUYERS.
 Bids will be received at the county clerk's office up to 12 o'clock noon on Monday, July 24, 1888, for the purchase of $1,000 of O'Fallon Precinct 6 per cent registered bonds, interest payable semi-annually in New York city on each first day of October and April.
 These bonds are in number and of the value of $1000 each. They are authorized by chapter 48 on pages 488 and 487 of the statutes of 1887 of the State of Nebraska, and were adopted by the voters of O'Fallon Precinct, Lincoln county, at a special election called for that purpose, the whole vote for bonds being 100 and the whole vote against only 10.
 The first of these bonds is due April 1st, 1903, and two on each first day of April thereafter, in their respective years, until all are paid.
 Present indebtedness, 00.
 Assessed valuation in 1887, $1,000,000.10.

YARD ON R. R. TRACK WEST OF DEPOT,

HA! HA! THE BEST OF ALL!

It did not take five years to discover that the

Jewel Gasoline Stove

was the only safe gasoline stove made, but in 1887, the first year it was introduced in North Platte, FORTY-SIX were sold, more than was sold of all others combined. We have them with either drop tank or the pneumatic, and in the language of the poet, "no pump to get out of order or gas forced through the room," but can prove that less gas escapes from it than any stove made and can show it has many points of superiority over all others and prove to you that the Jewel is

The : Best : Stove : Made.
 They are all guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction and will consume less gasoline than any stove in the market. Call and examine the late improved Jewel and be convinced and you will buy no other.
 RESPECTFULLY,

L. STRICKLER.

MORROW FLAT.
 County Superintendent R. H. Langford was visiting our school on Thursday last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Swarhout and daughter Irene were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Prosser on Sunday last.

The dance at G. C. Campbell's last Friday evening was a very pleasant affair. It was given in honor of Mrs. C's 43d birthday.

The flats are not behind the times. We are to have a celebration with all the usual attractions at G. W. Bobbitts. Let everyone turn out and make it a glorious Fourth.

John Harden has traded his pre-emption for the Hershey, Holmes & Davis blacksmith shop in North Platte. We understand that his family will soon move to the city.

Our school closed on Friday of last week. In the afternoon a picnic was held in Moran Canyon which was enjoyed by about fifty of the neighbors and parents of the scholars. Every one brought well filled lunch baskets and at five o'clock the tables were spread and after a song by the school and a short invocation by Rev. Hosford all did justice to the bountiful repast.

SOMERSET.
 Somerset is booming.
 Farmers are still planting sod corn.
 Wesley Kugler is working for Fernando Davis.

Miss Martha Smith expects to return to Iowa soon.
 Miss May Brown is stopping at Dickens for a short time.

Constable McMichael made a business trip to Dickens last week.
 Albert Blougher expects to make a business trip to Iowa soon.

Cyrus Parcel, father of William Parcel, is here from Iowa, looking for a location.
 Mary Smith will move on her claim in a few days as her house is about completed.

L. B. Cordill of Curtis made us a pleasant call the other day. He says business is dull down there.

Alexander Green is now a resident of the city. Haven't learned what business he expects to follow.

Somerset and Wellfleet are too small to celebrate the Fourth. All their good people are going to Wallace or Curtis.

George Kidner from just over the Hayes county line was in our neighborhood the other day and made us a pleasant call.

Mrs. Chas. Baker arrived from Iowa last night. Charles is the happiest man in Nebraska. They will go to keeping house immediately.

Johnny Kugler is digging a new well, as he says he is tired of hauling water two or three. We think he will have to go down about 175 feet.

Everybody busy, crops of all kinds look splendid. Our small grain will be ready for the reaper in a couple of weeks unless visited sooner by a hail storm.

School will close next Friday in District 28. The children are expecting a big time as they are to have a picnic dinner and speaking in the afternoon.

Hamden Harris who is now stopping at Mr. Kugler's will fly for Iowa as soon as he can dispose of his stallions. If any one wants a good horse now is the time to invest, as Ham wants to go home.

STATE NEWS.
 Sutton will vote on the proposition to issue $20,000 bonds to construct water works, July 6th.

Jack Stewart, a farmer living near Fairmont, fell out of his wagon and died in less than twenty minutes of heart disease.

Four prisoners in the Seward jail cut the lock off the door and made way for liberty. Two of them were recaptured at Utica.

A one year old child of Peter McCoy, a farmer living eleven miles north of Ashland, got hold of a bottle of carbolic acid Thursday, and in fifteen minutes the child was dead.

John Gebn and Ed. McPherson, two Cheyenne jail birds broke loose from confinement last Sunday night, and the former was recaptured near Minden, Neb. The other is still at liberty.

El George, the Thayer county horse thief, made a sad failure of his last round up. He had four borrowed horses ready for shipment to Chicago when the authorities landed him in jail. Ell got there all right.

Omaha merchants say that the recent decision of Judge Cooley of the Interstate commission refusing to grant relief against discrimination by railroad companies, will have no injurious effect upon their business.

Cushman park, three miles west of Lincoln, was sold Thursday, at auction for $16,000. The property was purchased by Milwaukee parties, and is considered a great bargain. A big brewery will be put on the property.

lived five miles west of Cortland, committed suicide by hanging. His wife went to the barn and found him hanging by the neck, still struggling. She immediately cut the rope and ran for help to a near neighbor and when they returned he was dead. Family trouble is assigned as the cause.

The engineer corps of the Nebraska Southern Railroad company is at Kearney looking out depot grounds and the right of way through the city. This road has submitted a proposition to build this season from Superior by way of Red Cloud and Minden, if the city will vote them $50,000 in bonds and donate the right of way and depot grounds.

The Fairmont creamery employs thirty one men and twenty six teams to gather in the cream from which 1,900 pounds of butter is made daily, which sells readily in New York market. Last week one car load sold for one half cent more per pound than top Elgin prices. This creamery will pay out this year to their patrons $60,000. The farmers are taking a great deal of interest in dairy matters by improving their herds and by taking better care of the milk and cream, and by so doing find that it pays better than farming.

Tuesday morning a special train from the west, consisting of two cars loaded with silk, came dashing through the Curtis yards and ran into an engine, which was standing on the main track, breaking the cow-catcher and pilot and derauling the front trucks of the engine of the special. The tender of the other engine was slightly damaged, the track was wrenched out of shape so as to cause a delay of the passenger train, which then arrived, of about half an hour. The damaged engine was taken to McCook for repairs.—Curtis Courier.

Of recent years the cattlemen of Dakota, Burt and Wayne counties, Nebraska, have been pasturing their cattle on the Winnebago reservation. The Winnebago were paid for their pasturage, and so the arrangement was good for them. Likewise it was good for the cattlemen and the cattle. Now come government troops to expel the cattlemen and their steers. It is, in the government's opinion, necessary for the dignity of the nation and the civilization of the Indians, that this reservation grass be mowed by a prairie fire rather than bitten off by bees.

John L. Carson, one of the oldest bankers of Auburn, Neb., and widely known throughout the west, has long been a sufferer from gravel and some nine months ago went east where he had a surgical operation performed and five gravel removed from the bladder. This caused a kind of blood poisoning to settle in the big toe on the right foot, making amputation of that member a necessity. Even this did not stay the disease and a second amputation was made, the last one being about half way below the knee. These three amputations, being made in quick succession, proved almost too much for him, and for a long time he was very low, but has now recovered so far that he can ride out in his carriage.

Barring a bad storm or an unusually severe wind, the small grain crop in Perkins county is made. The bountiful rains of April and May produced a very heavy growth of grain, furnishing sufficient moisture to bring it to head. Tuesday's soaking rain gives moisture enough to form the grain and ripen it. This amount of grain sown in Perkins county this year is enormous, fully double the amount put out last year. If the yield is good, and there is every prospect that it will be very heavy, there will be a great excess of grain in Perkins county. It will be a different experience to ship out instead of ship in. In the event of the success of the now reasonably assured crop, Perkins county will offer an excellent field for a flour mill.—Grant Enterprise.

The people of the east are cordially invited to come out and take a look at this famine stricken country, where drought goes its solemn round like a gaunt spectre from the nether world. They are requested to come and look at the brazen sun shining from a copper sky, while the corn withers and dries, where the earth is parched and dry, and where myriads of insects come down as a cloud and destroy everything related to vegetation. But they shouldn't come before fall, when the state fair will occur, and when some of the withered corn will be on exhibition. It won't compare, of course, with the magnificent products of the stone quarries and gravel beds of the east, but as the fruit of a country that is being burned up so badly by the drought that water has to be sprinkled on the rivers to keep them moist, it will do very well.—Curtis Record.

Jim Webster—What preacher's winter baptize dat baby?
 Sam Johnson—Parson Whangdoodle Baxter.

"How much does he git?"
 "Two dollars."
 "You oughter git Parson Bledsoe. He'll do it for a dollar."

"Huh, what sorter baptism kin yer git for a dollar?"
 "Ef yer has got yer doubts about his efficacy you can hab de chile baptized twict for de money what yer pays Parson Whangdoodle Baxter.—Tenn. Siftings.

Attempted Suicide.
 On Friday evening of last week, Jessie Sawyer who lives in the vicinity of the Fair grounds, accompanied Miss Inez Colwell to a sociable given at the residence of D. N. Wells in the north eastern part of the city. In the course of the evening, young Sawyer became jealous of his lady's attentions to other young men in the party, and went out to the stable where he tried to end his earthly sorrows by drawing a razor across his throat. The blade almost cut off the trachea and barely missed the parotid arteries and jugular vein. When found a few minutes later, he was struggling in the dirt, unable to speak. Surgical aid was brought and the wound dressed. In answer to queries, he wrote that he did the deed with his brother's razor which he brought with him, and that he meant to kill himself with it. The injury is healing fast and bids fair his recovery. Sawyer is a young man past twenty-one years of age, was of gentlemanly habits and had a large circle of friends. His strange procedure can not be accounted for.—Kearney News Era.

Grant's Farm Sold.
 St. Louis Republic, June 22: The real estate sensation of yesterday culminated at high noon yesterday when Captain Luther H. Conn, the Granite Mountain millionaire and gallant ex-Confederate, became possessor of the celebrated Grant farm of 750 acres, which present Grant mortgaged to Wm. H. Vanderbilt in 1884 to partially extricate the firm of Grant & Ward from the results of Ward's rashness. The farm lies just twelve miles west of the court house on the Gravois road. The consideration was about $60,000, and this transaction causes the historic Dent homestead tract to change hands for the first time in half a century. The final papers will be signed to-day.

Captain Luther H. Conn, the purchaser, is a Kentuckian, and has a Confederate record as one of the bravest and most daring men in Morgan's command, and, like all Southerners, appreciates the sentimental and the romantic, as well as possessing the Kentucky weakness for fine horses. Since the war he has been engaged in the real estate business, and recently became a double millionaire through successful mining ventures, and now the old Kentucky blood is reasserting itself and he has purchased this well-adapted Dent homestead to indulge his fancy, and proposes to establish a stock farm. He has already christened his newly acquired relic "Grantwood," so that it can never lose its identity as the home of the silent commander.

A Beautiful Seal Skin Cloak.
 is a becoming garment to a lady. If she has an elastic step, an air of grace and modesty, and the glow of health on her cheek, she will always command admiration. Without these, no woman can appear to advantage. With sickly countenance, painful gait, and listless air, she is an object of pity. How many American women daily drag out a wretched existence, ignorant of the blessing of perfect health! All her weaknesses can be cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the great specific for prolapus, leucorrhoea, ulceration and unnatural discharges. The only medicine sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee of giving satisfaction, or money refunded. Read guarantee printed on wrapper.

The Detroit Tribune pronounces that the Republican platform is the "best piece of political timber ever constructed. Square and unequivocal pronouncement for protection to our industries and workingmen. Every plank a simple statement of fact."
