Only five men in North Platte were opposed to voting the railroad bonds, and they perhaps are now sorry they did not vote for them, thereby making the vote unanimous in the city.

The delinquent tax list together with a rush of other work has kept THE TRIBUNE force bumping, and this in a measure accounts for the quality of the matter published last and also this week.

Land owners along the line of the M. R. D. & N. P. Ry. have already placed an extra dollar on each acre of land they possess. The wave of prosperity has already started and it will increase in volume as time goes on.

A prairie fire last week destroyed considerable hay for John Gray & Co. in the neighborhood of the Birdwood, reported to be about 1,000 tons, but the amount is not definitely known, perhaps half of that quantity.

J. C. Hupfer gave a dance Friday night in the rooms in the Neville block which he will shortly occupy with his saloon and billiard hall. The dance was rather an impromptu affair, but was nevertheless well attended and the participants report a pleasant time.

The charity entertainment given at the opera house on Thursday evening of last week under the management of Mrs. Ritter and for the benefit of the orphan asylum, was well attended and the tableaux and singing well rendered. During the entertainment ice cream and cake were served and about half past ten the people went home well satisfied with the evening's sport.

Ogalalla is figuring on a woolen mill with Chicago parties and is about determined to have it. We raise the wool and send it to Massachusetts. There it is manufactured into cloth and returned to us, we paying the freight both ways, besides three or four profits to middlemen. Why not manufacture the goods at home and save some of this expense. We hope Ogalalla will get her mill.

Why would we be cultured not be profitable in Lincoln county? In Iowa and in the eastern part of this state bees are handled with great success, and we believe if the proper effort was made they would do well here. E. Whitcomb of Friend, Neb., is thoroughly posted on the subject, and we take the liberty to refer THURSDAY readers to him should they desire information. This is the proper time to study the subject, and then we can raise flowers and bees in the spring time.

A man named W. J. Seward was killed in the wreck near Roscoe Wednesday night. He had boarded the train at Ogalalla, and while it was standing on a break beam between the cars his body being smashed almost as it is a board. The body was not released until after the arrival of the wrecking train. On the body was found a letter addressed to the above name at Park City, Utah, from Miss Lizzie Shankland, Valiska, Iowa. A telegram sent to the above address received a reply directing that the body be sent there, which was done by the company.

Passenger train No. 3, which was due here from the east Wednesday night did not arrive till nearly 10 o'clock Thursday morning. The delay having been caused by a collision with a stock train a few miles east of Ogalalla, in which an unknown man killed Engineer Dillard and a porter on the Pullman were considerably bruised and many of the passengers were badly shaken up. The engines were both damaged to some extent. It seems that the conductor of No. 3 waited at Roscoe till time allotted for freight train to arrive had passed, and supposing then that it would be back up to Ogalalla, he started his train on. It is claimed the east bound freight, after leaving Ogalalla had made a stop, to repair some part of the engine which had got out of order, but had again started on when the collision occurred. The stock train was going very slowly and the passenger engineer by putting on air brakes and reversing engine, had almost brought the train to a stand still, else the consequences would have been even more serious than they were. The same train made a second accident Thursday afternoon in the vicinity of Archer. The report is that a broken rail caused several coaches to be thrown from the track and several upon their sides, quite seriously but not fatally injuring several persons.—Sidney Telegraph.

H. M. Grimes was called to Gandy last week to conduct the defense in a preliminary examination on the charge of murder.

H. T. Crockett has shown us some of the finest potatoes we have seen this season, of the variety "Early Ohio Pinkeye." They are beautiful and the quality is splendid, as we can certify, having given them a trial.

The Paxton Republican comes down as bright and crisp and fresh as an October morn. The master hand of Henry L. Walsh is visible in the background. Invariably a desperate effort was made to inject personal bias into the campaign, this year very little if any influence in the vote. The opposition invariably from principle and not because of personal dislike to any of the promoters of the enterprise. It was a good natured canvass, the argument being based purely on figures.

Below we give the vote by precincts:

FOR. AGAINST. North Platte, 814, 60; Brady Island, 30, 60; Subaline, 7, 19; Maxwell, 18, 34; Wall Creek, 163, 34; Osgood, 32, 4; Hall, 25, 4; Garfield, 33, 2; O'Fallon, 10, 2; Nowell, 39, 2; Nichols, 32, 2; Myrtle, 5, 14; Wellfleet, 8, 3; Cottonwood, 8, 3; Well, 11, 11; Willow, 8, 28; Birdwood, 23, 34; Dickent, 2, 48; Walker, 3, 15; Deer Creek, 4, 2; Mylander, 14, 5; Buchanan, 4, 5.

As we go to the polls precincts are not all in, but enough are received to show that the proposition is carried with about three hundred votes to spare.

Board of Education. Since the breaking of the dead lock in the Board of Education that body has transacted considerable business.

On Oct. 3d, desirable transaction of other business the salaries of Misses Stolle and Bowen were raised to $60 per month and the following bills were allowed:

Frank Peale, glazing, $10.08; Thos. Kane & Co. Chicago, desks and seats, $24.45; slate stone blackboard, $8.00.

The Bond Proposition Adopted.

Saturday was an eventful day in the history of Lincoln county. It marked the turning point in our career from comparative inactivity to one of immediate development and progress.

There never was a time when the importance of the occasion seemed more apparent to the voters, and every man who favored the scheme realized that it was his duty to cast his vote in favor of progress, however great the inconvenience or loss of time occasioned thereby.

The day was unusually fair and beautiful, warm and with just enough southern zephyr to make it enjoyable. All over the county the interest was intense. Many men who are opposed to subsidies on principle voted for the proposition, realizing that this was an extraordinary occasion.

Notwithstanding a desperate effort was made to inject personal bias into the campaign, this year very little if any influence in the vote. The opposition invariably from principle and not because of personal dislike to any of the promoters of the enterprise.

It was a good natured canvass, the argument being based purely on figures. Below we give the vote by precincts:

Democratic County Convention.

The Democratic County Convention met at the court house on Monday afternoon and was called to order by Major Wm. Risse, chairman of the county central committee.

G. R. Hammond, of North Platte, was elected temporary chairman and Dr. Lenon, of Wallace, temporary secretary. Major Risse moved that a committee of three on credentials be appointed.

The chair appointed as such committee John D. Kellihier, of Maxwell, Jesse Young, of Medicine, and W. L. McGee, of North Platte.

The committee on credentials reported the following delegates entitled to seats in the convention:

North Platte No. 1—Wm. Steaks, W. N. Cartwright, G. R. Hammond, Jas. Herrod Louis Rock, Theo. Eiriam, North Platte No. 2—W. L. McGee, J. C. Hupfer, W. B. Risse, R. L. Graves, J. M. Dyer, and J. M. Dyer proxy for F. B. Jones.

North Platte No. 3—Jerry Cronin, G. T. Snelling proxy for Henry Peters, John W. Embry, P. A. Norton, Cottonwood—E. E. Erickson, Deer Creek—David Robinson, Fairview—A. B. Clayton, Mylander—S. Mang, O'Fallon—D. O. Dwyer, Wallace—Jas. Wallace, Frank Wallace, James Seaton, C. Lenon, Spannum—W. M. Ritenauer, Hall—D. B. McNeal, Nowell—Simmons S. White, Morrow—P. Robertson, Maxwell—J. D. Kellihier, Medicine—Chas. E. Finch, Jesse A. Young.

On motion the temporary organization was made permanent. The nomination for treasurer being in order, Major Risse placed the name of Wm. Grady before the convention, and Mr. Grady was nominated for treasurer by acclamation.

Mr. Grady was called for and made a very good speech, making some rash promises, however. The nomination of candidate for COUNTY CLERK was then taken up. Wm. N. Cartwright presented the name of W. S. Peniston; W. L. McGee named R. L. Graves; Col. Hupfer named A. S. Brown; David Robinson named Dr. Lenon, of Wallace; and a delegate whose name we did not catch named Millard McKellup.

Messrs. Cartwright and Finch were appointed tellers. David Robinson moved that the first ballot be informal, which was carried. The informal ballot resulted as follows: Graves 18, Peniston 3, McKellup 2, Brown 2, Lenon 1.

A formal ballot was then taken and resulted in the nomination of Graves by 19. Mr. Graves was called for and said he was not in position to give as much time to the canvass as he would desire, but he would be with the whole ticket, and felt that he would "get there," or words to that effect.

The next nomination was for sheriff. Major Risse moved that the secretary be instructed to cast the vote of the convention for E. Grady, which was accordingly done and Grady was declared the nominee.

Then the convention proceeded to nominate a victim for county judge. Maj. Grady's speech was so good that the gentleman the secretary being directed to cast the ballot of the convention for him.

Major Snelling made a humorous speech. He said he thought he was out of politics. When a man running for office has a great many mean things said about him. Two years ago he was made out a very bad man, and if the campaign had lasted two weeks longer the good folks of Lincoln county would have been proven, too. Still he was willing to go through the ordeal again and thanked the convention for the honor of the nomination.

On motion the office of the clerk of the District Court was left vacant, the convention probably thinking it would be worse than useless to put up a man against it.

Superintendent of public instruction, Miss Mary E. Hosford was nominated by acclamation. Miss Hosford not being present, the gallant Maj. Risse was selected to respond for her. Amid cheers the Major arose, although considerably embarrassed, but he proved equal to the emergency.

Dyer moved that A. D. Orr be nominated for surveyor, and Snelling moved that the secretary be instructed to cast the motions were adopted, to the tune of "Hold the Fort."

The convention thought that Dr. Dillard would make a good coroner and he was accordingly placed on the ticket. For county commissioner Lester Walker and C. F. Pretzner were named. A ballot being had, Walker received 21 and Pretzner 10.

A motion was made to make Maj. Walker's nomination unanimous, but one delegate voted a loud "no."

Maj. Walker in his speech alluded to the fact that the commissioner's place would be filled and he selected as the gentleman who would not be unanimous. He made some pleasant promises which pleased the delegates very much.

W. L. McGee, W. C. Graves, W. C. Lenon, J. M. Dyer and Frank Wallace were appointed delegates to the State convention.

Delegates to the judicial convention, W. L. McGee, Geo. T. Snelling, J. C. Hupfer, Geo. Hammond, J. M. Dyer. The following gentlemen were appointed members of the COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE: 1st Ward—Jas. Herrod, 2d Ward—Wm. B. Risse, 3d Ward—James Shy, Cottonwood—Silas W. Clark, Deer Creek—G. L. Sherman, Fairview—A. B. Clayton, Mylander—S. Mang, O'Fallon—D. O. Dwyer, Wallace—A. G. Norman, Spannum—W. M. Ritenauer, Hall—L. Walker, Nowell—S. S. White, Morrow—P. Robertson, Maxwell—John D. Kellihier, Medicine—Jesse Young.

Major Risse moved that the committee be instructed to fill vacancies from precincts not represented.

Maj. Risse moved that inasmuch as the Republican convention had declared their allegiance to the famous prize ring trainer Muldoon, that we appoint a committee to draft resolutions declaring our allegiance to the giant of the great world Grover Cleveland.

Motion adopted, and Risse Cartwright and Young were appointed the committee. [We were unable to obtain a copy of the resolutions in time for publication this week.—Ed.]

Mr. Keen has reopened his gunsmith shop in the building on Locust street lately occupied by the Democrat. He will do all kinds of fine work and should receive a liberal patronage.
