sight of her face in the gaslight, and said: "Not bad looking if she is in rags. So you want an engagement, eh?" "Yes, sir, if you please," replied Marie.
"To play Lady Macbeth, I suppose?" "No, sir; for the ballet." "Oh! Ever been on the stage before?"

"Only as a child, sir." "Oh; only as a child! Do you sing?" "Yes, sir-very well." "Very well, so you think; I might not. Do you dance?"

"Yes, sir. Father was an actor, and he says I dance very well." "Oh, then you can come tomorrow and try it." "I will be here, sir."

"Bring your props with you." Poor Marie hesitated; and the manager, observing this, said: "Oh. perhaps you don't know what I mean by props. Well, they are your feathers, jewels, ribbons, laces, tights, slippers, gloves, and so on. We only furnish the body of

The poor girl still hesitated, when the manager asked again, "Can't you furnish your own props?"
