REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The republican electors of Lincoln county, Nebraska, are requested to send delegates from the several precincts to meet in convention in North Platte on Saturday, April 24, 1892, at one o'clock p.m.

The several precincts are entitled to representation as follows: Being held upon the vote and for the purpose of electing delegates to the county convention on Saturday, April 24, 1892, at one o'clock p.m.

PREMISES. The primaries to be held on Saturday April 24, 1892, at the usual place, in the country precincts between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m.

A PHILADELPHIA saloonist advertises to "give a bi-chloride of gold sandwich with each drink."

ANOTHER evidence of the ungodliness of the New York legislature is made manifest by its refusal to pass a law prohibiting fishing on Sunday.

COL. A. L. BIXBY, of the Columbus Sentinel dedicates this touching sentiment to Congressman O. M. Kern, of this district:

"I cannot sing the old songs, For I am filled with woe; But I can howl calamity From I- to Broken Bow."

SINCE a failure has taken place in matching himself with a bantam weight, Chilly, your Uncle Samuel is arranging for a finish fight with that swaggering heavy-weight, J. Bull.

NOW THAT the good Dr. Miller and M. Henri Watterson have each concluded that Cleveland should get out of the way that gentleman will step aside as a presidential candidate.

LUTHER BRASON, the noted Indiana temperance lecturer who has indulged in periodic spasms for the past twenty years and advocated prohibition during his sober intervals, has tried the Keeley cure.

DESPITE the statement that Russell Sage is unphilanthropic he is said to have recently loaned $100,000 upon Talmage's Tabernacle, in Brooklyn, upon no other security than a $50,000 insurance policy upon T. De Witt's life.

The alleged ticket of Clarkson and Belden, put up by some of the republican politicians in Iowa, will not excite a very large boom.

HENRY WATTERSON and Grover Cleveland agree that tariff reform, which both of them use a phrase meaning free trade, must be the democratic battle cry in this year's presidential campaign.

Like all other great evils, dealing in futures has been characterized as the product of a man who wishes to dazzle the eyes of an alliance constituency.

Messrs. Cage & Sherman of Alexander, Texas write us regarding a remarkable cure of rheumatism there as follows: "The wife of Mr. Wm. Pruitt, the postmaster here had been bed-ridden with rheumatism for several years.

The state democratic convention will be held in Omaha April 13th, in the evening, the basis of representation is one delegate for each 150 votes, or major fraction thereof.

The announcement of the coming of Remyeny, the Hungarian violinist, has awakened a general popular interest. Remyeny's playing is essentially popular.

It is clearly the duty of a great nation like this to be prepared for war and then to avoid it. We have learned that the unexpected may happen.

ST. GEORGE AND THE BISHOP. A COUPLE of Inter Ocean interviews: "Dr. George L. Miller, of Omaha, who registered at the Auditorium yesterday, does not think Cleveland a possibility, and if nominated believes he will be defeated.

EDITOR TRIBUNE.—We have been taking quite an interest in Senator Washburn's Option Bill, lately introduced into congress. The bill contemplates limiting the dealing in futures and options.

Dealing in futures fosters ignorance from the fact that however diligent the farmer may cultivate and till his soil, he is confronted and handicapped by the so-called board of trade and a regular system of future dealings which sets the price of his farm products almost before it is raised and most certainly before it is offered on the market.

The farmer plants his grain and diligently tills his soil with the high hope of realizing a fair price for his labor, but he soon finds that with all his skilled labor and improved machinery he is at the mercy of men who "bear" the market down and "bull" the market up as best serves their gambling instincts and money making propensities.

But when we are confronted by gamblers in futures and options proposing to control the price of our products, we naturally shrink from progression and improvement, well knowing that our doom is fixed.

One word more. We notice that this bill has been characterized as the product of a man who wishes to dazzle the eyes of an alliance constituency. So long as the bill is in the interests of true farming, why stop and quarrel about whether the bill was introduced by a republican or democrat.

Dr. George L. Miller told the democratic state committee some unsavory truth at Omaha the other night. He said he had it straight from Grover Cleveland that the democratic majority in congress had committed blunders that have never been exceeded.

The action of American iron and steel makers in reporting last year $27,714,843 of their manufactures—or $3,000,000 more than in 1890, and two and three-fourths as much as twelve years ago—calls for the most severe condemnation from the free trade papers.

That eminent democratic statesman, ex-Governor Curtin, of Pennsylvania, has this to say about President Harrison's administration: "Since Secretary of State James G. Blaine has so positively declined the preferred honor, I see no way for your party but to renominate President Harrison.

It is a curious legal fiction, that every epoch, has had its peculiar remedy or medium of barter and exchange. Not only gold, silver, copper, brass, lead and paper, but such out of the way articles as bits of glass, shells, beads, stones, soap, bits of various colors, and numerous other objects, some of them absolutely valueless to any way of looking at the matter.

Why They Are Called "Coppers." Fifty years ago policemen wore no uniforms, their badge of office being merely a copper shield. It was from this shield that they took their name of "coppers," which is often diminished to "cops."

It was accounted for. An up town minister's wife was reading to him one evening last week. "An average man of fifty has spent 6,000 days or nearly twenty years in sleep," she said.

"I have just recovered from a second attack of the grip this year," says Mr. Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days, against ten days for the first attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting down."

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will take stock to herd during the season of 1892 and will charge therefore the sum of one dollar per head and on a large number a discount of 20 cents on each; the herding season to commence on the 1st day of May and will end on the 1st day of October, 1892. I have a large range on the west side of the White Horse Creek and special attention will be given to all stock entrusted to my care and satisfaction guaranteed or no charges. For further information inquire of the undersigned on section 30, town 15, range 30, Lincoln county, Neb.

Messrs. Cage & Sherman of Alexander, Texas write us regarding a remarkable cure of rheumatism there as follows: "The wife of Mr. Wm. Pruitt, the postmaster here had been bed-ridden with rheumatism for several years. She could get nothing to do her any good. We sold her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and she was completely cured by its use. We refer any one to her to verify this statement." 50 cent bottles for sale by A. F. Streitz, Druggist.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Hundreds of Professors. In the counties of Luzerne, Schuylkill, Carbon and Northumberland, Pa., there are 478 men who insist upon the title of "professor." This includes musicians, teachers of music, schoolmasters, two sleight-of-hand men, one ventriloquist, four jugglers or "professors of juggling," nine dancing masters, two oyster operators and twelve drink mixers or bartenders.
