

The Tribune.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 15th, 1892

A $500 invoice of fire-works at Williams'. Examine his stock.

Joseph Falls was taken to the Norfolk asylum by Sheriff Baker Monday morning.

Harry Wood has improved to such an extent that he can now be wheeled around in an invalid's chair.

The interior of the North Plate National Bank has been repainted and handsomely papered, and now presents a neater appearance.

Mrs. A. H. Davis, of Wellfleet, was badly burned in the face last week by the cork in a jug of boiling vinegar being blown out and the hot liquid flying over her.

Miss Georgia McNeil, one of the most charming of North Plate's young ladies, has been visiting in our city the past week, the guest of Mrs. Kingley—Sidney Poward.

The June apportionment of state school funds to Lincoln amounts to $3,275.13, an average of ninety-five cents per scholar, as compared with eighty-two cents in January apportionment.

Miss Susie Wilson, who is well known in North Plate, will be married at her home in Sterling, Colorado, to-day, the happy to-be-groom being a traveling man with headquarters at Lincoln.

The members of the Lyceum League should receive financial encouragement from our citizens at their entertainment at the opera house Friday evening. The programme will be pleasant and interesting.

G. H. B. Head, leader of the drum corps which rendered music at the depot Sunday night, was at one time a resident of North Plate, having held the position of baggage agent for two or three years.

Go to Williams' for your supply of fire-works.

The Geo. W. Cook Drum Corps, of Denver, enroute home from the Minneapolis convention stopped over in the city Saturday so Sunday evening and favored our citizens with some excellent musical music.

Don't forget the musical and literary entertainment to be given by the members of the Lyceum League, for it will be one of the best things of the season. At Keith's opera house, Friday evening, June 17th.

It is not out of place to remark that the American eagle will scream louder in North Plate than the approaching Fourth than ever before. It will be a grand and glorious celebration and worth many miles coming to see.

A meeting will be held at the court house to-morrow evening for the purpose of organizing a republican club, electing officers therefore and transacting other business. A full attendance of republicans is desired.

We are informed by the North Plate implement dealers that those of us who have not yet called on those of last season. The increased acreage of wheat demands greater facilities for handling the crop at harvest time.

E. B. Warner, of this city, was elected president of the Nebraska Funeral Directors' Association at its meeting last week. Inasmuch as Mr. Warner was not present at the meeting his election is all the more complimentary.

A $500 invoice of fire-works at Williams'. Examine his stock.

Friday afternoon next Mazappa Lodge will duly observe the Knights of Pythias' annual dinner. Most of the members of the lodge will assemble at the hall at 1:30, and proceed by car to the cemetery where the graves of departed members will be properly decorated.

The members of the Elksway Employes Club will meet on Thursday evening, June 16th, at the Y. M. C. rooms, for the purpose of hearing reports of committee work done during the past year. JOHN SØRENSEN, President.

CHARLES H. SECRETARY.

G. E. Brage, an architect of Grand Island, will be here Friday and confer with the committee of the Episcopal church relative to plans for the proposed building that church will erect. Mr. Brage will make arrangements for the building some time ago, and the matter met the approval of the committee to such an extent as to call for full details.

The republican meeting at the court house Saturday evening was not largely attended, but what it lacked in numbers was made up in enthusiasm. Chairman made an eloquent speech, and was followed by several others, who made enthusiastic addresses. The meeting was enlivened with music by the amateur band.

Church need the nine o'clock signal on the fire bell and the themselves home as the taps are given. The taps that were sounded while passing down the streets after that hour had been arrested by the police and placed in jail, was incorrect. No arrests have been made and none are likely to occur so long as those affected by the ordinance observe the mandate well, as they have in the past.

At a meeting of the business men's association Thursday evening Messrs. Iddings, Birge, Ormsby, Vollmer and McFees were elected as delegates to the annual convention of the state association which is in session at Omaha this week, and for the first time Monday. President Hammann, of the local association, who is entitled to a seat in the convention by virtue of his office, was also present.

While Prof. Sabin has been with us but a short time, he has demonstrated his ability to take the position of superintendent of schools in a most satisfactory manner. The Tamzux has every reason to believe that the board of education acted wisely when it elected him to that position for the ensuing year. The Professor is an active, energetic and progressive teacher, and will do everything in his power to elevate the schools of the city.

Go to Williams' for your supply of fire-works.

On Saturday evening last Nebraska Test No. 1, Knights of the Maccabees, assembled in their hall and others held a social at their home in connection with the eleventh anniversary of the order, and a great and joyful time was the result. Thirty members of the lodge at Lexington, accompanied by the band of that place, arrived on the nine o'clock train and met the band at the depot and proceeded to the opera house. The programme rendered consisted of vocal and instrumental music, recitations and addresses. Geo. C. Donehower being the principal speaker. At the close of these exercises, the band played on and an hour of dancing indulged in by many of those present. The affair was very successful from every point of view.

The Tamzux editor was unable to attend the School of Nativity entertainment last Wednesday evening, but on every side he heard words of praise spoken. During the entire entertainment not a single word was spoken which were made in the rendition of the programme, and the thoroughness with which the children had been drilled spoke volumes for the sisters.

The singing by the general public was exceptionally good. The general verdict being that Master McCabe has a voice that gives great promise for the future. The plays presented were admirably carried out, each one performing the part assigned in a creditable manner. The house seemed little performers and every one present went home fully satisfied that it was good to be there. The sisters in charge of the school are entitled to much credit for their work in drilling the children.

Remember the Lutheran fair at the opera house on Tuesday evening of next week.

Harry Langdon, who served a couple of years in a Denver drug store, has accepted a position with Streitz.

Ernest Tramp moved into his new house last Friday. Thos. A. Duke, fireman, will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Tramp.

Go to Williams' for your supply of fire-works.

A street fair Monday afternoon amused quite a crowd of men by his slight-of-hand performances and fast-fetched stories.

W. A. Gregg, of Willard, transacted business yesterday Monday. Grain in his section promises to make good a crop as last year.

This is on that republican boy who was at my house this morning," remarked Will Ginn Monday as he handed the scribe a cigar.

For Sale—Black Walnut bed-room suite; three pieces. Inquire at Dr. Donaldson's Office.

Judge Nevile has been holding court at Broken Bow for the past week for Judge Halcombe, who will preside at this time in the county.

Quite a party of shop men went to the Birdwood Saturday on a fishing expedition and returned Monday evening with not much of a catch.

Fred Datchler, one of the merchants of North Platte, mounted the head of his estimable wife, who died Tuesday of last week, leaving three small children.

A $100 invoice of fire-works at Williams'.

Richard Baker has been fitting up a house he recently purchased on east Ninth street to be occupied by himself and wife. The wedding is to be this week.

A party of twenty-five or thirty men went to Waldo's hole south of town Sunday to fish and have a picnic. It is reported that they returned with the scales of two large fish.

The young ladies of the Catholic church will hold a social to-morrow evening in the church yard, at which ice cream will be served. The public generally is invited to attend.

The Equitable Life of New York has $100,000 insurance in force in North Plate. See Mr. Hale, who is now in the city, and get a twenty-year Policy from him.

Rev. E. C. Campbell, of Cayuga, Okla., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Campbell, having arrived in town last night.

Charles H. Hall, who has been located on the farm in Aransas for a year or two past, is visiting North Plate acquaintances.

Mr. W. D. Waldo and child left Sunday night for Spokane, Wash., where Mr. Waldo is engaged in business.

W. T. Wilcox left yesterday for McPherson, Kan., on business. He expects to be back in three or four days.

J. B. Brazzel, editor of the Fairmont Standard, a brother of Mrs. H. Gillett, was the guest of that lady Sunday.

Mrs. E. C. Campbell, of Cayuga, Okla., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Campbell, having arrived in town last night.

Tom Ferguson, a former North Plate boy, but now located on the Pacific slope, is visiting his mother and sisters in this city.

Charles Hendy, Jr., went to Lincoln Monday to visit his friend Ed. Elliott, who is also attending the University of Nebraska.

Charles McDonald and daughter Callie went to Lincoln Monday morning to attend commencement exercises at the state university.

Miss Kate Conway, who had been visiting North Plate friends for a week, left Monday morning for her home in Redeburg, Wis.

Mrs. S. D. Wadsworth, of Council Bluffs, accompanied by her sister from Texas, will visit relatives in North Plate in the near future.

Mr. W. H. Remington and children, of Lake St. Louis, stopped over a few days the latter part of the week to visit with J. M. Cotton and family.

Milton Cottrell, of Red Cloud, spent Saturday with his son James in this city enroute to Telluride, Colo., to look after mining property.

Pete McGhee, who has been making a tour of the country, between the Missouri river and the Atlantic ocean, to look after mining property.

Charles H. Hall, who has been making a tour of the country, between the Missouri river and the Atlantic ocean, to look after mining property.

Several farmers residing in different sections of the county were gathered Saturday and each informed us that small grain though still in stalks promises to be a good crop.

The great promise is to be one well worth the patronage of the public.

WANTED—A competent girl for cooking and kitchen work; good wages offered. Address, Box 128, or "Scout's Rest Ranch."

The regular meeting of the Lyceum League was held Monday evening, but the time was devoted to completing arrangements for the entertainment to be given at the Lyceum on Friday evening. The program consists of songs, recitations, and address. A very large audience was present.

Don't forget the musical and literary entertainment to be given by the members of the Lyceum League, for it will be one of the best things of the season. At Keith's opera house, Friday evening, June 17th.

Having the finest cooler in the city, meets at the Palace market are kept in the finest possible condition.

The wind storm last night was the heaviest we have had this season. The highest velocity attained was sixty miles per hour, this rate being maintained for five minutes. The highest winds however were about a fifty miles velocity kept up.

One particular thing about the storm was that at 9:45 the temperature was higher than at any time during the day. The effect of the storm is plainly visible in the residence portions of the city, where trees have been broken off, and the roof of round house was blown off.

Mr. Luther Ferguson, of Colorado Springs, is expected to arrive in town the latter part of the week to visit with J. M. Cotton and family.

Charles H. Hall, who has been making a tour of the country, between the Missouri river and the Atlantic ocean, to look after mining property.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is in Omaha, surprised his many young friends by a visit of a week with them. He was on his way home from the west and left on No. 4 Tuesday morning.

Frank Ferguson, who attended school here when he was knee pants, but whose home is