THE IMPERIAL COUNCIL

Opening Business Session of the Mystic Shrine—Illustrious Potentate Briggs Delivers His Address—State of the Order.

OMAHA, Aug. 16.—Three thousand nobles of the Ancient Order of the Mystic Shrine, with gleaming lances and brilliant apparel, on foot, in carriages and bestriding gaily caparisoned camels, wended their way through the Oasis of Omaha last evening. The caravan was a magnificent spectacle and as it wound around the trail leading from the temple through the haunts of traders, it was greeted with a grand display of bunting, illumination, pyrotechnics. Twenty t[housand] gathered along the line [of] the grand parade disbanded [at] been reviewed by Illustrio[us] Briggs from the Paxton bal[cony] came a grand reception to t[he] and ladies, to which they w[ere] somed by Mayor Bemis and giv[en] key and the freedom of the city.

The imperial council opened [at] o'clock in the Masonic temple.

Immediately after the call Potentate Briggs delivered his annual report. He quoted statistics showing that there were in this country sixty-two temples and 22,789 nobles against thirteen temples and 425 nobles in 1878. Of the fraternal dead, Noble Briggs said David Kalakaua, of the Sandwich islands; William J. Florence and Tewfik Mohammed Pasha, Khedive of Egypt, were the most prominent. At the conclusion of his address it was referred to a special committee appointed for the purpose.

The report of the imperial treasurer showed that the imperial council was entirely free from debt and had a balance of $16,571.42 in the treasury.

After a recess for the purpose of permitting the committee to report, the session was resumed and the committee on jurisprudence at once made its report. The question of limiting the number of temples in the state to three, after considerable discussion, was left to the discrimination of the imperial council.

W. P. Mellis was elected imperial potentate. Cincinnati gets the Shrine in 1893.

Stevenson Talks to the Hibernians.

BLOOMINGTON, Ills., Aug. 16.—General A. E. Stevenson was the guest of the Ancient Order of Hibernians at their annual celebration of the Roman Catholic feast of Assumption. The picnic was held at the grounds of the Bloomington Fair association. General Stevenson, upon being called upon to speak, said as follows: "I believe that a better day is coming for the country from which you or your ancestors came. The time is in the near future when, under the leadership of Gladstone and others of his party, the people of Ireland will enjoy the same freedom that we have here in blessed America today. When that day comes there will be rejoicing, not only in the hearts of Irish people here, but in the whole of America."

THE PLAGUE'S PROGRESS

Reports From Teheran Show a Large Increase in Cholera Cases—Panic Among Working Men.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 16.—Reports from Teheran say that the cholera spreads in that city daily. The people are dying at the rate of 2,000 a week and there is every possibility of greater mortality. The streets of the city are exceptionally filthy and the panic among the workingmen is so complete that workingmen cannot be found to clean them. Efforts to press men into the street-cleaning service in the foulest part of the city have resulted only in incipient riots. All the officials, whose services are not required in the city, have left and the court officers have gone to Sultaneeyah. Medical help is unknown among the poor. Most of the working people, moreover, live in earth houses, which are undrained and are in a condition to succumb at once to the disease. In nineteen cases out of twenty it is estimated the disease is fatal. In the lower parts of the city the people have ceased caring for their dead. The American mission hospital is treating many cases. Outside of it there is hardly an effort to stay the cholera's progress.

Killed Their Captive.

ROME, Aug. 16.—A dispatch from Castro, Sicily, says that brigands captured a wealthy wine merchant named Billotte and a servant. Billotte sent the servant with a letter to his brokers requesting that the ransom requested, 500,000 franc be forwarded

The servant informed the police and a posse of twenty gendarmes started out to attack the brigands. The latter were warned by their scouts and escaped to the mountains after hastily putting Billotte to death. The soldiers on reaching the place deserted by the brigands, found Billotte's body in the midst of a pile of burning wood.

Jennie Tabor's Startling Confession.

HUDSON, Mich., Aug. 16. — Jennie Tabor, of this place, who was arrested here because her younger brother discovered twenty dynamite cartridges concealed about their house, has made a startling confession. She said she was going to blow up the house, together with her brother and sister, to secure the whole of her dead father's $5,000 estate. She says that she was instigated by her lover, William Meyers, who also recently compelled her to go with him to rob George Goodwin's residence with the money they got buying dynamite cartridges. The officers are satisfied that Meyers is [illegible]

Kidnaped a Crew.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 16.—Formal complaint has been laid before United States Consul Meyers, by H. Sanson and five other members of the crew of the schooner Robert Lewis, that they were kidnaped by force by the Sailor's union while on a schooner which was lying at Port Gable and shipped to this city. An investigation will be made.

Killed by an Insane Convict.

JACKSON, Mich., Aug. 16.—At the state prison here Contractor Cuddy of Detroit was murdered by an insane prisoner, who struck him three heavy blows on the back of the head with a hammer. The prisoner, whose name is Henry Blackman, is a lifer, having been sent up for the murder of two members of his family some years ago.

BOTH SIDES OF THE PICTURE.

"You Pays Your Money and You Takes Your Choice."

[Charles Francis Adams in Forum.]

No more severe pressure for a general turning out of officials and a new distribution of places was probably ever brought to bear upon the head of a government than was brought to bear upon President Cleveland after his inauguration. I have not the figures before me, nor do I care to look them up; but I think it will be found that the removals during President Cleveland's administration were fewer in number and less dictated by partisan or political considerations than those of President Harrison, who succeeded him.

[New York Evening Post, May 26, 1888.]

The painful truth is that we doubt if a single independent voter in this state, of the thousands who supported President Cleveland in 1884, any longer attaches any importance to the utterances of the members of the administration on the subject of civil service reform, or any longer refuses to believe that the president's promises and professions have been violated or disregarded on a great scale, with the utmost boldness, in sundry places and divers manners, and that men like Judge Maynard and Surveyor Beattie have actually been detailed or told off to practice as much civil service abuse as can be readily concealed or disguised when they are found out and exposed.

Our Mugwump friends talk too much for their own good.—Bangor Whig.

The Calamity Candidate.

Grover—Here's yer great extra! Terrible calamity! Short cotton crops caused by drought and the tariff!—New York Commercial Advertiser.

I will never help to make a law which stands in the way of free trade.—Roger Q. Mills.

A Most Gratifying "Sham."

The first year under our reciprocity arrangement with Brazil was concluded April 1, 1892.

Our exports to that country increased $1,000,000, or 10 per cent., as a result of Brazil's concessions to our exporters. As for Great Britain's exports to Brazil for the year, they fell off between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000.

Such indisputable facts are calculated to make one believe the Democratic national convention was wrong in styling such trade "sham reciprocity."—New York Mail and Express.

The Sort of Work Necessary.

The present congress has really spent more money than its Republican predecessor, but by deferring the passage of the sundry civil bill till next December its Democratic members can say that it has not appropriated as much, and can continue to use their old cry of "the billion dollar congress" for the purpose of making capital against the Republican party in ignorant constituencies. This is the sort of work that is supposed to be necessary to elect that rotund reformer, Grover Cleveland!—Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin.

Had not Slept for Years.

Mr. A Jackson, an old resident of Rusk Texas, and manager of the magnificent new Hotel at Rusk, informs us he had not slept at night for years except in short naps, owing to incessant coughing. He was advised when very much run down to try Ballard's Horehound Syrup; he was immediately relieved of his Cough and his rest improved to such a degree that he could sleep soundly all night; Mr. Jackson states: "I regard Ballard's Horehound Syrup superior to any Cough Syrup on the market, and its freedom from Opium and Morphine leave no constipation after using it. For this reason alone I consider it the best Cough Syrup in the world for children. My Lungs are now stronger than they have been for years. This Syrup is very soothing to the throat and lungs." Sold by A. F. Streitz. 1 1

Cleveland's Prolific Pen.

Mr. Cleveland has put his prolific pen to paper again. This time it is to thank Will S. Hays, the song writer, for a campaign glee which was dedicated to the Democratic ticket. Mr. Cleveland expresses his belief in the "influence of songs and music of the right sort" in the winning of elections. This may be so, but it is a dangerous thing to encourage the campaign poet beyond a certain limit, and Mr. Cleveland has overstepped discretion. He has invited bombardment.—Syracuse (N. Y.) Standard.

The Glorious Policy of Protection.

Nothing has tended more to build up our manufacturing industries to their present state of prosperity, nothing has tended more to elevate the American workman to his present rank among the laboring classes of the world, than the policy of protection which was inaugurated by Washington and Hamilton, encouraged by Jackson, and which has been the special policy of the Republican party since it came into power at the commencement of the war.—Huntington (N. Y.) Long Islander.

Lame and Limited Correction.

The only tariff measures passed by the Democratic house of representatives are the bills for free cotton ties and free wool. Notwithstanding the fact that the party goes into spasms every time the McKinley bill is mentioned, the attempt to correct its alleged "iniquities" has been remarkably lame and limited. Can it be possible that the party, through its representatives in congress, is trying to break into office again under false pretenses?—St. Louis Star-Sayings.

A Rapidly Fading Cry.

The Democratic cry about the billion dollar congress becomes fainter and fainter. It is a sad ending to so enthusiastic a beginning. But when the billion dollar congress surpasses in the amount of its expenditures the one which preceded it, what margin is left for the Democratic organ or orator to boast of the superior economy of the Democracy.—Newburg (N. Y.) Journal.

The Stuffed Club.

There's a name that's often spoken,
There's a party pledge that's broken,
There's a prophet writing letters, that is all:
There's a club with stuffing in it,
And it's working every minute;
It'll knock the stuffing out of Grover in the fall.
—Detroit Tribune.

Other medicines might help, but to make assurance doubly sure use De Witt's Sarsaparilla to enrich, purify and renew the blood. A. F. Streitz.

If dull, spiritless and stupid; if your blood is thick and sluggish; if your appetite is capricious and uncertain, you need a Sarsaparilla. For best results take De Witt's. A. F. Streitz.

Mrs. L. R. Patton, Rockford, Ill., writes: "From personal experience I can recommend De Witt's Sarsaparilla, a cure for impure blood and general debility. A. F. Streitz.

A WINNING CANDIDATE.

Knute Nelson, Who Will Be Minnesota's Next Governor.

Hon. Knute Nelson has been nominated for governor by the Republicans of Minnesota, and his election is as certain as anything can be which has not already happened.

Knute Nelson lives at Alexandria, Minn. He is a Norwegian by birth, and was forty-nine years old on Feb. 2. When he was between six and seven years old he was brought to this country. Mr. Nelson is a well educated man, and a lawyer with good practice. He fought in the federal army as private and afterward as noncommissioned officer of a Wisconsin regiment. In 1868–9 he was a member of the Wisconsin legislature. He removed into Minnesota, and in 1872–74 was prosecuting attorney of Douglas county, that state. Beginning with that of 1875 he was a state senator four consecutive terms. Mr. Nelson was a presidential elector on the Garfield and Arthur ticket. He was elected to the Forty-eighth congress and has twice been re-elected.

The conflict between free trade and protection is irrepressible and must be fought out to the bitter end. We spit upon compromises, and propose neither to ask nor to give quarter.—Henry Watterson.

No Disguise in This.

While Mr. Cleveland is exceedingly anxious to repudiate the free trade plank of his platform because he sees clearly it will not bear his weight, the Democrats of California accept the Chicago platform as a free trade utterance, and print their interpretation of it on their handbills as follows:

Hurrah for
GROVER CLEVELAND
AND FREE TRADE!
Down with Monopolists!
We Want Free Wool from Australia,
Free Barley and Lumber from Canada,
Free Silver from Mexico,
Free Tin from England and Free Wines from France.
"Tariff for Revenue Only."
That's the Talk Which Will Win!
The People Must Have Cheap Goods,
Cheap Clothing,
Cheap Shoes,
Cheap Houses and
Cheap Food,
All of which we can have if we only have
FREE TRADE!
Therefore let's all vote for
CLEVELAND AND FREE TRADE.
—Seattle (Wash.) Intelligencer.

Cleveland as a Demagogue.

Cleveland also plays the demagogue on the "force bill." He simulates a foreboding of evil that every intelligent man knows he cannot feel, in order to placate the few Bourbons who are trying to work up some excitement on this question. Mr. Cleveland's words, read between the lines, are really a damning indictment of his own party in the south of the crime of disfranchising the legal colored voters of that section. It is the proposition to enforce these constitutional rights that creates all the fear and indignation among their Bourbon tyrants. —Trenton State Gazette.

The Impotent "Great Majority."

Dying impotently, the big Democratic majority at Washington, unable to accomplish anything whatever, good or bad, must look enviously upon the common sense rules under which business was transacted by its predecessor without infringing upon any prerogative except the doubtful right of a man to make himself a nuisance. The Democratic house would have been mighty glad to have Mr. Reed's rules in effect for the last few weeks, and nothing but a sense of shame keeps it from going back to them.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

I am a free trader. The Mills bill is a step in that direction.—Congressman Breckinridge.

Let every man vote on this great question with both eyes open as to its effect upon himself, for it is a question of business with him. Let him figure out whether he will gain in cheaper imported goods enough to offset about one-third of his wages, for that is the final outcome of the adoption of Cleveland's scheme as laid down in the Democratic platform.—Chicago Tribune.

I am for Cleveland for president because I am a free trader.—Henry George.

A Mother's Mistake.

Mothers frequently make a mistake in neglecting the Cough of a child. A Fort Wayne, Ind., lady writes: My little daughter 6 years old had a severe Cough but as it was nothing unusual I thought nothing of it, and allowed it to run on for 4 or 5 weeks, when it became so obstinate she began losing flesh. I called in a physician who treated her three weeks without benefit. A neighbor insisted upon my trying Ballard's Horehound Syrup; it relieved her from the first dose and she began gaining flesh rapidly, when we had used two bottles her Cough had entirely disappeared. I would not be without it. It does not constipate my children. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is free from Opiates. It's the most soothing Throat and Lung medicine in the world. Price 50c. and $1.00. Sold by A. F. Streitz. 1-2

Why Democracy Is Despondent.

The main reason for Democratic despondence over the condition of the country is found in the fact that the Democracy is not in enjoyment of the federal patronage. When they are able to get a front place at the public trough, then the affairs of the nation at once begin to improve.—Albany Express.

It Will Be There, Though.

In 1888 the Democratic lead in West Virginia was only 500, and yet the Republicans, who are claiming nothing only what they are certain to get, are not putting that state in their column in their estimates for this year.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

"The Imperial Cleveland Party."

Fusion of the Democratic and People's parties, in addition to having been perfected in Kansas, is likely to take place in Minnesota, the Dakotas, Iowa and Nebraska. Why not make it universal: In the matter of what passes for principles there is really very little to choose between these two parties. As for the name of the new amalgamated association, we beg leave to suggest the Imperial Cleveland party.—New York Morning Advertiser.

How Republicans Will Fish.

On the whole there is going to be plenty of fun in this campaign. There are unusual complications and a good many of them. All who enjoy the fray can have a hand in it, and it will be instructive and entertaining all the time. The Republicans will fight with good heart and hope and feel all the time like the man safe on shore who finds a certain pleasure in the struggles of those tossed about on the high sea.—Hartford Post.

The Boys Know It.

There is nothing really inconsistent in the attitudes of Headsman Stevenson and Platitudinizer Cleveland in regard to the distribution of public offices. To be sure the motto of Adlai is "To the victor belongs the spoils," while Grover proclaims solemnly that "Public office is a public trust." But both utterances mean the same thing in the end, and the Democratic boys know it.—New York Press.

Facts About American Tin.

The Pittsburg and Mexico Tin Mining company, whose mines are at Portillos, Colo., near Durango, recently sent a carload of good tin to New York. Three tin mines are now being worked by this company. The ore, after being washed, effecting a certain amount of concentration, shows 40 per cent. of tin. Operations are to be pushed on a large scale. —Denver Miner.

A Tariff Picture.

In 1860 the day wages of the Mason Machine works, at Taunton, Mass., one of the largest iron mills in New England, averaged $1.05 per day of eleven hours' work, or 9.54 cents an hour. Now they average $1.71 per day of ten hours' work, or 17.1 cents per hour.—New York Press.

Late to bed and early to rise will shorten the road to your home in the skies." But early to bed and a "Little Early Riser," the pill that makes life longer and better and wiser. A. F. Streitz.

Disease never successfully attacks a system with pure blood. DeWitt's Sarsaparilla makes pure, new blood and enriches the old. A. F. Streitz Bright people are the quickest to recognize a good thing and buy it. We sell lots of bright people the Little Early Risers. If you are not bright these pills will make you so. A. F. Streitz.

It is a truth in medicine that the smallest dose that performs the cure is the best. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the smallest pills, will perform the cure and are the best. A. F. Streitz.

It is a fixed and immutable law that to have good, sound health one must have pure, rich and abundant blood. There is no shorter or surer route than by a course of DeWitt's Sarsaparilla. A. F. Streitz.

Two Records.

It is Harrison against Cleveland. The one is backed by success at the polls, by an administration which even his political opponents have commended and by progressive action on the part of a Republican congress. The other has behind him defeat and the work of a congress whose wild acts have led many influential Democratic papers to congratulate the people upon the possession of a wise Republican president who could be trusted to stand resolutely between the country and vicious legislation. Behind him also is a divided party in the pivotal state. Harrison won four years ago. Today he is stronger than then. His old opponent is weaker. Under these conditions the issue should not be doubtful.—Troy Times.

It Wasn't, You Bet!

"The negro whom they found with a bullet in his brain outside of the polling place in that Mississippi town had a ballot in his hand, hadn't he?"

"He had."

"Was it a Democratic ballot?"

"It wasn't."—New York Press.

Pinkerton Is a Democrat.

It may simplify the discussion about the Pinkertons to state the fact that the head of said organization is a Democrat and a zealous supporter of Cleveland.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Education Helps the Republican Party.

It was entirely proper that President Harrison should address the National Educational association. Education is doing a great work for the Republican party, as well as for the country.—Kansas City Journal.

Shiloh's Consumption Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have ever sold, a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price 10c., 50c and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by North Platte Pharmacy, successor to J. Q. Thacker. 1-1

Just Plain Dennis After Nov. 8.

The Biblical interpretation of the name of Adlai, according to the Democratic theologians, is variously given as "The Just" and "My Ornament," but in the latter day lingo of the United States Mr. Stevenson's name will be just plain Dennis about the time the polls close the evening of Nov. 8.—St. Louis Star Sayings.

An Expensive Bauble.

It is intimated that Calvin S. Brice's term as chairman of the national Democratic committee cost him nearly $500,000. If these figures are correct it is not so difficult to understand Brother Brice's modest refusal to accept a re-election. He knows when he has got enough.—New York Press.

To Break the Solid South.

No harm can come of making every effort to break up the solid south. It is even possible that some good may result. West Virginia is rather likely to come into the Republican column.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint.

Is it not worth the small price of seventy five cents to free yourself of every symptom of these distressing complaints; if you think so call at our store and get a bottle of Shiloh's Vitalizer. Every bottle has a printed guarantee on it. Use accordingly and if it does you no good it will cost you nothing. Sold by North Platte Pharmacy, successor to J. Q. Thacker. 12

D. A. BAKER, Sheriff.

They all Testify

To the Efficacy of the World-Renowned Swift's Specific.

The old-time simple remedy from the Georgia swamps and fields has gone forth to the antipodes, astonishing the skeptical and confounding the theories of those who depend solely on the physician's skill. There is no blood taint which it does not immediately eradicate. Poisons outwardly absorbed or the result of vile diseases from within all yield to this potent but simple remedy. It is an unequaled tonic, builds up the old and feeble, cures all diseases arising from impure blood or weakened vitality. Send for a treatise. Examine the proof.
