General Leon and his troupe of highly educated trained soldiers, with the Cook & Whitty circus, are the greatest fun-makers ever presented; their antics and tricks are entirely new and original, and they hold up to nature, as it were, in a grandly ridiculous light, the finished and polished performance of their acrobatic and celebrated acts of the equine world.

Get ready for a treat at Keith's opera house about the 27th. Miss Lillian Pike of Denver, assisted by the best local musical talent, is to provide the entertainment. In taking the unfortunate man to the jail the officers had quite a tussle with him. Gunderson's brother came to town Sunday and took him home.

Very little opposition to the proposed electric light bonds is heard expressed on the streets, and the bonds will probably carry by a vote of five to one. The people realize the necessity of a system of lights; in fact have for several years past, and now that they have an opportunity to secure them will not hesitate to vote for the bonds. Those who have figured the cost of running the plant and the revenue to be derived from it are confident that it will prove self supporting. The election will be held Saturday, July 1st.

At Last, a gold leaf substitute for outside work that is durable, at Peale's.

Since taking charge of the North Platte mill C. F. Idings has added a number of new improvements, and the flour now being made is pronounced by competent and unbiased judges to be the equal of any manufactured in the state. The products of the mill during the past week have been placed in the hands of all the local dealers and THE TRIBUNE, ever favoring the patronizing of home industries where quality and price are reasonably equal to those of other places, would recommend that our citizens give this flour a trial. A thorough trial will result satisfactory to the purchasers and in giving the mill future patronage.

Gothenburg seems to have an over dose of tin horn gamblers and the authorities are determined to stop the game. It would be supposed that the marshal of the town would lend his aid in putting a stop to the gambling, but such a supposition is erroneous, as he was found in a game himself the other day with a stack of reds and whites in front of him.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beaton and Frank Dowhower, residing in Plant precinct, became involved in a quarrel Thursday in which a shot gun and a hoe figured as the weapons of warfare. Some time ago Dowhower slapped one of the Beaton boys for making derogatory remarks concerning his wife, and this action aroused the fighting spirit of the Beaton. On Thursday Dowhower, in attempting to pass through a gate on the Plant place, was confronted by Beaton and his wife, the former with a shot gun and the latter with a hoe. The engagement was opened by the couple, and Beaton in reversing his gun to use it as a club dropped it on the ground and it was discharged, some of the shot making a flesh wound in Beaton's arm.
