THE TRAINMEN TAKE THEIR TURN.
Engineers' withdrawal temporarily from the Union Pacific Wage Conference.

OMAHA, March 20.—The conference between Arbitrator Clark and the engineers at the Union Pacific wage conference hearing was interrupted this morning by a disagreement between the men and the officials of the road on certain points, and the representatives of the engineers asked the privilege of withdrawing temporarily. Mr. Clark agreed and summoned the trainmen to present their case before him. The engineers at once went into an executive session of their own for the purpose of reaching an agreement on the points where they are in conflict with Arbitrator Clark and his assistants. The main difference this morning was the same as that which developed yesterday afternoon, to wit, the cost of the trip. The engineers will make one further effort to "get together" with the officials, and if that fails they will await the coming of Judge Caldwell.

The telegraphers continued their conference by sending him a telegram from Kory today without having reached any conclusion when the noon recess was taken.

NEAL DOW'S BIRTHDAY

British Temperance Societies Unite in a Celebration at Exeter Hall.

PATRIARCH OF PROHIBITION

The Great American Reformer Ninety Years Old—His Picture Displayed in All Temperance Resorts Throughout England—An Address Adopted.

LONDON, March 20.—England, in common with all the civilized world, celebrated today the 90th birthday of General Neal Dow, the great American temperance advocate.

At Exeter hall, this city, there was an immense meeting in honor of the veteran temperance advocate. The United Kingdom alliance and the British Woman's Temperance union of England enthusiastically adopted the suggestion made by the World's and National Woman's Christian Temperance union and the picture of General Dow as he appeared in 1831, when he was mayor of Portland, Me., when the prohibitory law was adopted in that state, and another picture representing him as he now appears were to be seen displayed in all temperance resorts throughout England today.

At the Exeter hall meeting Lady Henry Somerset presided and Miss Frances E. Willard, Mrs. Alfred Lawson, Rev. Hugh Price Hughes, Mrs. Ormiston-Chantres and others signed a cable message to be read at the celebration which took place today at the city hall, Portland, Me.

The following address to the great American temperance advocate was adopted:

"We are profoundly grateful for the character that illustrated this spotless purity of life, for a career devoted to the emancipation of the slave, the cause of total abstinence, and the enfranchisement of women and for the courage that dared to be in the right with two or three and held steadfastly on its way, to the end of the journey."

"We pray that your benedict years be rounded to a hundred, and that you may try and live to see the day when the liquor traffic under the ban of the law and make home protection the waterwork of her politics."

"We feel sure that a birthday was never so universally observed without distinction of nation, sect or party, and we argue from this indication of the cosmopolitan character of temperance reform, its universal conquest when the race on our globe shall be governed."

During the course of the meeting a letter from General Dow to Miss Frances E. Willard, dated Portland, Me., Jan. 3, 1884, was read. In this letter the general says there is no tendency in the state of Maine to repeal the prohibitory law and he adds: "I think that a successful attempt will be made in the legislature this winter to pass a resolution submitting a proposal to admit women to the franchise on equal terms with men."

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.
Blair's Seigniorage Bill Passed by the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The proceedings in the senate Tuesday were of an extremely uninteresting character, with the exception of the presentation of a few petitions and the introduction of some unimportant bills. The senate took up the consideration of the seigniorage bill, the hour of 2 o'clock arrived in favor of, and Mr. Dolph spoke in opposition to it, holding that its passage would destroy the existing equality between gold and silver, and the two new Senators McLaurin (Iowa) and Blanchard (La.), received their committee appointments.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The test vote, which was to be taken Wednesday on the seigniorage bill on Mr. Allison's motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed the third reading, had the effect of attracting a large audience to the gallery. The senate early took up the consideration of the bill and Mr. Teller (Colo.) and Mr. George (Miss.) spoke in favor of its passage, the former criticizing severely some statements made by Senator Sherman in his speech against the bill.

Before Mr. George had concluded his remarks, the hour of 2 o'clock arrived and Mr. Harris insisted upon the vote being then taken on Mr. Allison's motion, with the result it was defeated by 28 to 45.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The last day of the senate on Blair's seigniorage bill attracted a large crowd and the galleries were well filled. The first part of the day was taken up with the transaction of some routine business.

At 2 o'clock Senator Harris asked that the bill be put on its final passage in accordance with the agreement arrived at several days ago.

The yeas and nays being demanded the bill was passed by a vote of 44 to 31. The senate then took up and passed the bill to amend an act authorizing the construction of a high wagon bridge over the Missouri river at Sioux City.

The amendment extends the time for the construction of the bridge until March 2, 1895.

A charter was also granted the Iowa and Nebraska Pontoon Bridge company, authorizing it to build a bridge across the Missouri river near Sioux City, Ia., and then, after an executive session of 10 minutes, the doors were reopened and the senate took from the calendar and passed bills to extend the time for completing a bridge across the Missouri river between Kansas City and the town of Sibley, Mo., and granting right of way to the Duluth and Manitoba Railroad company across the Fort Pembina reservation in North Dakota.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Friday the house resumed consideration of a sundry civil bill. Mr. Broderick of Kansas offered an amendment setting aside $75,000 of the appropriation to strengthen and improve the river banks of Atchison and other points on the Missouri river.
