QUORUM RULE ADOPTED

House by a Vote of 212 to 47 Decides to Count Members Present.

THE ELEVENTH CENSUS.

Time for the Completion of the Work Extended Until March 4 Next—Presidential Nominations—To Continue Small Ports.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—There was a very large attendance on both sides and in the galleries when the house met today in anticipation of the fight over the new quorum counting rule. Catchings, from the committee on rules, secured recognition before the journal was read and after withdrawing the rule reported last Thursday presented the report agreed upon just before the house convened, as follows:

"Upon every roll call and before the beginning thereof the speaker shall name the members, one from each side of the pending question if practicable, who shall take their places at the clerk's desk to tell the names of at least enough members who are in the hall of the house during the roll call who do not respond when called to record their votes as a quorum. If a quorum does not respond on the roll call then the names of those so noted as present shall be reported to the speaker who shall call the names of those who are in the hall of the house during the roll call who do not respond when called to record their votes as a quorum. If a quorum does not respond on the roll call then the names of those so noted as present shall be reported to the speaker who shall call the names of those who are in the hall of the house during the roll call who do not respond when called to record their votes as a quorum.
