HARRINGTON & TOBIN, SOLE AGTS, NORTH PLATTE, NEB.

Town and County News.

—B. I. Hinman is having a new barn built upon his property upon West Fourth street.

—Patterson & Alexander this week received some repairs for their grader which it needed.

—Wednesday justice P. H. Sullivan married Geo. T. Felty to Mrs. Nellie Davis, both of the Third ward.

—FOR RENT, for cash, a well improved farm under irrigation, apply at this office.

—It is the general opinion of the oldest inhabitant that this spring the wild geese are more plentiful than ever before.

—The South Side Canal Co. has sold its irrigation bonds to E. M. F. Leflang, who thus makes another good investment in Lincoln county.

—The Peckham canal company's appraisers for the right of way for their ditch were before Judge Ray with the report of their awards on Tuesday of this week.

—Remember in order to get pure, clean and healthy spring water, ice, contract with HARRY LAMPLOGG.

—Tuesday evening a number of the friends of Wm. Smallwood and John H. Day presented the former with a bicycle, and the latter with a breech-loading shotgun.

—D. W. Baker and W. E. Parks will have to look to their laurels as mighty nincompoes, for W. E. Branch and H. C. Nesbitt went out Tuesday and made a record of twenty-four wild geese.

—The Boston Store has received its stock of spring goods, and the establishment is full from one end to the other with choice goods for the coming season. The Boston, notwithstanding the depression in times, is doing a rattling good business, and the only way to account for this is that the goods and prices offered prove satisfactory to the public. J. Pizer is a rustler for trade.

—Pay up—All parties indebted to Miss Kate Wood will please settle with Mrs. Wood at store, corner of Spruce and Fifth Sts.

—Sam Buckner, a jovial pill venter at Wallace, may well claim the belt as the champion pedestrian in these parts. One day this week he made a bet of ten dollars with a fellow-townman that he would cover the distance between Wallace and North Platte within seven hours. At half past six o'clock he came walking into town, as fresh as a daisy, with a good half hour to spare, having started at twelve o'clock noon. Interested parties followed him with a team to see that he kept on his feet.

—Inquiries are being made as to when the dramatic entertainment for the benefit of the immigration association is to be given.

—A North Platte citizen has made up his mind to make a legal fight if as high a valuation is again placed upon his property as in former years.

—Bridge builders at the trans-Missouri river bridges report that the travel into Nebraska this spring almost equals the exodus from the state last fall. Let the good work continue.

—Bicycling in North Platte promises to take a greater range the coming season than ever before—those who have never ridden before, and those who have always ridden now ride the more.

—Dogs have now been declared to be personal property in Nebraska and the person who willfully kills one is liable to have trouble. Our legislative report shows the penalty for so doing.

—A number of the local members of the A. O. U. W. who were at first pleased with the idea of not holding a state session of the grand body last fall, are now outspoken in the belief that such meeting should be held, and a thorough investigation of affairs made.

JOLLY NELLIE McHENRY.

—A Night at the Circus" with jolly Nellie McHenry whom everybody knows and admires as Electra, the dashing circus rider, and Madeline Milan, a dainty little Quakeress, twin sisters, will be the attraction at the opera house next Wednesday evening, March 27th. New music, new specialties and an all round clever company is promised. For Miss McHenry no recommendation is needed; all know her as the brightest, cleverest, jolliest, and most popular of the American public. The novelty of "A Night at the Circus" is the last act which represents the dressing tent of the Great Imperial Circus with a view of the ring and the audience at the back. In this act Miss McHenry appears as the Queen of the Arena in full circus rider's costume on the back of a beautiful white horse.

Married Marriage.

John McCallister and William Plumer are on the sick list this week. Drs. McKee and Donaldson, of North Platte, were called to attend them last Monday.
 T. Hanrahan and daughter visited the Island Monday evening. Many are making preparations already to go farming.
 G. Snyder and W. Lewis attended a meeting in Gothenburg last Saturday and of course they had a splendid time. It was an irrigation meeting.
 At the last meeting of the literary society the following question was debated: "Resolved, that women should have the right of suffrage." It was decided "against the ladies," that is, the decision was for the affirmative, and they are to vote, and to become sheriffs, soldiers, etc., as soon as possible. Nearly all of the speakers who were to have been on the affirmative side of the question were conspicuous for their absence, but the few of them who were in attendance seemed to have no trouble in winning the debate, though the negative speakers were all present. For the first time since literary commenced this season, G. C. Clark wasn't on the programme, consequently the programme "was limited."
