MINOR MENTION.

Chas. E. Barber has been seriously indisposed for a week past. The Ladies of the G. A. R. will give an ice cream social, Saturday evening, May 11th. The Baptist people will hold a social on the parsonage lawn next Thursday evening.

One farmer on the ditch will raise twenty acres of celery this season. It is said to be an excellent paying crop. M. C. Keith shipped a car of fine road horses to Omaha Saturday. He is raising a good class of horses and receiving a very fair price for them.

New joists and a new floor will be laid in the hallway at the Court-house, lumber for the same now being on the ground. A. L. Davis has been figuring on a bill of hardware to be used in the construction of a commodious school house at Julesburg.

IF CLINTON, THE JEWELER. To use a venerable and well-worn "chestnut," does not "remove the dilapidated linen from off the shrubbery," when it comes to stock and prices of goods in his line. He also gives a drink and a chip to each of his patrons who correctly interprets this (not) prize rebus, for which he carries the key. Call and examine his stock, whether you wish to purchase or not, as it is a pleasure for him to show his goods. CLINTON, THE JEWELER.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Jno. Bratt went to Omaha yesterday morning. H. S. Staff, the dancing master, left Saturday for Chicago. Miss Hosford and mother visited at Vroman several days last week.

RAILWAY RESUME.

Bob Fulton, now stationed at Rawlins, has been in town for several days. Sam G. Smith made his last trip as fireman Sunday and will now devote his time to his confectionary store.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

There was a large audience present at the council chamber last evening, and the meeting held was a protracted one. The presence of the auditors was due principally to a desire to learn who the appointees of the new mayor would be.

When Buying Minneapolis FLOUR Why not get the BEST? Washburn's Superlative. Has no superior—no equal. It is the result of studied improvement in milling machinery—the product of the hard, excellent wheat of the north. If you are not using the Washburn Flour, try it. It is sold by JOHN HERROD, SOLE AGENT.

Latest Styles of WINDOW SHADES AT PEALE'S.

The old log building just west of Dick's drug store is being torn down. This building is one of the old landmarks of the city, and at the time of construction was probably considered an exceptionally good house. For several years past it has been used as a stable.
