BRUNSBUTTEL, June 20 .- At 8:45 a. m. the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, with Emperor William and the princes on board, entered the western water-gate of the Baltic and North sea canal in order to formally open it. The gate was magnificently decorated and the Hohenzellern passed through amid ringing cheers of the military associations, students, delegations and masses of the populace, the bands playing the national anthem, and accompanying the music were the voices of the crowds assembled, who joined heartily in the chorus. His majesty stood on the deck of his yacht and bowed his thanks, with visible emotion, on all sides. At 4 o'clock the Hohenzollern severed the threads stretched across the canal and commenced the passage of the waterway.

HGLTENAU, June 20 .- The Hohenzollern reached the canal lock here at 12:40, being the first vessel to formally pass through the canal, and was greeted with vociferous cheers from the mass of spectators. The appearance of the Hohensollern was the signal for a simultaneous cannonading from the vast fleet of warships in the bay as they fired salutes in honor of his majesty. The Hohenzollern then replied with her guns to the salutes of the foreign warships, and the opening of the Baltic and North sea canal was an accomplished
