

TURKEY IN A TURMOIL

Earthquake Adds Its Terror to the Rioting and Bloodshed.

ATTACK ON THE ARMENIANS

Further Details of the Wholesale Butchery on the Streets of Constantinople. Critical Condition of Affairs—Turkish Troops on Guard.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 3.—To add to the state of excitement prevailing here, a third earthquake shock was experienced yesterday. This, with the rioting and bloodshed, the imprisonment of about 200 Armenians, the killing of about 200 Armenians in cold blood and the presence of troops in arms at all points, is well calculated to excite even the most phlegmatic Turk.

The rioting and blood letting, which began on Monday, was renewed on Tuesday evening in spite of all the precautions taken by the authorities of this much-disturbed city. On Tuesday the rioting was the work of Mahomedan theological students, who chased and beat with bludgeons every Armenian they met. During Tuesday night a mob of Sottas and Turks attacked the house of a leading Armenian, Kasim Pasha, storming the building and threatening its destruction, and killing several persons who were unable to escape from it in time. This mob also sacked a cafe frequented by Armenians, and 20 of these unfortunate people who were found there were beaten to death with bludgeons. To the disgrace of the authorities, not a single policeman appeared on the scene and no attempt was made to save the lives of the Armenians.

Naturally the Armenians of Constantinople and its vicinity are in a panic-stricken, and put no faith in the assurances of protection from further violence at the hands of the Turkish mobs. Many of them sought refuge in the churches, where they were earnestly addressed by their clergy, who enjoined them to be calm and to give the Turks no further pretexts for attacking them. The Armenian churches are now watched by the police, but the greatest uneasiness prevails, and the most of the other religious denominations express their fear that the fanaticism of the Turks may extend in other directions. The Armenians have the sympathy of the foreigners here, but the fact that they are armed, in spite of their pacific announcements, is condemned by their best friends, and lends color to the statements of the Turkish officials, who claim that the Armenian agitators organized a revolt against the sultan's authority, and that the attempt to present a petition to the grand vizier on Monday last, which led to the first rioting and bloodshed, was nothing more than a pretext which was to serve as the signal for an Armenian outbreak. That the Armenians contemplated some such attempt to call attention to their grievances has been known for a long time past.

The authorities have stationed troops and police at every point, and it is asserted this morning that there is no danger of any further disturbances. This, however, is not generally believed.

Armenian Agitators Blamed. LONDON, Oct. 3.—The critical condition of affairs at Constantinople is the sensation of the day here, and all the dispatches from that city are read with the greatest eagerness. Many important messages are known to have been received at the British foreign office from Sir Philip Currie, a British ambassador at Constantinople, and the feeling here is not entirely favorable to the Armenians. The appointment of Kiamie Pasha as grand vizier, recently announced, is regarded at the foreign office as a happy circumstance at the present juncture of affairs. He has the reputation of being one of the most broad minded and enlightened statesmen of the Ottoman empire, and he is looked upon as being the right man in the right place. In spite of the assurances to the contrary of the Armenian committee of this city, the belief prevails in official circles here that the rioting at Constantinople was really a deliberately planned uprising brought by the Armenian agitators, who are desirous of forcing the hands of the powers in order to bring about direct interference upon the part of Great Britain, France and Russia in the administration of Armenia.

DOCTRINE IN DISPUTE.

Report of the Committee on Revision Taken Up by Episcopalians.

FAVOR A CHANGE OF NAME

American Church Used as the Title by the House of Deputies—Reception of Canadian Bishops—Catholic Eucharistic Convention at Washington.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 3.—The temper of the house of deputies of the Episcopal convention toward the proposition to change the name of the church was incidentally shown by its action this morning on the invitation to the house of deputies to meet with the house of bishops. The resolution contained the words, The American Church. A Virginia delegate moved to amend the substitution of the words "Protestant Episcopal church of the United States," which is the legal title. This amendment was voted down by 89 yeas to 222 nays.

The morning prayers were conducted by Bishop Kendrick of New Mexico, and Rev. Dr. Powers of Pennsylvania, after which the house settled down to business. Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix, the president, read a long list of standing committees.

The diocese of California presented a petition for the division of the diocese. Similar memorials were presented from Maryland, Kentucky and northern Michigan. A resolution to extend fraternal greetings to the northern Minnesota conference now in this city was at first tabled, but afterwards taken from the table and passed. The report of the commission on constitutional revision was then taken up. Dean E. A. Hoffman of New York, taking the floor in its defense. After some debate, in which ex-Senator Edmunds of Vermont was a participant, the report was referred to the committee of the whole by the close vote of 153 to 190.

James Packard was called to the chairmanship in committee of the whole, and Dean Hoffman began the reading of the declaration preceding the constitution.

Breakers at the Start. Trouble was met immediately in the second paragraph, which has been changed by the commission so as to read that "the bishops, clergy and laity of the Protestant Episcopal church of America in general convention assembled make the following declaration."

The original paragraph read that the church in the dioceses within the United States represented by bishops, clergy and laity, etc. Rev. Dr. Stone of Chicago opposed the whole declaration and moved to table it. This the chair ruled out of order. The house was in the midst of a discussion on rules when the hour set for the reception of the Canadian bishops arrived. The American bishops first filed up the broad aisle, while the house arose. Professor Dix invited Bishop Cox to the chair, and then with due formality the visiting bishops were escorted to the chancel by a committee.

SALVADOR IN A FEVER.

Enemies' Friends Have Faith in Their Leader's Return.

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—The steamer

Celia has arrived from Salvadoran ports. Captain Johnson reports that the little republic, the control of which is so ardently desired by Antonio Eszta, is in a state of feverish unrest. Rumors have been thick at all the ports at which the Celia stopped of the coming of Eszta to capture Salvador. A warm reception awaits him.

"They are up in arms there," said Captain Johnson. "At Acajutla, La Libertad and La Union the beach is full of soldiers and at the new ports there were 50 guards, all waiting for Eszta. They told me that the friends of Eszta were suffering for his acts. No less than half a dozen very wealthy men were in the chain gang."

According to Captain Johnson, Bustamante, Eszta's aide, was shot and there was no boiling oil poured on him. It is said that Eszta has many friends in Salvador, but that they are afraid to open their mouths that they be imprisoned. These men have firm faith in their leader's return. They think he can get the assistance of Diaz of Mexico, and with this backing Barrios of Guatemala will not dare oppose him, so that he will be able to march through Barrios' country and get into northern Salvador.
