R. L. GRAYES, Chief.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. is an independent organization, answerable to no other order; its membership being limited to mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines of the late rebellion; an exclusive soldiers' organization.

It is not true that the local Circle assumed the name of the local Post. They voted to take the name of that patriot statesman, Stephen A. Douglas, and everyone with a modicum of brains will concede their right to do so. What a spectacle! A church member, a class-leader, commander of a Grand Army Post who slurs the nearest relatives of his comrades; worse, the widows and orphans of dead comrades, whom he obligated himself to aid and assist.

Lastly, we want the public to understand that we are not auxiliary to the G. A. R. and do not desire to be, as Past Dept. President Mrs. Hunter says: "It would indeed be a sad state of affairs to be auxiliary to one's own."

Mrs. ROXANNA KLEIN, President, S. A. Douglas Circle No. 20, L. of G. A. R. MARY H. CLARK, Secretary.

Massachusetts republicans, in state convention, uttered a practical formulation of the Monroe doctrine in these words: "We believe that this hemisphere is no longer a subject for European colonization, or aggressive and oppressive occupation; that the Monroe doctrine is a true guide for American statesmanship, and should be maintained toward small nations without blustering toward great nations without cringing, but always deliberately, temperately, resolutely." Small nations without blustering, great nations without cringing. A safe and gentlemanly principle toward all the world.

Rev. Dr. Talmage has had a spectacular career, a path lit with burning churches, diversified with the experiences of the rostrum and worldwide travel, and finally watered with the tears of old parishioners who part from him probably forever. Now he goes to Washington to sustain a superannuated, and gradually come to full sway in his pulpit. A preacher who combines the instincts of the actor with the gifts of the preacher will become a criticized man. Happy he if his versatility do not make as many critics as admirers. Dr. Talmage has the good wishes of many friends as he essays this new field in an eventful and useful career.—Inter Ocean.

Alarmed by the growing frequency and boldness of train robberies, the officials of the Chicago & Northwestern railway have determined to take away from temptation of the Jesse James species of highwaymen one of the most luring prizes carried out over the iron rails through the west. They have abandoned and banished the monthly pay car. From this time henceforth this old-time institution will be a thing only of memory to the thousands of Northwestern employes who have awaited its coming every thirty days all along the lines between Chicago and Omaha, Sioux City or St. Paul. Beginning with the current month the Northwestern company pays its rolls by checks on Chicago banks instead of in currency and gold as heretofore. This change marks the passing of the pay car, and is a staggering blow to the profession of train robbery.

Two men went out to look for work, one fine September day; one held a corner down, in town, and talked the hours away. He talked with sages like himself about the country's woes, and with a sort of pride he viewed his old and ragged clothes. He doubtless thought that work would come, and beg on beaded knees, that he would go and take a job at herding bumble bees. For days and weeks he stood around, and talked of woes and wrong, and squinted round to look for work, which did not come along. When winter blizzards came along and froze the beard of man, he had no woodpile in the shed, no coal oil in the can; he'd no tobacco in his box, or money in the bank; the county had to give him stuff to fill his aching tank. The other man who hunted work went hunting with a will; he said: "I'll jump at any job, and try and fill the bill; I'll quarry rock or chop down trees, like other tolling gents; if I can't make a V a day, I'll work for fifty cents. When winter came he sat at ease before his blazing hearth; he owned a pleasant home, although he didn't own the earth.—Walt Mason.

Dr. A. P. Sawyer—Sir: After suffering four years with female weakness I was persuaded by a friend to try your Pastilles, and after using them for one year, I can say I am entirely well. I can not recommend them too highly. Mrs. M. S. Brock, Brecon, Bethel Branch Co., Mich. For sale by F. H. Longley.

NICHOLS AND HERSHEY NEWS.

R. W. Calhoun is loading baled hay at this place for the parties who put up the hay on land belonging to the old ditch company.

The east-bound emigrant travel seems to be daily on the increase.

We have been informed that work on the Farmers & Merchants' ditch will soon be resumed.

Levi Wolf was entertaining friends from a section southeast of here this week.

It is said that Tyler Hollingsworth, a section hand at Nichols, will move to Missouri this fall with his family.

The new school house at Nichols, including outbuildings, fences, ground and fixtures complete, and painting, will cost about $2,000. The lumber, work and in fact everything pertaining to the building is first-class in every particular. It is said to be the finest school house between Omaha and Cheyenne. It is admired by everybody who sees it, and is a fitting monument to the enterprise and intelligence of the citizens of the district. They may well feel proud of their school building.

Dr. Eves, of the county seat, was up in this section the early part of the week.

Parties from Wallace are moving their lively stable outfit from that place to Hershey.

Al and Ed Davis and families, of North Platte, accompanied by their mother from Iowa, were taking in the sights along the canals the early part of the week.

"Dad" Wolfe is erecting a dandy cave in which to keep his potatoes and other vegetables.

A. B. Goodwin and family are now residents of the county capital.

Oscar Wright will soon be done manufacturing sorghum for this season.

The Tift boys are still loading hay at this station.

J. F. Hioman of the land office at North Platte was up in this locality on business a short time since.

Hershey is taking a big boom at the present time. Several new buildings are under construction with a prospect for more to follow in the near future.

Several pops in this locality have openly stated that they would support Miss Hosford for county superintendent at the coming election.

The Wars boys threshed for J. O. Cole yesterday with their stamper.

N. B. Spurrier is treating his residence to a coat of new paint which adds much to its appearance.

We understand that the old canal will soon be repaired from head to foot.

A couple of emigrant wagons accompanied by a herd of horses containing about 100 head, passed east a few days ago.

Several parties from Frontier county were up in this locality after potatoes the first of the week.

E. B. Warner and W. C. Elder of the county seat passed down the grade Wednesday evening.

An old time friend formerly of this place but later from the west is visiting the Sullivans.

M. M. Spicer of North Platte will complete the painting of the new school house this week or nearly so.

E. F. Seeberger of the hub and another gentleman passed up the line Wednesday evening.

As the seats for the new school building at this place will not arrive in time to be put in this week, W. J. Crusen will not preach here next Sunday. PAT.

NEBRASKA NOTES.

Callaway has a new paper called the Custer County Independent.

Ravens people propose to use a portion of the Loup river for irrigating purposes.

The crop in Cedar county was great and the town of Laurel finds it necessary to build another elevator.

Governor Holcomb, Senator Allen and W. A. McKeighan are billed to make the welkin ring at Kearney on the 19th.

The state convention of the Young Men's Christian association of Nebraska will be held in Omaha November 8 to 11.

The Valentine Republican received a head of cabbage the other day that weighed twenty-two pounds. It was grown in Nebraska.

J. G. Schaupt of Valley county raised seventy-eight bushels of tomatoes from two rows about four rods long. No wonder people are glad to stay in Nebraska.

George Postus of Desbler was hit in the face with a beer glass and then fined $12.50 for trying to whip the one who threw it at him. This world is nothing if not unkind.

The Nance county fair was "enlivened" by the presence of a petrified man from South Dakota. The quarry he was carved from is one of magnesia limestone that cuts easy when fresh, but hardens under exposure.

The swine plague, says the Genoa Populist, has again opened up business in Nance county. Several hundred head of hogs have already died in the central and western part of the county and the scourge is evidently moving eastward.

INSURGENTS LED INTO A TRAP.

Surprised by Spaniards While Burying Their Dead.

HAVANA, Oct. 7.—Official advices received here from Santiago de Cuba say that Major Tejada of the guerrilla force, has had an engagement at Palma Soriano with a band of insurgents commanded by Castiella. The latter are reported to have left three killed on the field. After the skirmish Major Tejada laid an ambush for the insurgents, who were expected to return for the purpose of burying their dead. They did so and were surprised by the troops, who killed two more of them and captured one prisoner. The prisoner admitted that the insurgents retired with 12 wounded.

A column of troops, commanded by General Valdes, while scouting in the neighborhood of Palma, Raquila and Minas, province of Santa Clara, has had skirmishes with the insurgents under the command of Zayas, Suarez and Nunez. The insurgents are said to have left five killed behind them and to have retired with many wounded. The troops lost two killed.

The insurgents have burned the railroad bridge at Chiva, Santiago de Cuba.

THE FREE SILVER DEMOCRATS OF MERRICK COUNTY NOMINATED CANDIDATES FOR SHERIFF AND CORONER AND NOW ARE WAITING TO HEAR FROM THE POPS.

The best fields in Wayne county are yielding from fourteen to twenty tons per acre, the lowest netting the farmers about $36 per acre.

The ladies of Hartington were taken in by the soap fakirs and are now patiently waiting for the chinaware that was to have been delivered the next day.

F. J. Hale, of Battle Creek started into the bee business last spring with fifteen stands of bees. He now has forty-five stands, an increase of thirty stands, and has taken over 1,500 pounds of very fine honey from them, which he values, with the increase of bees, at $400. Mr. Hale feels very proud over the success he has had with his bees this season.

Charles Minney, of Ohioa, is much worried about the whereabouts of his son, Arthur, who recently left home. The old gentleman says he has no desire to compel the boy to stay with him, but is only anxious to know if he has procured employment that would furnish him with food and clothing and supply his every-day needs during the winter months.

The three-year-old son of William Aldrice of Gothenburg tried to climb a tree, but lost his grip and in the fall suffered a broken arm and dislocated elbow.

The head man of the Belden News, who blew his money all for booze and bought his groceries on trust has quit the country in disgust, and his paper is no more.

The people of Blair had some sympathy for the misfortunes of a man about town, named Boon Demora, until he sold a customer a keg of home-made pickles which were found to contain seed cucumbers, melon rinds, gourd seed and other things not calculated to improve the quality, but put in to increase the quantity. Such dishonest actions soon dry the tears of sympathy.

LOOKED FOR.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—It is expected that the defense in the Durrant case will take up the matter of handwriting on the wrapper in which Blanche Lamont's rings were sent to Mrs. Noble as soon as the witnesses from Cooper Medical college are disposed of. The examination of the remaining 16 students will probably consume this morning's session of court, and then the evidence calculated to cast suspicion upon Dr. Gibson will most likely be introduced by the defense. A subpoena was issued yesterday for Dr. Gibson's appearance in court today, but up to a late hour last night he had not been served. He was expected to be on hand when he is wanted this afternoon. A most sensational phase of the trial is looked for when Dr. Gibson faces Durrant's lawyers in court.

SIX CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH.

TWEED, Ont., Oct. 10.—An accident attended with terrible results occurred at Smeier, a station on the Canadian Pacific, 30 miles north of this town. A house occupied by Thomas Lindsay, his wife and 11 children, was destroyed and six of the children burned to death. Lindsay himself was badly burned and was almost suffocated by smoke in attempting to save the children.
