A Fine Ranch.
From a Nevada paper we clip the following account of the ranch of James Howard, a former resident of this city:

One of the most comfortable, most profitable and most finely located ranches in this part of Nevada is the one owned and managed by James Howard in Washoe Valley.
He owns 440 acres of land between Ross Lewers' place and Billy Thompson's ranch, extending from the top of the western mountains to the shores of Washoe Lake on the east. Almost the entire ranch is under cultivation, grain and fruit growing in wonderful profusion and of the finest quality.

Just at present the orchard is a sight to behold. The branches of the trees are so heavily laden that in many places they have broken from the weight. The fruit is of a superior quality and flavor, and as Mr. Howard personally superintends the packing and shipping there is no poor fruit sent out.

The Howard home is a model one and visitors find a cordial welcome from Mr. and Mrs. Howard and their two children, Mamie and Henry. At this season the entire household is engaged in preparing for the threshers.

Dr. Sawyer—Dear Sir: I can say with pleasure that I have been using your medicine, and will recommend it to all suffering ladies. Mrs. W. W.
Weatherhead, Augusta, Ga. Sold by F. H. Longley.

MILLER MATTERS.
Fine harvest weather. Everybody busy and consequently happy.

Mrs. Archie Adamson visited with her daughter, Mrs. Jessie Stoddard, on the ditch lately.

Davie Adamson invited his young friends to help him celebrate his seventeenth birthday on Monday and all enjoyed a very pleasant evening and departed wishing their young host many happy returns.

Miss Kate McGlone, who is teaching the Mills school this term, is having a very pleasant school with twenty scholars in attendance. She boards with Mrs. H. Facka.

Sorry to have to report any sickness in our precinct, but we have heard that the children of Mr. and Mrs. J. Baggatt are very sick with whooping cough. Mrs. T. Rawley is also in poor health. Dr. Donaldson is in attendance.

Some of our farmers are well pleased to find that they have more corn and potatoes than they expected to have, but others are still looking for fairer fields, and are intending to move away soon to take farms on the Birdwood. Charles Beach and family expect to farm over there next year.

A very pleasant party took place last Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Weinburg.
High-five and dancing were the events of the evening. Refreshments were served about midnight, and their excellent quality was attested by the way in which they disappeared. The host and hostess won high praises from their friends for the manner in which they entertained, as no effort was their part was spared to insure a good time to all. The music was supplied by the Ballara Brothers, and was very good.

A. Picard and son Eugene were guests at Pleasant View on Monday.

NEBRASKA NOTES.
Buffalo county's clerk has drawn warrants on the general fund to the full legal limit.

Seven school children of Greeley are suffering the tedious horrors of a run of typhoid fever.

James Morrison of Saunders county received $40 an acre for his farm.
Land is land in Nebraska.

Ex-Senator Hale of Battle Creek took a squash from his garden the other day that weighed an even 100 pounds.

Joseph Bender of Strang has a cork leg, and he fell the other day and broke his only sure enough one near the hip.

After their late warm experience with fire, the people of Dodge think it would be good policy to "blow" themselves for a chemical engine.

Hon. John Wilson, the Kearney weather prophet, predicts a long, cold winter, with heavy snows, lasting from December to April.

B. N. Adams, the gentleman who lost an arm and several fingers of his other hand in a railroad accident last spring, squared accounts with the company by accepting the payment of all his expenses since he was hurt and $1,600 in sordid gold.

Twenty-six carloads of cattle from South Dakota were landed at the feeding yards of the Standard Cattle company at Ames. It is stated that the same will this year feed about 12,000 head of cattle.
Beef pulp, of course will to a great extent constitute the feeding material.

Mrs. S. W. Houston of Geering retired the other night in seeming good health, and in a few minutes remarked to her husband that she feared she was going to faint.
Those were her last words, as she quietly sank into unconsciousness and passed away in a few minutes.
She leaves a husband and five small children.

In its Last Throes.

The pop party, like the grange, its predecessor, has served its brief existence and is now in its death throes. In a year hence it will be numbered among the dead items that strew the pages of political history. While some of the principles it advocated were commendable, yet it accomplished nothing.
Its leaders shouted reform and practiced the reverse; they deluded their followers to further own ends, they promised relief from what they termed evils and made the evils greater as soon as the opportunity presented. As a consequence the party is rapidly disintegrating and falling to pieces. The rank and file are leaving and soon there will only remain a few leaders without a party, a lot of demagogues without a following. And such will be the end of all political movements manipulated by unprincipled men.

The supreme court of Nebraska is now the storm centre of the country.
The democrats all over the land have their eyes focussed upon this learned bench and regard it as its last chance for finding out where they are at. They think the court is going to decide who are the real democrats and entitled to the name and assets of the late party, the straight cuckoos or the free coinage softies.
But the court may shy and sidetrack the whole business on the plea of jurisdiction. It is a pretty big question for three lone justices to tackle. All the courts in the country should sit en banc on the issue if it is possible to get them together.
—Journal.

Dr. A. P. Sawyer—Dear Sir: I have been suffering with sick headache for a long time. I used
