BLAINE THE PROPHET.

The present and recent-past industrial situation makes these words from a speech of James G. Blaine's delivered in the campaign of 1888, found like those of a prophet. They make mighty interest- arrest has been issued from the United in' readin' just now: "I love my country and my country-men. I am an American and am. I enjoy the general prosperity of my country, and know that the workingmen of this land are the best paid, the best fed and the best clothed of any laborers on the face of the earth. Many of them have homes of their own. They morning expecting to receive treatment are surrounded by all the comforts from Schlatter's hands. and many of the luxuries of life. I shudder, however, at the thought that the time must come when all this will be changed. When the general prosperity of the country will be destroyed. When the great body of workingmen in this land who are now so prosperous, will hear their wives and children cry for bread; that the day must come when the great factories and manufactories of the land will shut down, and where there is now life and activity, there will be the silence of the tomb. And the reason why this must be is this:

"The great southern wing of the democratic party is determined to establish the doctrine of free trade ers say it is an even chance whether in this land. They will be assisted by their northern allies. The fight is now on. There is a great body gagement, and a leading German bankof visionary but educated men who ing are employed day by day writing free trade essays and arguments in favor of that doctrine, which find their way into every newspaper in the land.

"The great body of our people have never experienced themselves the suffering which always results when the protective principles are laid aside. Poisoned and excited by the wild statements of these writers and the demagogic appeals of democratic speakers. the result lows: "Our Work," "Its Motive," will be that in the very near future these forces which are now working will be strong enough to defeat at the polls, the party advocating Conn. the doctrine of protection. It must inevitably follow that uncertainty will ensue. The business men of the county, fearing the destruction of the principle of protection, will have abandoned their worn out horses, decline to engage in business, consequently mills will shut down and the workingmen will be thrown out of employment. The people will then see as we have never seen before-that they cannot be prosperciple is threatened. In the midst tellane, who recently married Miss of their suffering they will learn that the only way they can be prosperous and happy is to vote for the party that has built up the industries by which they have gained a livlihood; because they will then see clearly that when the manufactory is shut down there is no demand for the only thing which they have to sell, and that is their la-

THE proposition of a writer in Current Literature to dig a hole two or three miles deep and draw out of it hot water for the heating of our houses and the turning of the wheels of industry does not meet expected. There is a fear now that the exhaustion of the underground gas reservoirs is likely to cause earthquakes and other annoying disturbances. If we draw out hot water until the planet is hollow, something worse than a "quake" is likely to take place. The plan is fascinating, but it will not be put into effect right away .- Journal. Another Effort to List Mining Stocks. CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—The mining stock question will/in all probability be again brought up at the next session of the governing committee of the Stock exchange. In the event of the committee persisting in its refusal to list mining stock, another effort will be made to secure a change in the bylaws, which will permit members to do business on a mining board. The friends of the movement are decidedly in earnest, and as sentiment appears to be about equally divided, a lively fight is anticipated.

SITUATION AT CONSTANTINOPLE. Representatives of the Powers Awaiting

Sir Philip Currie's Return. CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 14.—There is very little change in the situation here today. The Italian fleet is understood to be on its way to Salonica bay to join the British fleet, of about 20 warships, already there; the French fleet is expected there shortly, and the representatives of the powers, as a result of communi-cations exchanged with their govern-ments, have had another informal meeting at the French embassy. When the three squadrons have united and Sir Philip Currie, the British ambassador, returns some decided step upon the part of the powers may be anticipated.

HINBICHSEN TO HESING.

Effort to Harmonize the Illinois Faction

Proves a Failure. SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 14.-An interestspondence has sprung up since the last election between Pestmaster Washington Hesing of Chicago, and the Hon. William H. Hinrichsen, secretary of state, and chairman of the Democratic state central committee. It was begun by Mr. Hesing, who, in an effort to harmonize the factions of the Democratic party of Illinois, invited Mr. Hinrichsen to abandon the socalled "16 to 1 heresy" and bring his crowd back into the fold of orthodox democracy and "sound money."

Mr. Hinrichsen did not take kindly to the insinuation that the "16 to 1" doctrine was a heresy. He also took exceptions to several other passages in Mr. Hesing's letter, and said some things which might be considered harsh in reply, as follows:

"I fully agree with you that the 'Democratic party is not dead,' and that the 'Democratic party has some chance of winning if the old principles of the party are adhered to,' but you and I evidently look at the situation from different points of view. It is to be expected that you, a servant, or as a part of the national administration, will be expected to uphold the policy of President Cleveland, but that you can be expected to pass on what constitutes real Democratic principles is absurb. Your connection with the Democratic party has been intermittent and spasmodic, and while I can freely give you credit for having been, as a rule, with the party when it has been successful, yet this does not prove your fidelity to party principles. I was born a Democrat and have been actively connected with the organization for 25 years. I have held office hrough popular suffrage of the people and have never scratched a Democratic ticket. I have learned the principles of Democracy in a Democratic school, and cannot be expected to follow blindly the directions of a few men when I know they propose taking us away from true Democracy and are acting contrary to
