THE GASLIN IRRIGATION DISTRICT.

The proposed irrigating canal which heads in Mylander precinct and runs through to the east line of Peckham precinct, a distance of over thirty miles, is now in a fair way to be completed. It will be remembered that this big enterprise which was started last spring was temporarily abandoned for lack of funds to carry on the work. During the latter part of the summer an irrigation district was formed under the provisions of the Akers' act, but as there has been some doubt as to the constitutionality of that measure, an election for the purpose of voting bonds was not held. The decision of the state supreme court last Tuesday declaring the Akers' law to be constitutional, has removed all difficulties and an election for the purpose of voting $65,000 in bonds for the construction of the ditch will be held some time next month.

McGreer & O'Shey, of Lincoln, who have the contract for constructing the Alfalfa ditch in Keith county, went over the line of the Gaslin ditch last Saturday, and agreed to finish the construction of the ditch and accept bonds in payment therefor. This virtually insures the completion of the ditch in the near future.

The stockholders of the Gaslin ditch are to be congratulated upon the apparent surety of the completion of their great enterprise, which at one time seemed to be in a hopeless and helpless condition.

THE RECEIVERS' ORDERS.

The notice sent out by the Union Pacific receivers regarding the discontinuance of reduced coal rates to employes, is as follows: "The limitations upon the powers of the receivers of the Union Pacific system resulting from the commencement of separate foreclosure proceedings against different lines and divisions, prevent them from continuing reduced rates on coal transported and delivered to the system employes, and all such reduced rates will be discontinued on and after January 1st, 1896."

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore existing under the firm name of Campbell & Sawyer at North Platte, Neb., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

All accounts due the firm are to be paid to J. F. Campbell, and all liabilities should be presented to him for payment.

J. F. CAMPBELL,
U. G. SAWYER.

Dated North Platte Nov. 16, 1895.

SUTHERLAND NEWS.

The change in the U. P. time table is mixing people up in fine shape this week.

Mr. Harshfield, of Birdwood, passed through town on Monday on his way to court.

David Hunter departed on Sunday for the head of the S. & P. Canal in Keith county, where he will oversee the work of enlarging the headgate. The canal has been deepened about eighteen inches this fall and when the headgate is finished should carry nearly double the water it did last year. This is a move in the right direction.

E. F. Seeberper, of North Platte, was on our streets last Friday looking up irrigation interests.

G. B. Thurber has about completed Mr. Hammon's new residence on the Stevens farm south of town.

Geo. Emerson has his crop of watermelons, muskmelons and squash all taken care of and is now threshing out citron seed from the big pile by his barn.

E. E. Brown, of Grinnell, Iowa, is spending the week in our village looking over his business interests and taking an occasional snap shot at the wily wild geese.

O. A. Hostetter's new residence is about completed and will soon be ready for occupancy. Orv has failed so far to tell any one just what day he will commence house keeping, but the boys are laying in a stock of milk pans, washboilers, etc., just the same.

Means & Tully, of Grand Island, who have been fixing up the Paxton

& Hershey headgate here, completed their contract and have now commenced work on the head of the North Platte ditch.

The Western Seed and Irrigation Co. has had all its land on the north side plowed up this fall and have thereby turned loose about a thousand dollars among the bread winners in this section.

C. W. Burklund transacted business in North Platte Tuesday.

M. McLean, of Ogalala, was on our streets Tuesday afternoon looking up corn for his Keith county customers.

Mrs. Wm. Holtry and Mrs. G. B. Thurber have both been on the sick list the past week.

H. E. Stone, represented Sutherland at North Platte Saturday.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are preparing a supper and entertainment for Thanksgiving.

Now that election is over we hear no more discussions in regard to tariff, free silver, county interest, etc., and to get up some excitement a literary society has been organized.

Nels Anderson, of Keith county, transacted business in our village on Monday.

Mr. Parnall, of Madrid, has been looking over our village with an eye to starting a newspaper here. This would certainly help advertise our village but would not be likely to be a very big speculation to the printer.

Elmer Coates made a flying trip to Omaha last week.

S. A. Hultman was a county seat visitor Saturday.

John Donaldson has purchased a lot from G. W. Applegate and moved his house thereon the first of the week.

Mr. VanDoran, of North Platte was in town last week taking orders for clothing for a Chicago firm.

G. W. Applegate took a load of cattle to Omaha last week.

Literary at the school house every Friday evening. Everybody invited.

NICHOLS AND HERSHEY NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin have arrived from Kansas and are now assisting in the care of their son Eugene and son-in-law F. L. Terry.

W. O. Thomson shipped a car load of hogs of his own raising the forepart of this week.

Remember the box sociable at the Nichols school house this evening.

Several cars are being loaded with baled hay at this station at this writing.

Foreman Erickson transacted business at the county hub recently.

Farmers have been blessed with fine weather to harvest their corn so far this season.

It is stated upon good authority that C. S. Trovillo has the finest quality of corn in the valley this season. There are a few fields that are yielding more per acre, but not as sound.

Eugene Goodwin is reported as slowly mending and it is thought that he will soon be up and out again.

Rev. Coslet, of North Platte, met his appointments at the Platte valley school house and at Hershey last Sunday.

Wm. Ware was at the Platte on business yesterday.

Deputy sheriff Keliher transacted legal business in this section recently.

A widow lady and little son camped at this place last Tuesday night, while on their way, by team, to Seward from Banner county.

H. W. Fogel is entertaining a brother. We did not learn from whence he came.

Wm. Mills, from over south, who put up the hay on the Tillford farm this season, is loading it upon the cars at "Spudsville."

While shucking corn a few days ago with a team, Abe Alexander was kicked on the head by one of the horses while attempting to pick up an ear near the animal's hind feet, inflicting an ugly and painful, but not serious, wound. He has about recovered at this writing.

A lot of sports from different parts of the country with a car load of canines—more or less—have been seeking what they could devour in the line of wild game in this country for the past week or so, but have generally met with the "fisherman's luck."

SOMERSET SNAP SHOTS. This locality was visited by a fine rain last week.

Wm. Griffith spent Sunday at home.

D. E. Jolliff went to Maywood with a load of potatoes Monday.
