The City Election.

The municipal election Tuesday resulted in the re-election of D. W. Baker mayor over James Belton by a majority of sixty-five. The latter devoted much time to his canvass and flooded the city with "good government" circulars, but the voters seemed to lack confidence in him.

For city clerk Scott Keith had a walk-away, having a majority of seventy-seven over Owens and 139 over Woodhurst. In the First ward Mr. Keith received 109 votes out of a total of 180, thus showing that the First warders are strong believers in the "favorite son" idea.

John Sorenson had no opposition for city treasurer neither did Paul Meyer for city engineer.

In the First ward Joseph Schatz was elected councilman over Charley Stamp by a majority of twenty-eight.

C. G. Hall defeated L. L. Miltenberger for councilman in the second ward by ten votes.

In the Third ward David Scott was returned to the council, defeating N. Klein by eight votes.

The successful candidates for board of education were Mrs. Etta Bonner and J. F. Schmalzried. In the Third ward nearly 100 ladies voted for members of the board.

The highest vote cast was on city clerk, the total being 612.

BOWMAN & YOUNG'S MINSTRELS.

"Love is not what it used to be," so sings the poet. Well, perhaps the poet is right, for love has no doubt, changed, as have a great many other things. But there is one thing in particular that has not changed and positively remains the same, and that is the excellence of the entertainments presented by Bowman & Young's Minstrels, who will appear at Lloyd's opera house April 14th. The annual visit of the minstrels is always classed as an event of the theatrical season, and unusual enthusiasm has been aroused this time through the fact of the "always reliable" show coming with even a stronger company than ever before. It would require too much space to mention the names of the entire company; however, it is sufficient to say that an enjoyable performance may be expected, for Bowman & Young never disappoint.

SOMERSET SNAP SHOTS.

Mrs. W. A. Latimer is on the sick list.

John McConnell has returned from the east.

J. H. Knowles transacted business in Omaha last week.

Mrs. Geo. Pulley was reported on the sick list last week.

Charles Spelde and Wm. Jolliff were in Maywood last week.

L. V. Jackson was called to Frontier county last week by the sickness of his sister.

A. J. Blougher and Chas. Smith, of Ash Grove, attended the republican convention at North Platte Saturday.

Wm. Jolliff and Mr. McDonald, of Kem precinct, and Cecil Tuell, of Somerset, attended the North Platte convention Saturday.

NICHOLS AND HERSHEY NEWS.

Don't forget that Rev. C. C. Snavely, of North Platte, will lecture at the Maccabee hall at Hershey to-morrow evening at 7:30 western time. Everybody invited. Admission 10 and 15 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin, the parents of Mrs. F. L. Terry of Nichols, arrived from Kansas a day or two ago.

The Sunday school at Nichols will commence at 2:30 p. m. eastern time, next Sunday instead of at 10:30 a. m. as in the past. The change was made last Sabbath.

A man by the name of McClellan, from the North Loup country, purchased a car load of seed potatoes in this locality recently. They were delivered at North Platte.

Cecil Tuell, of Somerset, was up this way with his notion wagon the early part of the week.

Rev. Irwin, of North Platte, was in this locality a few days ago where he purchased a number of chickens which he will place on the farm he has rented near North Platte.

A gang of men and teams are at work cleaning out the old canal just north of Nichols.

Spring wheat that was sown previous to the late snow is looking green and healthy.

The work of remodeling and repairing the dam and head-gate to the old canal is completed.

There is but very little water flowing down the South Platte river in this section at the present time and the North river is unusually low for this season of the year.

Those who attended the leap year dance at Hershey last Wednesday night speak in glowing terms of it.

A Steinback of York, Nebr., was soliciting members for "The Home Benefit Order" up this way a day or two ago, which he is organizing at the county seat.

The majority of the farmers in this locality have finished sowing small grain for this season. Their attention will now be turned to preparing their corn and potato ground for planting.

We understand that Wm. H. Sullivan will put in forty acres of oats and alfalfa upon the Avaline farm just east of Nichols this season. He broke up and pulverized the land last season.

Next Sunday evening will be Rev. Stearns' regular appointment at the Sisson school house.

W. A. Paxton, of Omaha, is visiting the Paxton and Hershey ranch in this precinct. He arrived Wednesday evening.

We understand that Ben Symonds, the Hershey druggist will soon go back to Elsie, his former home.

Paxton and Hershey will ship a couple of cars of fat cattle from their ranch to-morrow or Sunday.

PAT.

TO TEACHERS OF LINCOLN COUNTY.

I desire to call your attention to the programs which I have mailed you of the Western Nebraska Educational Association which meets at Ogalalla this month.

Gotten up as it has been, with care that it shall be just such a program as will meet the needs of every teacher and so thoroughly practical that not one need come away without bringing with him many good ideas for future use in his work, you will readily see that it is a program which not one of us can afford to miss hearing carried out.

School boards whose schools will be in session at that time are recommended to give the day, Friday the 24th, to their teachers who desire to attend the meeting and I promise you that you will more than be repaid in the increased energy and capabilities of the teacher during the remainder of the term.

FLORA A. FRANKLIN,
Co. Supt.

IN MEMORIAM.

Frank L. Terry departed this life April 1st, 1896, at his home near Nichols, Nebraska.

Mr. Terry was born October 16th 1862, in Susquehanna county, Pennsylvania, where he lived till after he arrived at manhood. He then moved to Illinois and from there to Kansas, where he was united in marriage to Miss Mattie Goodwin, January 4th, 1890. In 1893 they came to this state, and in September took up their residence at their present home near Nichols.

Mr. Terry was in poor health all last summer and in October was taken ill with typhoid fever and was so low for weeks that his friends gave up all hopes of his recovery, but he finally struggled through. Owing to an accident which happened during his sickness he became blind in one eye, and as soon as he was able to travel he went to Omaha for treatment for it, but received no benefit. Shortly after his return home he was seized with an attack of pneumonia and after that with a complication of diseases to which he finally gave way. He was a great sufferer and the attending physician and kind friends and neighbors did all that human skill and untiring devotion could do, but all was of no avail, and on the morning of April 1st he passed quietly away.

He leaves a wife and little daughter aged four years, and five sisters and two brothers in Pennsylvania, who will read this with sorrowing hearts. He was a kind and loving husband and father, a neighbor, warmhearted and generous and will be remembered in this community, as one who was always ready to lend a helping hand to those in trouble and distress.

The funeral services were held in the Nichols school house, which was filled to its utmost capacity by sympathizing friends and neighbors.

A very able sermon was delivered by Rev. C. E. Snavely, of North Platte, from the text found in Rev. 22-14, after which he was laid away to rest in the Ware cemetery by the Hershey K. O. T. M. of which he was a member. May he rest in peace.

EXCURSION TO OMAHA.

One fare for the round trip, from points in Nebraska via the Union Pacific; tickets on sale April 14th and 15th. For full particulars call on N. B. Olds, agent.

DINNER FOR A PENNY.

New York Man Who Makes a Profit on Very Cheap Victuals.

There are diners and diners in this city of contrasts. Some men here find it a difficult thing to get a satisfactory dinner for $25; others get along nicely on a substantial meal that costs a dime or less. And there is at least one strange little restaurant here where a full repast can be purchased for 1 cent. It is without doubt the cheapest eating house in the world. This cheapest dining room of all is huddled down in a corner almost touching the famous Mariners' temple of Oliver street, a block away from Chatham square, where streams of people from all the four corners of town pass and repass. It is little more than a wooden hut, some 18 feet long and perhaps 7 broad, with a little addition tacked on to it, which serves as a kitchen. Small as it is, however, it feeds an average of 1,000 people in a day, 30 being able to squeeze in before the counter at one time; on some days as many as 1,400 have eaten there. Tramps, outcasts, vagrants and men who have fallen so low that they will never get up in the world again, come daily, sometimes three times a day, with the last copper they have in their pockets, to drink coffee, munch the bread and eat the pea soup that constitutes the bill of fare of this most lowly of eating houses. It is a strange congregation truly that one sees within its narrow four walls—a congregation of faces stamped with vice and debauchery, of patched and rusty garments and unwashed cuticles. Women occasionally come to this penny dining room, but as the proprietor doesn't care for their custom, they do not annoy him often.

You ask, What can a copper buy? Well, incredible as it may seem in these days of lavish expenditure, three coppers expended at this tiny restaurant will buy a bowl of coffee, a bowl of pea soup and four slices of bread. A bowl of coffee and a slice of bread, the slice cut generously, costs but a cent. For a cent, too, a large bowl of soup is served, with another slice of bread. A cent more will buy two additional pieces of bread. The bowl of soup is a full quart, the bowl of coffee a pint.

"If a man wants to eat more than this at one time," the little proprietor says, "he must be a glutton." At all events, no vagrant should starve with one of these 8 cent dinners snugly stowed away beneath his soiled linen. The pea soup is rich, the coffee is cheap, but as good as one finds in many pretentious dining rooms here, and the bread is so palatable that the proprietor eats it himself. This 1 cent eating house has been running for over five years, and during that time has fed hundreds of thousands. Some months the meals served have reached the 30,000 mark.

NO LONGER "TRIED ON."

The New Invention That Saves Women From Hours at the Dressmaker.

A clever New York dressmaker has done away with the ordeal of "trying on," and the gowns that come from her establishment are no longer a weariness of the flesh or spirit to the woman who orders them, for they fit without being "fitted," and there is no "system" of measure and tape about the matter whatsoever. It is merely an ingenious device patented by this same clever woman of the needle whereby any client's figure can be sized from a perfect fitting waist lining or waist and expanded into an exact mold of every curve, every angle, every peculiarity, of the original flesh and blood form.

This woman discovered that dressmakers' systems and trying on were the trials of womankind. She forthwith reasoned that the lay figure had not been useful except for skirt draping, because of the manifest inaccuracy of it as applied to any and every figure. Some women with a 24 inch waist had a 34 inch bust measure and a length of side seams out of all proportion. Other little women were short waisted and broad backed. Still others were higher in one shoulder than the other and had unaccountable hills and hollows in their anatomy. It was manifestly impossible that a conventional machine lay figure should be able to assume all the shapes of all the women. No, each woman must have a mold of her own, and an exact mold, over which bodices could be as perfectly fitted as on the flesh and blood woman.

The invention consists of an artistic and perfectly fitted waist lining of canvas, strong, but flexible, and shaped to every line of the bodice. Into this lining is inserted a cunning device which expands it into the exact shape it was while upon the woman, just as rigid, just as solid, as if there was the real anatomy inside of it, a true reproduction of the figure.—Jenness Miller Monthly.

Disappointment.

A Washington paper says that a young lady of the Capital City met a gentleman from a far western state at a party in Washington. "You are not from the far west, sir?" she said doubtfully. "Yes, I have lived there all my life." "Oh, I'm so glad to meet you!" "Thank you." "But—excuse me—you see, I've read all the western stories, and it seems to me that you've forgotten something." "Nothing that I can call to mind." "Why, you don't say 'thar' and 'look hyar, stranger,' and use all sorts of bad grammar, and wear a pistol so that it bulges out your coat?" "I have never done those things." "Oh, dear! Then my idol is shattered!"

Fair Offer.

In the middle of the third act the young woman with the big headdress turned around in her seat and spoke to the youth immediately behind her. "Sir," she said, "if you will change your brand of chewing gum, I'll take off this hat. I'm getting tired of that wintergreen fragrance."—Chicago Tribune.
