A FAREWELL RECEPTION.

Prior to his departure for Newcastle Tuesday evening, Rev. O'Toole was tendered a farewell reception on the church grounds by the members of St. Patrick's church and Sunday-school. The program carried out by the children was both beautiful and affecting, and many present were moved to tears as they witnessed the genuine affection shown by the children for their beloved pastor. Miss Regina McGovern made an interesting address, followed by short addresses given in verse by each of the following members of the Sunday-school: Oscar Smith, Ethel Donegan, Albert Schatz, Josie O'Hara, Frank Schatz, Annie Connor, Louis Tobir, Theresa Austin and May Harshman. After this Miss Nellie Lonerger made the following address as she presented, on behalf of the children, the pastor with a beautiful fountain pen with handle of solid gold:

Reverend and Dear Father—I have been chosen by the children to ask your acceptance of this slight token of their esteem and affection for you. We, your pupils, and spiritual children, desire to show in some manner our appreciation of your fatherly kindness and patience toward us during the happy years while you were with us. That desire leads me to this little gift with this memento toward which each has added his mite. But let this token, however insignificant its value, coupled with our unbounded love, assure you that we are not ungrateful for what you have done for us.

We know we can make no proper return for the aid and kindness you have shown us, yet we offer you this our little gift with our warmest wishes and heartfelt greeting for your welfare. Faithfully and earnestly you have labored with us, and we hope to do credit to your teachings. We hope that when the toils and cares of this life are over that we may represent some bright jewel in your crown of eternal glory. We have earned to look upon you as a friend and father, and in the years to come when we shall apply your lessons of patience, kindness, fortitude and energy, in the real problems of life, the memory of your labors will not let us forget the debt we owe you.

In conclusion we ask that you will forgive our many offenses, both of omission and commission, toward you, through our relations, you as spiritual father and we as your children, must now be severed, we trust that this memento will bring only pleasant recollections of your labors here, and assure you that we one and all will hold you in fond remembrance.

M. C. Harrington in behalf of the congregation then presented the beloved pastor with a purse of $73.00. The presentation speech made by Mr. Harrington was a very neat one, and was responded to by the reverend gentleman with remarks that gave evidence of very much gratefulness for the token of esteem in which he was held by the parishioners.

NEVILLE FOR SUPREME JUDGE.

William Neville, of this city, was nominated for judge of the supreme court by the populist convention at Hastings Wednesday. This is supposed to be the result of the political deal made between Holcomb, Green and Neville, whereby the trio were to assist each other in securing a nomination for the respective offices which they sought. The full particulars of this tripartite deal is given as follows by the Kearney Hub of Wednesday last: Judge Neville of North Platte spent several days in Kearney this week closing up the political deal between himself and Judge Greene where Judge Greene is to assist Judge Neville to the populist nomination for supreme judge and Judge Neville is to assist Judge Greene in return to the populist nomination to congress in the Sixth district. Governor Holcomb, who is a party to the transaction, could not be present, but he had sanctioned in advance any adjustment of the details of the political agreement that has been entered into by "three judges." It is understood that Holcomb and Greene were a trifle "leary" about incurring the hostility of T. Fulton Gantt, Judge Neville's fellow townsman, and who is also a candidate for the populist nomination for congress, but Judge Neville reasoned that the combination was strong enough to ignore Gantt and fix up the spoils without regarding his interests or the possible result of his antagonism.

In the same connection, it leaks out that the placing of the congressional convention at Crawford was ingeniously arranged so that there would be a small attendance of delegates from the western part of the district, in the Platte valley, which is Mr. Gantt's stronghold, and in this way it is intended to minimize the Gantt influence even though he should be so fortunate as to carry his own county or it should be deemed advisable to let him have it rather than precipitate a fight.

It is one of the smoothest political deals ever evolved in these parts, and everyone knows that Holcomb, Neville and Greene are adepts in the art of political manipulation. These gentlemen have no use for Gantt, first for the reason that they haven't any "Christmas gifts" to spare just now, and for the further reason that he has an independent way of acting and thinking for himself. Gantt is dreadful in earnest about this congressional matter, and inasmuch as he has been a greenbacker, a granger, an independent and a populist, and stood out in western Nebraska when he was almost alone, he is liable to make the combine a great deal of trouble. The Hub is interested in it only so far as it feels an interest in the under dog, a position in which Mr. Gantt apparently finds himself at the present time.

MYRTLE NEWS.

Mrs. H. Foster of North Platte, visited relatives and old acquaintances in this precinct recently.

Ed Wright is working in a hay camp on the bottoms.

R. J. Menzie is helping Mr. Chapin of Logan county this week.

J. Derryberry, of Whittier precinct, was transacting business in this precinct this week. He reports corn looking fine and prospects for a heavy yield in their community.

Miss Jessie Waite has been employed to teach the McGrew school.

It is reported that L. P. Derby and family went upon the Dismal the latter part of the week to gather plums. If so, we are afraid they'll have to remain a week or so for them to ripen.

Another special meeting has been called by director A. J. Neel, of District 63, for the purpose of locating the site for school house etc. The meeting will be held Aug. 8th at 4 o'clock at the school house.

A. E. Moore has been slightly indisposed for a few days.

Mrs. R. J. Menzie, who was on sick list for a few days, is able to ride out now.

The people of this community begin to think it can rain here; as they have been blest with three good rains in the past week. No one complains if they do have to get up nights and move their beds, and do get a few refreshing drops on themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Neel visited Mr. Ambler of Logan county Tuesday.

Miss Cora Combs, accompanied by Jessie Banks, betook themselves to the hills one day last week to gather sandcherries. HAYSEED.

AFRAID OF FREE SILVER.

One of the oldest and largest manufacturers of patent medicines in the United States writes THE TRIBUNE as follows: To protect ourselves in time of panic and financial distress—which we regard as inevitable if the unexpected should happen in November—we have decided to add the following condition to all contracts made for advertising: It is also agreed that should Free Silver Candidate Bryan be elected, this company has the privilege of cancelling this contract.

Bryan will go to New York to be notified of his nomination by democrats, to Baltimore to hear of his nomination by silverites, to—to be told of his nomination by populist, but he can stay at home in November and learn all about his defeat.

Bryan's Chicago platform asserts that the present financial system has been a bar to the nation's prosperity, and caused all the hard times. What are the facts? Right after the war the statesmen in power began the work of rebuilding. The statistics show that in 1870 there was $1,700,000,000 invested in manufactures in the United States; in 1890 this sum had increased to $6,200,000,000. In 1870 the number of employees in these establishments was 2,000,000; in 1890 it was 4,500,000. The amount of wages paid to these bread-winners in 1870 was $620,000,000, an average of $310 per annum per head; in 1890 it was $2,200,000,000, an average of $489 per annum per head. The total value of manufactured products in 1870 was $3,400,000,000; in 1890 it was $9,000,000,000.

Dr. Sawyer, Dear Sir: Having used your Pills, I can recommend them to the public. I have been attended by four different doctors, but one and a half boxes of your medicine has done me more good than all of them. Yours respect fully, Mrs. Maggie Johnson, Bronson, Branch county, Mich. Sold by F. H. Longley.

—It would cost $11,000,000,000 to buy the railroads of the United States, but the populists demand that Uncle Sam shall buy and run them. The entire money of the world of all kinds amounts to $11,088,200,000. But the populists say what does that amount to?—"make more!" And they want Bryan for president.

It cannot be possible that in the closing years of the nineteenth century and in this great and free republic the people themselves will irritate the bad example set by the corrupt potentates of Europe, who have made their names forever odious in history by debasing the money of their subjects and robbing the industrious poor of the just rewards of their labor. The greatest crime that could be committed against the workingman in this country would be to confiscate his labor for the benefit of the employer by destroying the value of the money in which his wages are paid; but this irreparable wrong can never be perpetrated under our system of government unless the laboring man himself assists in forging his own chains.—Secretary John G. Carlisle.
