

CITY NEWS.

For ladies' walking hats go to the Boston Store. Mr. Isaac Dillon and two children left this morning for a visit with friends in New York City. C. F. Jennings, traveling ambassador for a St. Louis hardware firm, is looking after the interests of his house in this city. Joe Fillion, Jr., this morning received a new light-weight Columbia special racing bicycle with which he expects to break some records during the fair meeting here. W. T. Wilcox and family returned last night from their extended visit to the Buckeye state. While there Mr. Wilcox did a little missionary work for the cause of true republicanism. Stove pipe 15c a joint, elbows 10c at The Wilcox Dept. Store. A special committee of the A. O. U. W. met in the county judge's office last night to perfect arrangements for that order for their day during the Irrigation Fair. Judge Ray tapped a fine watermelon for the delectation of the meeting. Wiley Mathews, of Dickens, came in last evening with a load of watermelons which averaged about thirty-five pounds each. He has two carloads left, and is figuring with a Cheyenne man for the sale of them. N. A. Davis came in from the east on No. 3 last night and spent a few hours with his family, returning on No. 2 this morning. He reports that everyone in Nebraska is coming to the Irrigation Fair, and that North Platte should see that they are entertained. For caps and jackets go to the Boston. A. T. Trude of Chicago with an even dozen younger Trudes, occupied C. B. & O. special car on train No. 2 this morning. P. L. O'Brien says the number was a "hoodoo" and caused the train to be a number of minutes late. THE TRIBUNE has learned of a North Platte citizen, whose mother lives in a foreign country, and who a few days ago received a letter informing him that the lady in question, although seventy-five years of age, had recently given birth to a lusty eight pound baby. The work of removing the board walk at the Union Pacific passenger depot has been commenced, and in its place a gravel walk will be substituted. McGovern has made requisition for a good sized steam traction engine with which to draw his baggage and express trucks. Norman N. Spear, representing the Chicago "Sports Afield," is canvassing the city in the interests of that publication. This is the periodical formerly represented by J. F. Wellington, at one time a resident of Sidney. The "Duke" is now passenger agent of the C. & N. W. R'y at Morrison, Ill., and is said to be doing first rate. The fine rain last night puts the ground in excellent condition for the sowing of winter small grain, and farmers who can do so should see that the acreage is large; for next year with McKinley and prosperity we will not promise them $1 a bushel for their wheat as did the democrats four years ago, but we can safely assure them of better prices. Flue stops 5c at The Wilcox Dept. Store. Populist politicians of Lincoln county, recognizing the handwriting upon the wall, and realizing that the divine warning is about to be fulfilled are bestirring themselves in a heroic effort to stem the tide of sentiment which has set in against their organization since Bill Allen, Bill Green and Jim Weaver have undertaken to secure it a position within the capacious maw of the democratic donkey. The concert given last night by the Episcopal choir was very well attended. Keith's hall being about two-thirds filled. The programme was varied in nature and creditably rendered, each number being well received by the audience. A similar concert every month or so would undoubtedly be appreciated by lovers of good music. After the programme a dance was held, quite a number taking part. For blankets and underwear go to the Boston Store. Rev. Benj. S. Haywood, of Holdrege, will be at the Methodist church next Sunday, Sept. 20th. He will preach in the morning and in the evening will deliver his lecture on the "Chattanooga Epworth League Convention and Neighboring Battlefields." The soldiers of the G. A. R. are invited to be present at this lecture, which will prove especially interesting to them, as well as to all who shall be fortunate enough to hear it. Mr. Haywood is a good speaker; don't miss these services.

Robt. Peale did some glazing at the courthouse to-day. Chicago weather forecast for to-day and to-morrow is showery and cooler. T. C. Patterson and wife attended the ex-soldiers' reunion at Curtis this week. The new jurors' chairs, judge's and stenographer's tables for use at the court house have been received. A Cady escort club was formed at a meeting held by the republicans Tuesday evening. The club will be uniformed. Messrs. Patterson, French and Seeberger go to Hershey this evening, where they will address a republican meeting. Dan McGee has on exhibition some of the corn growing upon his place southeast of this city, which at the age of 120 days showed a height of 120 inches. Underwear all kinds at The Wilcox Dept. Store. Lucien Stebbins started out one morning this week bright and early to capture the farmers' vote of Lincoln county. T. T. Keliker will trail him up, but will probably not refer to Mr. Stebbins bolt of the populist ticket a couple of years ago. Isaac Dillon had the misfortune to have one of his racing horses, which it was intended would go into the races at the Irrigation Fair, severely cut himself on a barb wire fence. The injury was so great that the animal will not be entered. For laddies', men's and children's shoes go to the Boston. A number of the creditors of L. Tift fear that he has fled the country leaving them to financially mourn his loss. He was quite an energetic fellow and by his activity had accumulated considerable property, which in the opinion of many would have been sufficient to have met all his obligations. The passenger department of the Union Pacific has issued a very pretty hanger descriptive of the Irrigation Fair. A gentleman who was in attendance at the late soldiers' national encampment, in St. Paul states that the first thing he collied with in that city was some descriptive matter pertaining to the Irrigation Fair. Best line of gloves and mittens in town at The Wilcox Dept. Store. The reunion committee at Curtis did not make arrangements to provide sufficient tents during the reunion there, and the B. & M. R'y run in about fifty box cars upon a siding near the grounds, which very naturally aided in providing sleeping accommodations for the crowd. The U. P. and the "mill track" could likewise help out in this city. The latest novelties in children's headwear at the Boston. Bill Green claimed here that he was not the nominee of the democratic party and did not stand squarely upon the Chicago platform, but was the populist nominee. Yet a few days ago he caused to be a "plugged up" convention at Chadron, calling itself democratic, and secured its endorsement. It is said that four counties were represented by exactly fourteen delegates from the "Big Sixth" district composed of about forty counties. For dress goods, the latest novelties, go to the Boston Store. The entertainment at the opera house Wednesday evening by the ladies of the Irrigation Fair was quite well attended. The programme, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations and tableaux, was pleasingly rendered and received with satisfaction by the audience. Following the programme dancing was held and enjoyed by those who delight in the whirl of the waltz. Refreshments were served during the evening. The receipts were about $40. W. B. Risse who made the race for county attorney here in 1887 upon the democratic ticket has recently written a letter to Geo. E. French in which he says: "I am a sound money democrat, opposed to Bryan as well as Altgeld. An elector (presidential) for the fifteenth district on the Palmer ticket and will get into active campaign soon, and if there is anything on earth I can do to down Bryan and Altgeld I'll do it. We don't want any Mexican money in ours." This is indicative of the drift of the German democratic vote in Illinois as well as elsewhere. The best grade hosiery, at the lowest prices, will be found at the Boston Store. VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE. 190 acres adjoining and half mile from center of city of North Platte. All under canvas; irrigable; large crops; best located. Can be laid out as an addition to the city in blocks and lots, or into 2 1/2 and 5 acre plots and sold to large profit. Read notice of John Day's special sale appearing elsewhere in this paper. J. S. Hinklewrestled with a slight attack of sickness on Wednesday. Miss Ella Sullivan has accepted a position in the dry goods store of J. H. Day. The sports tiger has been seen gently gambling in our city a number of nights past. Arthur Strahorn left Wednesday for Lincoln where he will enter the State university. The Wilcox Dept. Store will order you barb wire for $2.85 a hundred delivered in North Platte. The county commissioners have been putting in considerable time recently in the letting of bridge contracts. Turn stiles are being made to prevent the too rapid ingress of people into the Irrigation Fair grounds. Engineer McNamara came up from the First district yesterday in charge of engine 675, which will remain here. Yesterday James, McMichael began the erection of the bill boards for the Wild West Show. They will be five in number and will be decorated with paper the first of next week. A. D. Williams, who is employed as stenographer in a law office in Cheyenne, came down Wednesday to attend the Hughes-Van Camp wedding. He returned to Cheyenne the same night. One of the most interesting features of the Irrigation Fair will be the manufacturing of cider from Lincoln county grown apples, a gentleman having obtained a concession for the above purpose. RADIANT HOMES. Latest improved cook stoves and heaters, North Side Cash Hardware Store. In conversation with S. K. Ross during the first part of the week that gentleman gave it as his opinion that the republican party stood an excellent chance of carrying Wyoming at the coming election. Work upon the Suburban and South Side irrigation canals is being prosecuted vigorously. Prospective patrons of these corporations can now confidently look forward next season to being supplied with an abundance of water. One of North Platte's most vociferous free silver shouters was completely unhorsed the other morning by Matt Daugherty, to whom he was expounding his favorite fallacy. Said Matt to Guy: "Well it beats all how many farmers ride into town on bicycles, and then kick about the price of horses and oats." The free silver fellow made the application.

HUGHES-VAN CAMP WEDDING. On Wednesday evening at nine o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Van Camp, occurred one of the prettiest weddings that has been seen for some time when Miss Edith Viola VanCamp was united in marriage to Oscar E. Hughes. There were present at the ceremony about forty relatives and more intimate friends of the contracting parties. The bride wore a handsome gown of white corded silk trimmed in white silk lace and carried a large bouquet of pink roses. She was attended by Miss Libbie Letts as maid of honor who wore a gown of white cashmere and carried a bunch of roses. The groom was attired in the conventional black and was escorted by Chas. Weir. Promptly at nine o'clock Mrs. M. V. Davis played the wedding march and the couple entered the parlor preceded by little Arilla Gilman and Master George VanCamp as flower bearers and took their position before an altar of flowers, where the beautiful Episcopal "form of matrimony" was said by Rev. G. A. Beecher. Congratulations followed the ceremony and later the guests partook of a wedding supper. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes took the midnight train for a brief visit in Denver and other Colorado points. The bride and groom are deservedly popular young people and have resided in North Platte nearly all their lives. Mrs. Hughes is an accomplished young lady, possessing an amiable disposition and will make a faithful helpmate to the man of her choice. Mr. Hughes is one of our energetic, straightforward young business men and is to be congratulated upon having secured so fair a prize. THE TRIBUNE extends its wishes for a long, happy and prosperous life. The wedding presents received were as follows: Complete China tea set, James Langley, Portland; fish set, Mr. and Mrs. McSweney, Cheyenne; teaspoons, Mr. and Mrs. Devitt, Cheyenne; berry spoon, Misses Kate and Maggie Barker; berry set, Arthur Hoagland; complete set of table glassware, Mr. and Mrs. O. Harshman; cut glass berry dish, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Boal; bon bon dish, Miss Berenice Searle; celery tray, Miss Mamie Watts; syrup pitcher, Harrington & Tobin; lamp, Mrs. W. F. Cody; cut glass sugar bowl, Walter Hamilton; cut glass vase, Mr. and Mrs. Doolittle; lamp, Chas. Weir; water set, Ed Friend; pickle fork, Mr. and Mrs. Beecher; set of spoons, Frank Murray; orange spoons, J. R. Dowd, salt and pepper set, Miss Letts; table linen, Mr. and Mrs. Bullard and Arthur McNamara; sofa pillow, Julia Baker; rocking chair, Mary, Annie and Henry Rebhansen; knives and forks, Theo. Bealey; bread tray, Mrs. L. Walker and Mrs. M. V. Davis; salt and pepper, May Walker; embroidery center pieces, Mrs. and Miss Gilman and Miss Kramph; sideboard cover, Miss Minnie Federhoff; music holder, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Williams; cut glass berry dish, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Compton; souvenir spoons, Guy Compton; table linen and after dinner tea service, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hughes; cake basket, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hughes; center table, George and Nellie Austin; Floy McGinn and John Eli; flowers, Grace Langdon, Mr. Bullard, Mr. and Mrs. Peniston. Mrs. T. M. Hamline and daughter, Mrs. W. W. White are visiting friends in Missouri. Mrs. H. S. Keith returned Tuesday night from a pleasant visit with relatives in Lincoln. Julius Pizer returned this morning from Denver where he attended religious services yesterday. The ladies of the irrigation fair will serve a New England supper on Tuesday evening of next week. The Rebekah sewing circle was pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. J. F. Schmalzried. The Home Forum last evening initiated B. L. Robinson, after which a brief literary program was rendered. R. H. Langford addressed the people of Tamora, Seward county, Monday evening upon the political issues of the day. R. S. Braugh and Miss Fannie Geil, both of Wallace, were married at the M. E. parsonage by Rev. Snavely Tuesday afternoon. A. L. Davis is letting his light shine before men in the shape of a new street lamp in front of his residence on west Sixth street. Mr. and Mrs. Don Devine left the early part of the week for a visit with friends in Omaha and other points in the eastern part of the state. J. S. Hoagland left last night for Texas to attend the grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. He will be absent about ten days. The Minneapolis papers speak in terms of highest praise of our own and only Buffalo Bill's show which exhibited there on Monday and Tuesday. Attorney Parsons went to Harrisburg Wednesday to assist in prosecuting Treasurer Graves, of Banner county, who was found short in his accounts. Mesdames Park and Jacobson visited Sutherland the early part of the week and organized an auxiliary to the ladies' department of the irrigation fair. All parties who desire to rent coats during the irrigation fair are requested to notify Geo. E. Prosser or Geo. W. Finn, the committee on public comfort. W. C. Blackmore, the Sutherland druggist, was a North Platte visitor Wednesday and favored this office with a call. He reports business in Sutherland improving steadily. The Y. M. C. A. meeting Sunday will be at the rooms at 4:15 p. m., and will be led by C. L. Adams. Subject: "This life a preparation for the future life." All are invited.
