-Arrangements have been completed whereby W. J. Roche will give his concert at the corner of Spruce and Sixth streets on Saturday. Nov. 28th, from 1:30 to 4 is certainly a low price for the o'clock p. m. Mr. Roche has prepared a very choice programme and we trust he will be accorded a large and appreciative audience. The receipts of the concert will be devoted to charitable purposes.

--John Burke and George Dowlen will on Monday next open a flour and feed store in the Bratt building on Front street. The firm will handle flour teed and hay and sell hogs and cattle. The location is an excellent one for this business and the wagon scales recently put in makes it convenient for those who have produce and stock to sell.

-The concert and dance to be given by the cornet band on Wednesday evening of next week will undoubtedly be a very pleasant affair. The concert will begin at eight o'clock and last one hour, and will be followed by several hours' of dancing. Every citizen should invest in a ticket and thus help the boys to purchase music needed for the series of street concerts to be given next summer.
