SENATOR STEWART, of Nevada bobs up with a proposition to hold a presidential election every two years. This leads the Globe-Democrat to remark that the Senator is an Apache on the trail of legimate trade, and his silver tomahawk is never idle.

IT is in order to remind some critics that the republican party is not responsible for the present condition of public affairs. But if any administration, or the next after that, the republicans are ready to assume the pressure.-Ex.

Ir is an odd fact that the Colo rado senate has issued an order excluding women from the floor dur ing business hours. The women of Colorado are full-fledged voters, will have a majority in the legislature. The precedent established may then be awkward.

STAMPEDE TO MASON,

LORIMER'S SUDDEN WITHDRAWAL NOMINATES EX-CONGRESSMAN.

His Selection Was a Distinct Defeat For the Combination of Politicians Known as the Machine and a Clear Victory For the McKinley Parces of Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, Illa., Jan. 20.-Ex. Congressman William S. Mason was nominated United States senator at the Republican joint caucus after one of the most bitterly fought battles in the history of the Republican party in Illinois. Although he had been canvassing the state as a senatorial candidate for two years, Mr. Mason's selection was regarded by "machine" politicians, as an impossibility up to within two hours of the time of his triumphant and unanimous nomination, the choice being the result of the sudden withdrawal from the race of Congressman William Lorimer, who held the almost solid vote of Chicago and Cook county. The contest had been so long drawn out and the battle so fierce that the legislators were in a mood to be stampeded at any moment as the hour for the caucus drew near and the sudden shifting of the Cook county forces to Mason carried the others off their feet. The tide turned toward the ex-congressman with a rush that carried everything before it.

Mr. Mason's selection was a distinct defeat for the combination of politicians known as the machine and a clear victory for the McKinley forces of the state. Following the withdrawal a week ago of Martin D. Madden, the Chicago alderman, who was at the outset the machine candidate, the state organization immediately entered the field with Congressman Lorimer. Lorimer showed much strength at the start, but his friends became discouraged, believing the McKinley element of the state too powerful to permit their man to win and at a caucus of Cook county members held at 6 o'clock last night, Mr. Lorimer announced his intention to abandon the fight and throw his strength to Mason. A stampede to the ex-congressman followed.

Half a dozen men rose to make it unanimous and the chairman announced him as the choice of the caucus. The 35th ballot stood: Harris, 57; King, 32; Breidenthal, 5; Little, 5; Madden, 2; Martin, 1.
