There's no Use!

You can't find in these United States the Equal of the Genuine

Beckwith Round Oak.

You may try; you'll get left. Remember, it's the combination of good points that makes the Perfect Stove. That's where we get the IMITATIONS. They can't steal the whole stove. They steal one thing and think they have it all, but it FAILS. They build another. It fails. Still they keep on crying good as the ROUND OAK. Some peculiar merchants say they have them, when IT'S NOT SO.

(SEE THE NAME ON THE LEG.)

Chas. Brown transacted business in North Platte Saturday.

Mrs. Mallow is visiting friends in Cozad this week.

The Misses George spent several days in North Platte last week.

J. H. Griffin is having the old harness shop moved out on his farm.

Miss Stella Elliott is spending the week in Maxwell.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ewing, formerly of this place, passed through on No. 2 Tuesday from Pocatello, Idaho. They were on their way east to visit Mr. Ewing's relatives.

FRIZZLES.

MAXWELL NOTES.
Mr. Coddington, of Kearney, was here on business Monday.

Our people have been busy the past week putting up ice from the Snyder lake. It is sixteen inches thick and of fair quality.

Mrs. Robinson, of Deerfield, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Struthers, at North Platte.

The weather has been quite cold the past week, six below zero being the minimum.

Henry Appleford met with quite a serious accident Monday evening. He was running some cattle and his horse became unmanageable, and he was obliged to enter a wire fence and the horse fell and broke Mr. Appleford's leg. Dr. Bedell was called and deemed it advisable to take him to North Platte, where he is now.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Dobson's bill to repeal the sugar bounty law was passed in the house Tuesday morning by a vote of 63 to 30, Stebbins of this county, voting for the repeal.

Representative Liddell has introduced a bill providing for the branding, marking and tagging of all goods made and merchandise manufactured in any penitentiary, prison or reformatory where convict labor is employed, and providing punishment for violation thereof.

The bill reducing the salary of the general superintendent of the Omaha deaf and dumb institute from $2,000 to $1,500 has passed the house, and thus the great work of reform goes on. The bill reducing the salaries of the officials at the Kearney reform school has been sent back to the committee for correction.

Representative Stebbins of this county has introduced a bill to promote the industry of farming and to encourage agriculture in the arid district in the state of Nebraska by means of irrigation with water flow from artesian wells constructed therein at public expense by suitable officers of the state of Nebraska and to provide an appropriation to cover the expense of constructing the same.

Last Monday the following resolution was introduced: Resolved, By the senate, the house concurring therein, that a committee of three be appointed by the president of the senate to act in conjunction with a like committee of three to be appointed by the speaker of the house, to prepare a bill revising and amending the present revenue laws of this state, or such sections thereof as they think proper, and report the same to the senate and house for their action.

Representative Sheldon of Daves county has introduced a bill for a reapportionment of the state for legislative purposes. The bill is based on the vote of 1896, and reduces the apportionment of the southeastern counties of the state as a whole, though Douglas county is given three senators and twelve representatives, three more representatives than at present, and Lancaster county is given an additional representative at large to be elected by Gage and Lancaster county electors. That part of the state west of the Sixth principal meridian gets fifty-three representatives. The number of senatorial districts are reduced from thirty to twenty-eight and the representative districts increased from sixty-eight to seventy-six.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in their curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

EVENTS IN NEBRASKA.

P. K. Burrell of Stockville caught a beaver that weighed fifty pounds. The pelt is worth about $12.

A Saline county farmer hauled eight loads of corn to the Western market and then hauled it home again. It was too wet.

Michael Meagher has sued the city of Neligh for $1,000 damages for injuries received by his daughter from a fall on a defective sidewalk.

A Julian boy took a shot at the ground with a small rifle. He hit the ground, but the bullet passed through the foot or another boy first.

James Grimmeron of Albion fell while carrying a basket of corn. The handle of the basket landed in his ribs and broke three of them.

Constable Tate of Plainview went to the farm of August Sene to levy on some hogs and while he was loading them up Sene took a shot at him, but missed. Sene was arrested.

A gang of ruffians waited outside the church at Niobrara until Elder Powers, who was conducting revival meetings, came out and then pelted him with corn cobs and other light missiles.

Parrish, the young man who voted both at Herman and Summit polling places at the last election, was caught at Creston, Ia., this week, and has been taken back to Herman for trial.

Hartington has a theosophical society and is otherwise up to date to a large and agreeable extent. Even the children there discuss the attributes of the mahatma in a way that would thaw a Boston school ma'am.

Members of the Masonic fraternity residing in and around Ravenna have about completed arrangements for instituting a lodge at that place. The lodge will organize with a membership of about twenty.

The sheriff at Fairbury has a man in custody who admits the team he had in his possession, when arrested, was stolen, but refuses to tell where or who it was stolen from and the sheriff has not yet been able to find out.

The Norfolk firemen and the city council are at outs over the possession of a room in the city hall. The volunteer firemen furnished the room in good shape and then the council demanded possession. To this the firemen demurred, all threatened to resign. At present the matter is in statu quo.

Annie Biado, a Lincoln woman, has sued the city for $15,000, which she alleges she should have as damages to her by falling through a hole in the sidewalk. She says she sustained severe injuries to her left leg, knee cap and tendons thereof, heart, liver, spine and other internal organs. If that's the case it seems that she should have no less than $15,000.

Will Lewis, of Decatur, strolled home from a literary society in the mellow moonlight with a girl living in the country. After he had safely delivered her at her boudoir and was wending his way home, pondering over the airy nothings they had talked about, as all of us have done, he was confronted by a foot pad who leveled a gun at him. His hair raised so quickly that his hat landed on a sandbar in the Missouri. The bonnet got no plunder but Lewis got a scare that will turn him prematurely gray.

The Omaha Bee publishes a list of the state depository banks, who handle the money belonging to the state, and the total balance reported Nov. 30, 1896, amounted $1,729,627.30. Of this amount the Omaha banks have $292,615.23, the Lincoln banks $630,171.17, the balance being divided up between other banks in the different parts of the state. The total number of bank depositories during the past two years amounted to forty-two, six of whom have failed having state funds on deposit amounting to $271,222.63, at the time of their respective failures.

Advertised Letters.

STORIES OF AUSTERLITZ. A MAN

STORMING THE HEIGHTS.

Dec. 2, 1805. Napoleon took the battle out of the hands of his enemies and won the great victory of Austerlitz. So confident were the allies of a victory that would destroy the French, that they did not bring up all the forces available. Resting on the heights of Pratzen, they detached a column to cut Napoleon's road of retreat and moved to the attack on the right and left. The French were driven at all points. Napoleon was unperturbed and calmly awaited events. He had seen the Austrians strip their line on the heights of Pratzen, they detached a column to cut Napoleon's road of retreat and moved to the attack on the right and left. The French were driven at all points. Napoleon was unperturbed and calmly awaited events.
