NEWS FROM THE COUNTRY PRECINCTS.

MYRTLE NEWS. Mr. and Mrs. W. Combs visited relatives in North Platte recently. Mrs. L. McGrew of North Platte was visiting relatives in this vicinity the past week.

Mr. Scott, a Sunday school organizer, was doing some missionary work in this precinct lately.

W. Combs has purchased a windmill and will erect the same on the farm he purchased this spring.

James Shaffer of North Platte, passed through this berg, while enroute to Gandy.

Alf. Combs and lady attended the entertainment at Gandy Friday night.

A few ladies spent an afternoon at Mrs. Jane Combs last week, helping her quilt.

Say, Frizzles, the Moore boys live at Myrtle, not Moorefield.

D. Brunk and family have moved back on their farm. No place like the sand hills.

The Misses. McCain and Chappel of Logan county were visiting in this precinct Wednesday. Miss McCain will teach in Dist. 63 this term.

C. A. Moore of Maxwell made a flying visit to this berg before leaving for the east.

H. Null, who has been living on the ditch for the past three years, brought two loads of goods up to his "summer resort," as he calls it, and will again live in our midst. Welcome back, Mr. Null.

One of our prominent young men will soon wed a Logan county belle. We are not at liberty to publish names.

Bert Hoover, of Nichols, brought up a load of goods for Mr. Null, Tuesday.

BAKER PRECINCT. That troublesome disease, la grippe, has had a number of our people in its grip for some time past, among the sufferers being Levi Baker and wife, and the whole family of J. H. Baker. Both Mr. and Mrs. Baker have been confined to the house for a week.

Notwithstanding his illness, J. H. Baker was called upon Wednesday to unite in marriage Miss Jurietta Frances Eggers and Joseph Benjamin Anway, the ceremony occurring at the Baker residence. The Justice tied the connubial knot in the most approved style and sent the couple on their way rejoicing.

Miss Jennie Frazier is teaching her second term of school in District No. 79. She is giving excellent satisfaction.

MILLER MATTERS. As spring draws nearer we hear of a number of changes of location and there are numerous inquiries for farm lands, as well as stock farms. Among the land seekers this week was George Sweeney, of Maxwell, who expects to put in one hundred acres of wheat if he finds a place to suit him.

Walter Dugan of Kem precinct was visiting friends in this neighborhood Sunday and Monday last. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ripley moved over on the Park place between the rivers this week. We are sorry to lose them as neighbors, and wish them prosperity in their new home.

C. Beach's family are now at home, on the B. Beers ranch, as is Tom Donigan.

Will Faka will farm the county poor farm this year and we hope it will no longer be a "poor farm." N. Workman has rented the Vaughn farm and will move to it soon, we hear, and then that old timer Johnny Baggott will work back on his own place, after taking a trip in search of a better place, which he failed to find.

James Sadie and his family have gone down to Maxwell to bale hay for Mr. Hendy.

Our school will celebrate on Feb. 22d, and is making great plans to do honor to G. Washington; but from present indications the exercises may have to be postponed for a few days, as a number of the children are sick with the la-grippe. Among those at present out of school and confined to the their homes are: George and Gus Weinberg, three of Mr. Workman's children, and J. Richard Neary.

Mrs. Bert McMichael was visiting with her mother Mrs. A. Adamson for a few days this week. We are sorry to hear that some of Joe Mooney's cattle have died with, what is supposed to be black-leg. If this be so, every precaution should be used to prevent the spread of this fell disease, and all the carcasses should be either burned or buried. It is said that a good remedy for stock that have been exposed to this disease is to keep them moving, so as to keep the blood in circulation (as it is worse in the cattle that are being fed too heavy) and reduce their flesh.

We hear many rumors of weddings to be, but one did actually take place this week when Miss Alma Warnica became a bride, but as the name of the happy man is not known to your correspondent we cannot put it in the paper, but wish them joy just the same.

F. Weinberg is preparing to move back to the sand hills to his own place and the Egan farm will in all probabilities be rented to Si Ballard. So all of the vacant places will be filled again and the merry farmers boys will once more make music in the air as they turn the earth over in the spring.

John Neary and daughter Miss Henrietta, were in Sellers and Baker precincts one day lately and bought some corn from Walter Baker who raised a nice crop, but thinks there should be better prices for the products of the farm. In this we all agree and hoping for good times in the near future we will all stand up for Nebraska.

Munn Davis, a former resident of Wahoo, was recently murdered in California by a couple of half breed Indians who took him out to show him a mining claim.

The sheriff took possession of the Norfolk Cold Storage company on claims aggregating $6,000. It is expected the company will settle up and continue in business.

A number of Grand Island seekers after riches talk of a trip of exploration to the Black hills country this spring, where a number of rich strikes have been made of late.

Mrs. A. L. Goodrich of Oakland dropped a hot iron with which she was curling her hair and it struck her eye. It is feared she will lose the sight of the eye.

A second raid was made on the place in Gering which was supposed to keep intoxicating liquors. This time the officers found nothing of a contraband nature.

The Fremont hemp mill is now running night and day in order to work up the crop. It started later than usual this year on account of the weather being unfavorable for rotting the stalk.

A Lodge Pole man was riding with his wife and dropped his pipe. He thought it fell in the road and while he was searching for it, his wife's dress suddenly blazed up. The fire was extinguished before the woman was burned seriously.

Henry Stiner, of Grant precinct, brought to Lexington and sold seventy head of last spring's pigs. The animals averaged about 248 pounds each, and brought Mr. Stiner nearly $550. Hogs are pretty good property for a farmer to raise.

A company is being organized in Kearney to extract the gold known to be contained in the water and sand of the Platte river. T. J. O'Brien, for many years engineer for the canal company, is at the head of the organization.

A car of silver bullion was sidetracked in Lexington over night Tuesday night, being broken down so that it could not be moved. Men from North Platte repaired the car Wednesday. Four men with Winchester rifles guarded the car Tuesday night.—Lexington Clipper.

The Wahoo Wasp has the following sheep item: N. B. Breggren has enroute from New Mexico two trainloads of sheep, making about 15,000 head. On the arrival of these sheep, N. B. Breggren & Co. will have received 115,000 sheep since they commenced buying them last fall. He is now feeding 8,500 more on his home ranch near Wahoo; he has 5,000 more on feed at his old homestead three miles east of Wahoo.

J. L. Dollins shipped, Monday, 400 bushels of onions to the Omaha market. Onions were quoted at $1.25 per bushel which would mean a handsome figure for the lot. He raised 800 bushels last year off of seven acres of land, devoting his own time to the onion crop and renting the balance of his land, which was planted to corn, his share being 3000 bushels. He irrigated both crops.—Cozard Tribune.

Joe Lamma of Lexington, who was tried and convicted of murder a year or two ago, was in the city Tuesday evening, on his way home. Lamma it will be remembered, was deputy sheriff of Dawson county; a young man confined in the jail attempted to escape when he was fired upon by Lamma and killed. The case was brought to this county on charge of venue. Lamma was convicted and sent to the penitentiary for eighteen months, and having served his sentence is now enjoying his liberty.—Kearney Sun.
