JUDGE INCURS IRE OF AN IOWAN. Job Carr of Monticello, Outwitted by Ris

Daughter and Her Lover. KANEAS CITY, March 8 .- A special to the Times from Perry, O. T., says Judge Neff, probate judge of Kay county, has incurred the ire of Job Carr of Monticello, Ia., a rich merchant and banker, and the Iowa man has ordered Sheriff Frank Pierce to arrest the probate judge. Two days ago A. C. Danner, an Iowa newspaper man, and Miss Minnie Carr, the banker's daughter. eloped from Iowa and were so closely pursued by the father and officers that they came through Kansas and stopped. at Newkirk to wed. Five minutes after the marriage the officers at Newkirk received telegrams from the girl's father to arrest both and not allow them to marry. He was informed that they had this outh, I assume the arduous and re- while its ability to pay is not strengthalready been made husband and wife, and the father immediately ordered the ed States, relying on the support of my ficit. Loans are imperative in great arrest of the probate judge who issued the license and the minister who per- of Almighty God. Our faith teaches or its credit, but a failure to supply formed the ceremony. At this time no that there is no safer reliance than upon needed revenue in time of peace for the arrests have been made.

INDICT COAL COMPANY MANAGER. J. D. Stocton of the Clifton Company not forsake us so long as we obey his Charged With Coercing Employes. DES MOINES, Iowa, March 8.-J. D. footsteps. Stocton has been indicted by the grand jury on a charge of coercion of employes. He is manager of the Clifton Coal company, and the charge is that he compelled employes to buy at the com- idleness upon willing labor and loss to by all parties and administrations, to pany's store. The testimony before the jury was that he told the miners they must buy their goods at the truck store, and if they failed to do so they were Our financial system needs some re- and avoiding for the most part every discharged. The miners brought the complaint, and it was investigated at muck length.

The company has been for some time suspected of evading the state law by nor its stability to doubt or dispute. employes to patronize it. Other mines picion and the miners propose to stop in my judgment, a constant embarrassthe system. The state law makes the ment to the government and a safe baloffense punishable by fine, imprison- ance in the treasury. Therefore, I bement in jail or penitentiary, but very | heve it necessary to devise a system, few cases have ever been carried to the point of conviction.

Fighting Temple Amendment. DES MOINES, Iowa, March 8 .- The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad and the organized labor of Iowa n. If insures them in con

Revision of the National Currency System Next In Order-Fromotion of Reciprocity Earnestly Advocated-Strong Stand In Favor of International Peace Trenty-Wants Trust Laws Enforced.

FELLOW CITIZENS: In obedience to | tion, the government is still indebted he will of the people and to their pres- for the amount of the surplus thus acence by the authority vested in me by crued, which it must ultimately pay, sponsible duties of president of the Unit- ened, but weakened by a continued decountrymen, and invoking the guidance emergencies to preserve the government the God of our fathers, who has so maintenance of either, has no justificasingularly favored the American people tion. in every national trial, and who will commandments and walk hombly in his

The responsibilities of the high trust income secured by a system of taxation, to which I have been called, always of external or internal, or both. It is the grave importance, are augmented by the settled policy of the government, purprevailing business conditions, entailing sued from the beginning and practiced useful enterprise. The country is suf- raise the bulk of revenue from taxes fering from industrial disturbances from which speedy relief must be had. United States for sale and consumption, vision; our money is all good now, but form of direct taxation, except in time its value must not further be threat- of war. ened. It should all be put upon an enduring basis, not subject to easy attack; supervision of the government. The traction, which will present a remedy

Revision of the Tariff. The best way for the government to maintain its credit is to pay as it goesnot by resorting to loans, but by keeping out of debt-through an adequate upon foreign productions entering the products to market." This purpose will be steadily pursued, both by the enforcement of the laws diately pending. We can approach the problem calmly and patriotically, with-out fearing its effect upon an early elec-The country is clearly opposed to any needless additions to the subjects of internal taxation, and is committed operating a store and practically forcing Our currency should continue under the by its latest popular utterance to the system of tariff taxation. There can be in the vicinity are under the same sus- several forms of our paper money offer, no misunderstanding, either, about the principle upon which this taxation shall be levied. Nothing has ever been made plainer at a general election than that the controlling principle in the raising | to appreciate, the great value and bene- terests of the United States. without diminishing the circulating me- of revenue on imports, a zealous care fit of our constitution and laws, and Again, whatever action congress may dium, or offering a premium for its con- for American interests and American labor is wished. The people have defor those arrangements, which, tempo- clared that such legislation should be rary in their nature, might well in the had as will give ample protection and years of our prosperity have been dis- encouragement to the industries and are engaged in a fight before the legis- placed by wiser provisions. With ade- the development of our country. It is, spread of knowledge and free educa- my duty as president to convene conlature. The road operates an insurance quate revenue assured, but not until therefore, earnestly hoped and expected tion. Illiteracy must be banished from then, we can enter upon such changes will, at the earliest prac- the land if we shall attain that high day, the 15th day of March, 1897. in our fiscal laws as will, while insur- ticable moment, enact revenue legislany as the foremost of th ened nations of the world, which, under providence, we ought to achieve. Reforms in the civil service must go plying sufficient revenue for public purposes, will still be signally beneficial genuine, not perfunctory, or prompted and heinful to every section and every by a zeal in behalf of any party, simply enterprise of the people. To this policy we are all, of whatever party, firmly bound by the voice of the people-a in favor of the present law, and I shall for years have distracted our councils power vastly more potential than the attempt its enforcement in the spirit in and marred our true greatness as a naexpression of any political platform. The paramount duty of congress is to stop deficiencies by the restoration of cept appointment under the govern-ment, retaining faithful and devoted public servants in office, but shielding south no longer divide on the old lines, that protective legislation which has sion to take under early consideration always been the foremost prop of the public servants in office, but shielding treasury. The passage of such a law or none, under the authority of any rule laws will strengthen the credit of the or custom who are inefficient, incompe-country, both at home and abroad, and tent or unworthy. The best interests and will be a gain and a blessing to onr go far toward stopping the drain upon of the country demand this and the beloved country. It will be my conthe gold reserve held for the redemption people heartily approve the law wherfather came here to settle the difficulty. action. If such power is vested in the of our currency, which has been heavy ever and whenever it has been thus administered. president, it is my purpose to appoint a and well nigh constant for several Congress should give prompt attenyears. tion to the restoration of our American In the revision of the tariff especial merchant marine, once the pride of the he was himself locked up on a charge of command public confidence, both on acenactment and extension of the reci-procity principle of the law of 1890, by which so great a stimulus was given to which so great a stimulus was given to consideration. The United States our foreign trade in new and advantageous markets for our surplus agri-in every field of enterprise and endeavor cultural and manufactured products. until we have become foremost in nearly The brief trial given this legislation all the great lines of inland trade, comamply justifies a further experiment and merce and industry. Yet while this is additional discretionary power in the true, our American merchant marine making of commercial treaties, the end has been steadily declining until it is has been steadily declining until it is now lower in the per centage and ton-the United States." in view always to be the opening up of nage and the number of vessels emnew markets for the products of our ployed than it was prior to the civil country by granting concessions to the war. Commendable progress has been The question of international bi- products of other lands that we need made of late years in the upbuilding of the American navy, but we must sup-plement these efforts by providing as a proper consort for it a merchant marine of all the people in the discharge of my solemn responsibilities. attention. It will be my constant en- do not involve any loss of labor to our plement these efforts by providing as a amply sufficient for our own carrying trade to foreign countries. The question is one that appeals both to our business necessities and the patriotic aspirations of a great people. It has been the policy of the United States since the foundation of the govcoined, and of that which hereafter may of manufacturing will be a relief to both ernment to cultivate relations of peace be coined, must be kept constantly at No portion of our people is more devoted and amity with all the nations of the par with gold by every resource at our to the institutions of free government, world, and this accords with my conlarge number of acres of land included command. The credit of the govern- nor more loyal in their support, while ception of our duty now. We have cherished the policy of noninterference ternal Piles that in Hemorrhoidine we with the affairs of foreign governments, have a positive cure. The treatment is wisely inaugurated by Washington, unlike any thing heretofore used and its keeping ourselves from entanglement spplication so perfect that every ves-either as allies or foes, content to leave tige of the disease is eradicated. Hembe unheeded. Economy is demanded in every branch Legislation helpful to producers is beneficial to all. The depressed condi- of their own domestic concerns. It will be used for an eye ointment, yet posessorrhoidine is a harmless compound, can against the making of long-time leases, of the government at all times, but es- tion of industry on the farm and in the be our aim to pursue a firm and digni. es such healing power that when apwhich it was feared ex-Secretary pecially in periods like the present de- manufactory has lessened the ability of fied foreign policy, which shall be just, pression of business and distress among the people to meet the demands upon impartial, ever watchful of our nathe people. The severest economy must them, and they rightfully expect that tional honor, and always insisting upon In order that no hasty action might be observed in all public expenditures, not only a system of revenue shall be the enforcement of the lawful rights of American citizens everywhere. Our diplomacy should seek nothing more, and accept nothing less than is due us. We want no wars of conquest. We must Ine Fostes Man'r's Co. Council Bluffs, lowa, for testimonials and information. leases and protesting against the execu-tisn of leases to run for more than one relief that can come must be from de-expenditures. Business conditions are gression. War should never be entered year. Secretary Francis refused to do creased expenditures. But the present not the most promising. It will take into until every endeavor has failed. anything in the matter, leaving a mem- must not become the permanent condi- time to restore the prosperity of former Peace is preferable to war in almost orandum on his desk for Secretary Bliss tion of the government. It has been years. If we cannot promptly attain it, every contingency. Arbitration is the true method of settlement of international as well as local or individual dif. ferences. It was recognized as the best means of adjustment of differences of universally enjoyed today than ever be-fore. These guarantees must be sacred-ly preserved and wisely strengthened. The constituted authorities must be The constituted authorities must be cheerfully and vigorously upheld. Lynchings must not be tolerated, and in a great and civilized country like the United States, courts, not mobs, must execute the penalties of the law. The in a great and civilized country like the the public duty. places the responsibility of such neglect on the executive him-self. The condition of the public treas-ury, as has been indicated, demands the preservation of public order, the right immediate consideration of congress. It of discussion, the integrity of courts alone has the power to provide revenues and the orderly administration of jas-tice must continue forever the rock of under such circumstances, I can view in tice must continue forever the rock of safety upon which our government se-curely rests. Opposition to Trusts. One of the lessons taught by the late election, which all can rejoice in, is that the people and their presence at the seat the citizens of the United States are both of government in the execution of the law-respecting and law-abiding people, sovereign will should not operate as an law-respecting and law-abiding people, not easily swerved from the path of pat-be no better time to put the government riotism and honor.

This is in entire accord with the genins of our institutions and but emphasizes the advantages of inculcating ever a and nothing is more binding on the great love for law and order in the fut-ure. Immunity should be granted to none who violate the laws, whether in-dividuals, corporations or communities; and as the constitution imposes upon the a year after it had been chosen, deprives president the duty of both its own ex-ecution and of the statutes enacted in pursuance of its provisions. I shall endeavor carefully to carry them into ef. It is evident, therefore, that to post-fect. The declaration of the party now pone action in the presence of so great a restored to power has been in the past that of opposition to all combination of capital organized in trusts, or otherwise, the interest of the people. Our actions to control arbitrarily the condition of now will be freer from mere partisan consideration than if the question of trade among our citizens. And it has supported such legislation tariff revision was postponed until the

as "will prevent the execution of all regular session of congress. We are schemes to oppress the people by undue charges on their supplies, or by unjust rates for the transportation of their products to market."<sup>2</sup> regular session of congress. We are nearly two years from a congressional election, and politics cannot so greatly distract us as if such contest was imme-diately pending. We can approach the now in existence, and the recommenda- tion. Our fellow citizens who may distion and support of such new statutes as agree with us upon the character of this may be necessary to carry it into effect. legislation prefer to have the question Our naturalization and immigration settled now, even against their precon laws should be further improved to the ceived views-and perhaps settled so constant promotion of a safer, abler, and reasonably, as I trust and believe it will a higher citizenship. A grave peril to be, as to insure great permanence-the republic would be a citizenship too than to have further uncertainty menignorant to understand, or too vicious acing the vast and varied business in against all who come here to make war | take will be ziven a fair opportunity for | Spring Stock of upon them, our gates must be promptly trial before the people are called to pass and tightly closed. Nor must we be judgment upon it, and this I consider s unmindful of the need of improvement great essential to the rightful and last-among our own citizens, but with the ing settlement of the question. In view zeal of our forefathers encourage the of these considerations I shall deem it will soon be here and we are ready was? to supply you with . . . .

• Faithful Pe

Fresh Garden and Field Seeds

200

either in bulk or packages. These seeds come from one of the most reliable growers in the country and we can recommend them as fresh. We have also received our

+ GARDEN TOOLS. + In the Hardware Line we carry a full stock.

of their wages, and in taking its policies the employes contfact to waive all claim against the company in case they are waiver good, the Temple amendment waiver should be good. The road at smendment, which has passed the house.

Son and Father Both In Jail. SIGUX CITY, In., March 8 .- While attempting to secure his son's release from fall here ex-Sheriff W. L. Handy of the revision of our coinage, banking Warsan, Neb,, succeeded in getting and currency laws, and give them that himself incarcerated. E. W. Handy. the son, was recently arrested on a charge of passing a bogus check. His mands, I shall cordially concur in such When his son's release was promised only on pyment of the checks and court costs, Handy grew so abusive th t citizens of different parties, who will compounding felony.

Iowa Iron Works Sold.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, March 8.-The Iowa Iron works were sold under foreclosuce to the German bank, holder of a mortgage for $57,000. B. E. Linehan, now building a boat at the works, bid $42,- made as to receive the support of all 000. The plant cost over $150,000.

Fire at Fairfield.

FAIRFIELD, Ia., March 8 .- Fire destroyed Joel Turney & Co.'s wagon prove beneficial to the entire country. works. All of the machinery and a large amount of manufactured goods were lost. Loss, $50,000; insurance, $30,000.

Dogs After the Does.

FORT DODGE, Iowa, March 8 .- Vicious deer in the park.

BLISS HOLDS UP THE LEASES.

New Secretary Gets an Insight Into the Thurston County Fight.

WASHINGTON, March 8 .- Leases to a in the Omaha and Winnebago reservaof the Interior Bliss. Letters and telegrams were received by Senator Thurs- be unheeded. ton during the last week protesting Francis might execute without hnowledge of the protests being entered.

of the case.

Tale May Lose a Bequest. the will of the late William Lamson, by should always be large enough to meet 1 am sure, be found lacking in disposi-ninth congress, in 1859, and its application of the deduction of a certain part ing safety and volume to our money, no tion that shall be fair, reasonable, conlonger impose upon the government the servative, just, and which, while supnecessity of maintaining so large a gold reserve, with its attendant and inevitadamaged. The courts having held the ble temptations to speculation. Most of our financial laws are the outgrowth of was introduced to provide that no such experience and trial, and should not be amended without investigation and demonce sent a strong lobby to oppose the onstration of the wisdom of the proposed changes. We must be both sure we are right, and "make haste slowly." If, therefore, congress, in its wisdom, shall deem its expedient to create a commisexhaustive, careful and dispassionate examination that the importance decommission of prominent, well-informed count of their ability and special fitness Business experience and public training may thus be combined, and the patriotic zeal of the friends of the country be so directed that such a report will be parties, and our finances cease to be the subject of mere partisan contention. The experiment is, at all events, worth a trial, and, in my opinion, it can but As to Bimetallism.

for the work.

metallism will have early and earnest and cannot produce ourselves, and which deavor to secure it by co-operation with own people, but tend to increase their the other great commercial powers of employment. The depression of the past dogs broke into the deer park of John F. the world. Until that consideration is four years has fallen with especial se-Duncombe and killed seven out of ten realized, when the parity between our verity upon the great body of the coungold and silver money springs from and try, and upon none more than the holdis supported by the relative value of the ers of small farms. Agriculture has lantwo metals, the value of silver already guished and labor suffered. The revival coined, and of that which hereafter may of manufacturing will be a relief to both. ment, the integrity of its currency, and none bears more cheerfully or fully its tion, in Thurston county, have been the inviolability of its obligations must proper share in the maintenance of the held up, pending review by Secretary be preserved. This was the command- government, or is better entitled to its ing verdict of the people, and it will not wise and liberal care and protection.

be taken, Senator Thurston addressed a and extravagance stopped wherever it established that will secure the largest letter to Secretary Francis calling his is found, and prevented, wherever, in income with the lightest burden, but attention to objections made to the the future, it may be developed. If the that every means will be taken to deas to what had been done and the status our uniform practice to retire, not in- we can resolutely turn our faces in that crease our outstanding obligations, and direction and aid its return by friendly this policy must be again resumed and legislation. However troublesome the The May Lose a Bequest. TROY, N. Y., March 8.-It is probable vigoronsiy enforced. Our revenues attantion may appear, congress will not, employers and employees by the Forty-

In conclusion, I congratulate the country upon the fraternal spirit of the Reforms in the civil service must go on, but the changes should be real and will everywhere so apparent. The recent election not only most fortunately demonstrated the obliteration of secbecause it happens to be in power. As tional or geographical lines, but, to which it was enacted. The purpose in tion. The triumph of the people, whose view was to secure the most efficient verdict is carried into effect today, is service of the best men who would ac- not the triumph of one section, nor but upon principles and policies. Let stant aim to do nothing and permit nothing to be done that will arrest or disturb this growing sentiment of unity and co-operation, this revival of esteem and affiliation which now animates so

Let me again repeat the words of the oath administered by the chief justice, which, in their respective spheres, so far as applicable, I would have all my countrymen observe:

"I will faithfully executive the office of president of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, preserve,

This is the obligation I have reverent-ly taken before the Lord most high. To keep it will be my single purpose, my constant prayer-and I shall confident-RAVENNA, O., March 8 .- The safe in the postoffice here was blown open last night with dynamite and between $500 and $600 in money and stamps stolen.

Order by telephone from Newton's Book Store.

Diamanta Spectacles.

Deutsche Apotheke.

Corner of Spruce and Sixth-sts.

C. F. IDDINGS, Postoffice Safe Blown Open.

A Cure for Piles. We can assure all who suffer with In-

