"Will you please charge it?" "O no, Mrs. Jones, we don't do business that way. We would have to transfer this account to the day book, then to the journal, then to the ledger, and Mrs. Smith is waiting to be waited on, and we haven't the time. Sorry we can't, but King Credit is waiting for a customer. He will gladly wait on you." "But he will charge me more for the goods." "Well, Mrs. Jones, he would have to in order to make good his bad accounts."

These are only a few of the facts in connection with the credit business. There are hundreds of others which we will present to you later on.

HAYSEED.

Will Jolliff is building a commodious residence of Nebraska brick on his homestead. As this is the third, he says he will guard it with a shot gun until he proves up.

Several from here attended the entertainment at Somerset Friday evening to hear the rendition of "The Lost Loaf" by home talent which proved to be a success in every respect. "Patty Jones," the star of the drama, proved herself a decided success, and equal to the talent demanded in portraying the beauties of the character she represented. "Lilly" proved fully an equal success in her part. In fact the drama proved a decided hit to the amusement loving people, and a great boom to the company.

Since our last we have had another rain, one-fourth of an inch of rain falling. Corn and early potatoes are in excellent condition except a few fields of the former which were replanted on account of the ravages of the gophers and cut worms.

KEM PRECINCT.

It is a pity the tramps cannot be put to work on our county roads.

Mr. Beauchamp is pressing hay for Wm. Diedrich.

Perry & Mathewson's syndicate circus, museum and menagerie company came to grief at West Point Wednesday. It had been playing in hard luck and when it struck that town it found that the citizens had blown their money for a prize fight a few evenings before and had no circulating medium for the circus. It is hopelessly stranded.

It would almost seem a pity to have General Weyler leave Cuba before General Gomez has thrashed the ground with him. But Weyler's removal will not settle the Cuban question. It was there before Weyler was on the ground. He has only demonstrated the weakness of the Spanish method of doing business. It is not Weyler, but Spain, the Cuban people are rebelling against.—Ex.

It is estimated that $16,000.00 will be the cost of the champagne for the great jubilee. It will be the greatest cork popping event of the century.
