IT is too much to expect men who have for months been howling calamity to admit that complete prosperity is in sight until it is actually forced upon them .- Omaha

W. J. Bryan proposes to go around the world. If he will wait until 1900 the people will send him free in a balloon. He could easily manufacture his own gas as he goes along, if his mouth is in good running order.

The half million democrats who refused to support the Chicago platform will please take notice that Richard Parks Bland announces through the St. Louis Post-Dispatch that "any man who voted against Mr. Bryan is not a democrat."-Springfield (Ill.) Journal.

Ex-candidate Bryan knows on which side his bread is buttered. He is quite conscious of the fact that the return of the gold democrat to the ranks of the democracy would be fatal for his ambitions for track and did not discover their error the presidential candidacy in 1900. Hence, he has issued a new pronunciamento announcing that gold democrats cannot be admitted to the democratic party unless they abandon the gold standard and accept free silver as the principle of democracy.-Hub.

VEST IS UNSUCCESSFUL.

Attempts to Place White Pine on the Free Washington, June 8 .- The senate Monday disposed of the lumber paragraph, which has been more stubbornly contested than any other feature of the bill thus far, by defeating the motion of Senator Vest to place white pine on the free list-yeas 20, nays 28. The contest was mainly significant in breaking party lines which have been maintained with few exceptions during the early stages of the debate. On the final vote eight Democratic senators voted against Mr. Vest's proposition-Messrs. Bacon and Clay of Georgia, McEnery of Louisana, McLauren and Tillman of South Carolina, Martin of Virginia, Rawlins of Utah and White of California. On the other hand Mr. Carter, Republican, and Messrs. Cannon and Mantle, silver Republicans, voted for the Vest motion. Following this a vote to substitute the Wilson schedule was defeated-yeas, 17; nays, 37, and the schedule was agreed to as reported. The debate preceeding the vote was at times very breezy, owing to the break of political lines.

A general discussion of the future program of the bill continued before the senate adjourned. It led to a statement by Mr. Allison in charge of the bill that the committee probably would submit amendments to the sugar schedule. For this reason he announced that the sugar schedule would be passed over and the tobacco schedule taken up.

Democrats Oppose Adjournment. WASHINGTON, June 8 .- The house today passed the senate bills to amend the act to authorize the construction of a steel bridge across the river at St. Louis, and to authorize the construction of a bridge across Pearl river, Mississippi. Put a Duty on Cetton. WASHINGTON, June 9 .- By the decisive vote of yeas, 42; nays, 19, the senate Tuesday adopted an amendment to the tariff bill placing raw cotton, the great product of the south, on the dutiable list at 20 per cent ad valorem. It is the first time in the history of tariff legislation that a duty on cotton has been incorporated in a bill.

The amendment was proposed by Bacon (Dem., Ga.) on his individual responsibility and without the approval of the finance committee, which thus far has been requisite to the success of every amendment except a minor one, which went through by default. The amendment led to a spirited debate, Democratic senators showing a wide difference of views, and at times exchanging sharp personal criticism. On the final vote six Democrats voted with the Republicans for the Bacon amendment, while the negative vote was solidly Democratic with one exception.

The debate took up most of the day, and but little progress was made on the bill. Early in the day the sugar schedule was passed over and the agricultural schedule taken up. The paragraph on cattle went over, but the balance of the agricultural schedule up to and including paragraph 228 was agreed to as reported, all amendments except that of Mr. Bacon being rejected.

LONDON, June 9 .- The St. James Gazette this afternoon, commenting on the dispute between Japan and Hawaii, which it describes as a "corrupt little republic, run by a handful of American fillibusters," says: "As Hawaii has no resisting power, the question arises, will the United States government see its protege through its trouble? The Japanese may land an armed party at any moment. Then what will the Philadelphia do? Japan, since she smashed the Chinese, is believed to be spoiling for a fight with a white power, and she may find America ready to oblige her sooner than she expects."

Appeal to America. NEW YORK, June 8 .- A special to The Herald from Havana says: A strong appeal on behalf of the starving and dying reconcentrados in Matanzas, who excited pity in the hearts of General Lee and Mr. Calhoun, has been made to the people of the United States. Since the United States government has begun measures for the relief of its citizens in Matanzas, the desperate plight of the Cuban reconcentrados there has resulted in a petition, signed by a hundred of them, in which they beg that they may be included in the charity.

Satisfaction at Havana. HAVANA, June 7 .- In political circles and among the Spanish general public, where a feeling of acute anxiety had existed as to the outcome of the cabinet crisis in Madrid, keen satisfaction is felt at the news that Senor Canovas has received fresh proof of confidence from the crown. POLICE END THE FIGHT.

tharkey-Maher Contest at New York Stopped In the Seventh Round. New York, June 10 .- Peter Maher and Tom Sharkey fought last night at the Palace Athletic club for a $15,000 purse. At the end of the seventh round the police interfered and the contest resulted in a most unsatisfactory draw. Never in the history of the ring has there been such an enormous attendance at a boxing bout in this vicinity. The boxing was very tame for five rounds, neither man showing a mark.

In the sixth round Sharkey with a well directed straight right on the mouth sent Peter sprawling half way through the ropes, where he struggled for five seconds before he regained his feet. As Maher was getting up Sharkey rushed toward him, but was called back by Choyinski, who was evidently afraid that the sailor might commit a foul. Ten seconds later the gong ended the sixth round and when Maher returned to his corner he spat out a lot of blood.

Sharkey's friends, when they saw this, yelled "first blood for Sharkey," and there was a great deal of cheering. The seventh round was nearly completed when Maher, after getting in several good blows on Sharkey, sent Sharkey down near the ropes with a right on the wind and a left on the jaw. Tom was up inside of five seconds and rushed in to a clinch. In this clinch Maher kept working his right on the body and when the gong sounded neither heeded the warning of the time keeper, but kept on hitting each other. One of Maher's seconds rushed over and grabbed Maher. While he was trying to pull the big fellow away Sharkey swung his right on his face, dazing him. By this time the house was in an uproar, and there were cries of "foul" from the partisans of both men. The din was teriffic, but was increase tenfold when Inspector McLaughlin ordered the police to arrest all those The principals were the first placed under arrest and then the seconds and referees were told to accompany the officers. While all this was going on, thousands of spectators were clamoring for a decision from the referee, who was busily engaged in arguing with the officers who surrounded him. Patrolman Tieden Glover Will Recov cape In the Darknes Tragedy at Omaha-Story

ARMED

OMAHA, June 10 .- Patrol C Dan Tiedeman was shot and died hours later and Patrolman Albert Glover was seriously wounded shortly after 3:30 a. m. while attempting to place under arrest three burglars who had entered the saloon of Henry Nelson, corner of Thirtieth and Spaulding streets. The miscreants who fired the shots succeeded in making good their escape.

Shortly after 3 o'clock a telephone message was received at the police station to the effect that burglars had gained an entrance to Henry Nelson's saloon, 2923 Spaulding street. The patrol wagon, with Officer Dan Tiedeman in charge, went at once to the scene. The wagon drew up in front of the place and Tiedeman went at once toward the back of the building. Midway of the building is a small window which opens upon a vacant lot. As Tiedeman reached this point he saw a man's head protrude, and immediately called upon him to surrender. The man, with an oath, sprang to the ground, and was immediately followed by two others.

Tiedeman called to them to halt, but instead the first man addressed leveled a shotgun, which he carried, and fired point blank at Tiedeman. The charge struck him full in the stomach. The officer returned the shot with four from his own gun, and then sank to the Officer Glover, in the meantime, had passed around the building on the west side, and came upon the men as they started to make their escape. The man who had fired the shot at Tiedeman concerned in the fight. Glover, however, managed to shoot at his assailants, and it is thought hit one of them. A shot was fired by one of the other men, which took effect in Glover's nose and eye.

The victims were taken to the hospital. Tiedeman was bleeding profusely, and died at 1 o'clock. Officer Glover's wounds are serious, but not fatal, Both are men of family.

A big squad of police explored the neighborhood where the shooting took place in search of the robbers, but failed to get any trace of their men.

Detectives armed themselves with a search warrant for the premises of the Kestners at 3212 Emmett street. Suspicion rested on these three men chiefly for the reason that the sacks found in the saloon corresponded with those found in the possession of the Kestners when they were caught in criminal operations in the past.

Chance for More Trouble. JRBANA, O., June 6.-Urbana this populace thronging the streets, the militia and sheriff hiding in the county jail, the spectacle of a peaceable community, a fleeing sheriff, a missing captain and a militia company making themselves scarce is presented. Nothing is known of the whereabouts of Sheriff McLean understanding that the sheriff drove to Springfield, and nobody outside the captain's circle of immediate friends knows where he went. It was reported last evening that a mob of 150 was organizing to go to Springfield after the sheriff, and such word went to Springfield, having the effect, it is said, of driving the sheriff off to Dayton. He is universally condemned by the people, and held responsible for the shooting of citizens by the militia.

As for the captain, he is condemned for ordering the soldiers to fire and the boys of the company for firing into a crowd of their fellow citizens. After their escape from the jail, the members of the company have not dared show their support died away latter when favorable state have left the city. A liveryman took a timid squad of them to Springfield.

Judge Hall Overrules the ex-State Auditor's Demurcer. LINCOLN, June 10.—District Judge Hall overruled the demurrer to information charging Eugene Moore, late state auditor, with embezzlement of $23,000 and holds him for trial. Ex-Auditor Moore was arrested early in the year when the shortage was discovered. No denial of his peculations was made, and he now sets up the plea that he cannot be held as an embezzler, for the reason that the parties from who he received fees should not have paid it to him, but to the state treasurer as provided by law. He holds that he is amenable to the insurance companies only and that they are still indebted to the state. It was this plea that Judge Halloverruled, but it will act as a defense when the case comes up for trial in a few days.

Bartley, the ex-state tresaurer, charged in the criminal court of this county with embezzlement of over $200,000, show that the most corrupt methods are being employed by certain persons, presumably acting in the interest of Bartley, and that a gigantic scheme has been in operation in this city which has for its object the influencing of members of the jury panel now on duty in the district court. It is said to have been learned from a reliable source that the people involved in this scheme are men who have been prominent in state politics for years. A number of these persons, who are known, have been in this city for several days stopping at obscure hotels under assumed names, and have had runners out in all directions. These facts have been in the possession of the officers, but the first public development was made when the time arrived for commencing the trial of Bartley in the criminal court. The county attorney filed an information alleging an attempt to bribe a juror and Judge Baker instructed the issuance of a writ against Wright, the man named by the prosecutor.
