

—Mrs. J. L. Minor has been seriously ill for some time past with an attack of nervous prostration.

—Suits made to order from $13.50 upwards at Star clothing house.

—A cottage prayer meeting was held last evening at the residence of Eugene Sawyer in the Third ward.

—Don't fail to call at the North Side Hardware and examine the fine line of cooking and heating stoves. Prices low as the lowest.

—C. S. Sawyer is moving his household goods from east Sixth to Front street, to the Murphy house, opposite the freight depot.

—The Wilcox Dept. Store handles salt by the carload.

—Mrs. W. H. Hamilton had the misfortune Wednesday to fall from a chair upon which she was standing and sustained some very severe bruises.

—John E. Evans, who returned from Omaha Sunday, but was again summoned to appear as a witness in the case of the State against the Bartley bondsmen, returned home last night.

The beautifully engraved diploma issued by the American Business College, Omaha, Neb., for graduates are the finest ever seen. They are steel engravings, 22x28 inches in size.

—The latest in hats at The Wilcox Dept. Store.

The next issue of the College News, published by the American Business College, Omaha, Neb., will contain a large number of testimonials from students and graduates of the A. B. C.

—It is said that the servant girls of North Platte are forming a union and will demand an increase in wages, which if not granted, a strike will be inaugurated. This, however, is not to be considered official.

—Jim Hall's bird dog that disappeared mysteriously last week was recovered yesterday. The quadruped was found on Trot Robert's place near Maxwell and was returned to its owner by Fred Ericsson.

—Mrs. B. L. Robinson entertained a party of young people yesterday evening at her home in honor of Calla McDonald, the occasion being that young lady's birth anniversary. An exceedingly pleasant evening resulted.

If you wish to be enrolled as a free student in the mail department of the American Business College, Omaha, Neb., send in your application at once. Their offer of free course by mail will be open for a limited time only.

—Col. Collins' Klondike cat has again disappeared. The Colonel has suspicions that the feline is held in bondage by some enterprising small boy with the expectation that the Colonel will offer a handsome reward for its return.

—The Wilcox Dept. Store will call for your oil cans, leave orders at the store.

—A message was received yesterday from Mrs. Lizzie Maher, of Washington, stating that she was detained owing to some flaw in her ticket, and will not arrive in North Platte before Sunday. The funeral of Mr. Maher has been postponed until that time.

—The republican nominees and several members of the county central committee held a meeting yesterday afternoon and mapped out the campaign. Messrs. Barry, Weingand and Holtry left this forenoon on a trip through the valley between this city and Sutherland.

The American Business College, Omaha, Neb., has a notice in the local columns of this paper offering a thorough course of instruction in Book-keeping and Commercial Arithmetic by mail free of tuition. To avail yourself of this liberal offer is the same as accepting a present of $50.

—Buy your groceries of the Wilcox Dept. Store and save $5.00 a month.

—W. V. Wood, of Omaha, traveling agent for the Sweet Water coal company, was taken suddenly sick in the Pacific hotel office this morning and for a time it was feared something serious would result. He was setting in a chair when stricken, and toppled over unconscious, but rallied and is feeling some better.

—Earn Sandy is wearing his left arm in a sling, the result of a fall in Alexander's barn. He had been riding a horse and drove into the barn to put the animal up, when Alex McMain jerked off its bridle and struck the horse. The animal made a leap. Earn grabbed for a rafter, but missed it and fell to the ground on his head and arm. His injuries are not serious though very painful.

Would you like a new Chamber Suit of three pieces

FOR TEN DOLLARS?

I presume you would. We cannot sell you one for that money but you can purchase a good one for a little more money. We have the finest line of FURNITURE ever shown in the city. Call and see our new Couches and Lounges. We have something cheap in an extension table, and our dining room Chairs are the best made for the money.

ODD FELLOWS BLOCK.

E. B. WARNER.

WHEN THE LEAVES

Begin to fall, it's time to think about

Heavy Clothing.

They have begun to fall. See our line of OVERCOATS

AT $10.00.

We have cheaper ones. Complete line of boys' and children's OVERCOATS from $1.25 upwards.

ONE PRICE. PLAIN FIGURES.

STAR CLOTHING HOUSE,

W. A. VOLLMER, Prop.,

Opposite Postoffice—Across the street from old location.

GRAND MILLINERY OPENING

AT RENNIE'S

JUST OPENED—$1500 Worth of the choicest Millinery ever opened in this city.

French pattern hats, walking hats, and hats and caps of every description, now on sale. Miss Tulley, of Chicago, has arrived, and will take charge of the department. All ladies are invited to call and see the choicest line of Millinery ever exhibited in North Platte, at

RENNIE'S RENNIE'S

Look at This!

9 Pounds Package Coffee for $1.00

5 gallons Headlight Oil for 75 Cts.

Correspondingly low prices on all other goods in our line. We will not be undersold by any concern in Western Nebraska.

HARRINGTON & TOBIN.

—Healey has got what you want in real estate, see him.

—Cheap: Why that house and lot I bought of Healey was the cheapest thing I ever got in my life.

—J. H. Dunning has added a luxurious piece of furniture to his household in the shape of a handsome upright piano.

—S. A. Douglas is moving his household goods into the Baptist parsonage where the hotel will be conducted as heretofore.

—Attend the W. R. C. supper and entertainment at the opera house this evening. The ladies have prepared an excellent meal.

—Henry Waltemath yesterday moved into the residence he lately purchased of T. C. Patterson, the latter taking the house vacated by the former.

Our method of instruction by mail is highly recommended by our patrons. Send for testimonials and list of names and addresses of students. It is free. The American Business College, Omaha, Neb.

—Car of apples just received at The Wilcox Department Store.

—W. P. Collins has on sale at Marti's a case of honey from his apiary which is almost as clear as crystal. It is evidence that the quality of honey produced in this section of Nebraska is far above the average.

—The Jake Morsch building adjoining the Nebraska house on Front street, is undergoing a general renovating and will be fitted out for restaurant purposes for his son Joseph who will open up a restaurant in a week or two.

—William George, who has been down several weeks with typhoid fever, has recovered sufficiently to be taken to Maxwell where he will stay a week or two before returning to work on the Rnsel Fowles ranch in McPherson county.

Whatever your pursuit in life may be, a thorough business education is what you need. The American Business College, Omaha, Neb., now offers a complete business course by mail free of advertising purposes. If you wish to obtain a good business education you will do well to investigate the matter and make application for admission as a free student at once.

While the American Business College, Omaha, Neb., now offers to give a complete business course by mail free of tuition, we would advise our young people to investigate the matter and profit by it.

—Mrs. H. C. Rennie entertained very pleasantly last evening a small party of young people in honor of her sister, Mrs. L. Burns, of Sioux City. High-five was the principal feature of amusement after which delicacies were served.

—Clarence Redmond had the index finger of his right hand squeezed in a printing press in the Telegraph office Tuesday evening. The injury is a very painful one and Clarence says he hit the nail square on the head for once in his life.

Did it Ever Occur to You?

That a Watch which does NOT run is better than a poor one which DOES RUN! A Watch which does not run is right twice a day, while a cheap Watch that runs is never right. If you contemplate buying a Watch call on us and we will furnish you one that will always be right.

HARRY DIXON,

Watchmaker and Jeweler.

Engraving free of charge.

—Two globe-trotters named Cohen and Polk, trundling wheelbarrows from New York City to San Francisco, will reach North Platte next Tuesday. They are to make the trip in 210 days on a wager of five thousand dollars. The contract provides that the men shall make their expenses while en route. They left New York City June 8th.

—The supreme court has handed down a decision in the case of Warren Rema, of Keith county, who was convicted last spring of stealing a cow and was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. The supreme court affirms the sentence of the lower court. Rema has been out on bail awaiting the decision of the higher court, but will now be taken to the pen.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Frank Ware, of Hershey, tarried in the city Wednesday.

Mrs. E. R. Smith and mother of Gandy were visitors here yesterday.

E. Johnson and A. L. Brooks of Maxwell stopped at the Neville last night.

Will, son of John Conley is reported seriously sick at the E. W. ranch.

N. A. Davis came in last night and will spend a few days with his family.

Elder Leonard came in from Lincoln last night on his way to Kimball.

Mrs. Dave Hunter of Sutherland was in the city yesterday the guest of friends.

C. M. Fisher was among the Logan county visitors in the city Wednesday.

Mrs. Martin McEvoy has returned from a three weeks visit with her parents in Omaha.

Stack inspector James Dillard, of the round house, is nursing a very badly sprained ankle.

Geo. Nauman, jr., went to Gandy Wednesday and bought up several head of cattle for killing.

Platt White returned Wednesday evening from a visit of a couple of days at the ranch at Overton.

Mrs. Fred Grau returned last night from a three week's visit with her parents at Omaha.

Chas. Crate, the new proprietor of the Hotel Neville returned Tuesday from a business trip to Lincoln.

Mrs. C. L. Black and Mrs. Chas. Hendy have returned from a two weeks' visit with friends in Denver.

J. E. Baker and wife will be home to-night from a six days' visit at their old home in Cambridge, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Harry Langdon and daughter Grace returned Tuesday night from a month's visit with friends in Denver.

Mrs. Annie F. Church expects to go to Hastings the early part of next week to attend a meeting of the W. R. C. officials.

Geo. E. French returned last night from Lincoln where he attended the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias.

Miss Anna Sillason, who went to Denmark early last spring to visit her parents, returned to North Platte Tuesday night.

Mrs. Seth Sherwood and Mrs. A. McMichael attended a meeting of the Methodist ladies' aid society at Maxwell Wednesday.

Mrs. G. Rebhausen and daughter Anna left Monday night for Omaha where they will be the guests of friends for a month.

Mrs. John Bratt has returned from Peru, this state, where she was called two or three weeks ago by the sickness of her daughter.

Ed. Nickerson, of Wallace, populist candidate for county surveyor, was in the city yesterday patching up his political fences.

Mrs. A. D. Williams returned last night to her home in Cripple Creek, Colo., after a three weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Van Camp.

Wm. Briggs started for his home in Grand Junction, Colorado, last night after a visit of several days with friends. He will stop off in Denver en route.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Dow, of the national cemetery at McPherson, are in town to-day. Mrs. Dow has recently returned from a protracted visit in Wisconsin.

Martin Gress has returned home after a few weeks' absence in the east, a part of the time having been spent in Chicago. Mr. Gress will remain in town for a few weeks.

Miss Rosa Ginsburg of Denver, sister of Mrs. Julius Pizer, and Peter Pizer of Windsor, Ontario, brother of Julius and Jacob Pizer, have been visiting relatives in town this week.

Mrs. "Jack" Davis went to Omaha yesterday morning to visit friends. Master Arnold, son of Victor Meyer, went with her to feast his eyes for the first time on the sights of the metropolis.

Miss Mabel Randolph came from Big Springs Wednesday and is the guest of Mrs. Ed. Weston. Her parents will arrive to-morrow and occupy the dwelling vacated by Rev. A. Coslet.

Rev. L. W. Chandler came down from Ogalala this morning to attend a meeting of the committee on program of the Methodist ministerial association of the North Platte district, which meets to-day.

H. C. Rennie left Wednesday night for Chicago to buy a new stock of goods, and from there will go to Racine, Wisconsin, to be present at the wedding of his daughter, Miss Mattie Rennie to Chas. Taylor, which occurs on the 20th inst.

Our Grocery Stock..

Has just been received and is being marked and shelved.

Down goes the combination price on Kerosene Oil Our Price is only 15c a gallon

Nine pounds of Coffee for $1.00.

Will give you more bargains in this line as soon as we have completed marking the stock.

Your Trade Solicited.

The Wilcox Dept. Store.

Delivery wagon will be run in connection with store.

RAILROAD NOTES.

A new tank for engine 716, came from Omaha yesterday.

Geo. Davis commenced work in the round house Wednesday.

—Jim Beller, a company employe, sustained a slight injury to his foot yesterday.

Engine 743 is in the back shop this week for light repairs and will be out Saturday.

John Tobin, special officer for the company, was in the city on business Thursday.

The new high pressure pump for the round house was shipped from Omaha this week.

The 949 went through to the Omaha shops from Cheyenne today for an overhauling.

John Duke came down from Sidney on No. 2 Wednesday on business, returning on No. 3.

Martin Gress has secured a job in T. E. McCarthy's fence gang at Cotton, and commenced work to-day.

John B. Brittain, chief clerk of the comptrollers office of the Pennsylvania railroad, stopped in the city awhile Thursday.

Fred H. Thompson, the popular Third district engineer, moved his family here from Missouri this week and will reside here until spring.

F. D. Hadley, traveling passenger agent of the Illinois Central, stopped over night Wednesday and supplied the local office with railroad literature.

John Ell suffered a painful injury to his hand yesterday in the tin shop. He shoved his fingers in a roller in place of the tin and had them squeezed.

General Foreman McCart, of the bridge and building department, is spending all his time just now at Pine Bluffs, where the company is putting in extensive coal chutes.

John Sorenson, R. L. Graves, Morris Cronin and Henry Rebhausen composed a party of hunters who started out last Monday on a week's hunting expedition up north.

All differences having been patched up between the Union Pacific and the Oregon Short Line, the "Portland Flyer" is now a thing of the past, the last one having been run last Sunday.

While putting a side rod on the press in the machine shop yesterday afternoon, Will Jeffers had the fourth finger of his right hand caught between the rod and carriage, and severed at the first joint.

Owing to the scarcity of cars the company mines at Rock Springs and Cerben have almost suspended operations, and at this point are picking up from the ground, coal that was stored for the winter to supply current wants.

John Weisgerber, who with his family returned last week from a three month's visit in Germany, has resumed his position in the car gang. While in Germany he worked for 25 cents per day and board, and it cost him 75 cents per day to keep his family.

Chas. F. Maher, third vice grand master of the B. of L. F., was in the city Wednesday and talked to a fair sized crowd in the firemen's hall in the First national bank building in the afternoon, where an open meeting was held. A business meeting of the order was held in the evening and two new members taken in. Mr. Maher left on No. 3 that night for Cheyenne.

Conductor Mooney had a new caboose last trip, No. 2103, and the practical jokers of the other crews thought they would have some fun with him, and while he was waiting to take out a train Wednesday, we have gained for selling GOOD SHOES at a LOWER PRICE than any other house in town is well merited. Shoes are one of our specialties and we carry a stock which embraces all sizes, all qualities, all prices. We have shoes for men, shoes for women, shoes for children. Our school shoes for children can not be surpassed; there are none better made; their wearing qualities are money savers to the purchaser.

THE REPUTATION

In Our Dry Goods Department

We are receiving new novelties almost every day. Come in and see us.

John H. Day.

The Finger Marks

of good shoemaking can be seen on all our shoes. "Good shoe making" means more than making a shoe that will wear. It means getting a shoe that will WEAR, that FITS, and is ATTRACTIVE to the eye.

$2.00

buys a Ladies' Fine Kid Shoe, lace or button, new coin toe, quality as good as other stores sell for $2.50.

YELLOW FRONT SHOE STORE.

DECATUR & BEEGLE.

Geo. M. Graham, Mgr.

YOUTHFUL EYES

Are sharp ones, usually, and see more than we care to have them. Sometimes they, like older ones, do not see enough. If such is your case you cannot, for your own good, consult us too soon. Our charges are always moderate, and we guarantee all glasses that we fit to give satisfaction.

CLINTON, Jeweler and Optician

Farm Wagons

FOR SALE BY JOS. HERSHEY.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle. Hall's Family Pills are the best.