

IRA L. BARE, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. One Year, cash in advance, $1.25 Six Months, cash in advance, 75 Cents Entered at the North Platte (Nebraska) Postoffice as second-class matter.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1897.

The telephone company this week received a large consignment of supplies.

Union services will be conducted Thanksgiving morning in the Church of Our Saviour.

This week will perhaps wind up the special services now being held in the Methodist church.

A turkey raffle was pulled off last evening at Robt McMurray's home in the Third ward.

The foundation for the Jake Miller residence was begun yesterday on a lot south of W. R. Vernon's.

Fred Ginn has recovered from his seige of sickness and is again at work in Warner's furniture emporium.

Some unscrupulous cuss called at Will Price's place the other night and appropriated a dozen of his nice plump ducks.

Mica Axle Grease 2 boxes for 15c at Wilcox Department Store.

Mrs. T. F. Gantt has awarded A. Picard the contract for building a house on the lot east of her present residence. It is understood the house will be for rent.

Received a car of Fancy Winter Apples. Ask our price and see the fine stock. Harrington & Tobin.

The home missionary society of the M. E. church will give a dime social Friday afternoon, November 26th, at the home of Mrs. A. M. Mason. The public is invited.

Will Blood, of Cleveland, Ohio, nephew of J. S. Clinton, arrived last evening on No. 1 and will take E. J. Newton's place checking up cars for the railroad company at this point.

The North Platte friends of Charley Erswell, of Cheyenne, will be glad to learn that he was acquitted of the charge of murder last Saturday, the jury holding that he shot the two soldiers in self defense.

There's money in Suspenders if they're the right kind. The windows are filled to-day—money in them for you. Twenty-five cents. Star Clothing House.

The teachers' examinations for professional state certificates will be held at the office of the state superintendent, Lincoln, beginning at 8:45 a. m. on December 28, and continuing two days. Those desiring further information may obtain the same by addressing State Superintendent W. R. Jackson.

Joe Todd, who suffered an injury to his left eye a few days ago, went to Omaha last night to consult the railroad company oculist. His eye is greatly inflamed and very painful, and he will likely be obliged to lay idle several weeks while having it treated.

Cornmeal 18 cents for 25 lbs at the Wilcox Department Store.

Saturday was the regular meeting night of the G. A. R. and after the routine work had been disposed of the ladies of the W. R. C. served refreshments, after which a short musical programme was rendered. An apple-picking contest and a cake walk were also pleasing diversions. Those fortunate in being present report having passed a very pleasant evening.

Joe E. Barstow, formerly clerk of the Pacific Hotel at this point, but who is now serving the railroad company in the same capacity at Pocatello, Idaho, stopped off here Sunday night on his return from the east, where he visited relatives for several weeks. Joe has many friends in North Platte who were exceedingly pleased to see him. He continued his journey homeward last night on No. 3.

Granulated Sugar 17 pounds for $1 at Wilcox Department Store.

On Saturday evening about twenty members of the Epworth League reading circle and invited friends met at the home of Prof. J. C. Orr for the purpose of beginning a study of the English people. American authors and current events. After the necessary amount of business had been transacted, the subject of current topics was taken up and discussed at length. Papers on the ancestry, childhood and manhood of Washington Irving were read and discussed; the subject to be continued at the next meeting. The first studies in history were outlined and leaders appointed on the different topics for the next meeting. The members are entering in the work with zeal and energy, manifesting a desire to make this year's work a good success. The next meeting will be held Saturday evening at the home of Miss Eunice Babbitt.

IT IS SAID

"American men are growing taller." We know many of them are not "so short" as they were a year ago and are buying our late and artistic FURNITURE.

AND THE PRICES have considerable to do with it. Call and inspect our FALL LINE. Over 200 Varieties of Picture Moulding. E. B. WARNER. ODD FELLOWS BLOCK.

ALL STYLES OF OVERCOATS

Ready to wear overcoats equal to the best made to order ones, and prices decidedly lower. Kearney's Vicinas Beavers, Chinillas, Lama, Clay Mixtures, Whip Cords. $4 overcoats worth $6. ONE PRICE PLAIN FIGURES. $5 " " 7. $6 " " 8. $7.50 " " 10.50. $10.50 " " 13.50. $13.50 " " 17. $15 " " 20. MONEY BACK FOR ASKING.

The cash business allows us to quote you these prices, so don't send your money away from home. We always show you more styles than most city stores show you, and furthermore we know and study your wants. PLEASE NOTICE OUR SHOW WINDOW. "SEE" BLACK KID.

STAR CLOTHING HOUSE, W. A. VOLLMER, Prop. Opposite Postoffice—Across the street from old location.

Grand Christmas Sale at RENNIE'S

From now till Christmas we will make the greatest clearing sale of the age. An elegant line of Ladies' Coats, Jackets, Muffs, Collarettes, Boas, Mittens and Gloves, at cost and less. Elegant $25.00 fur capes at $15.00. $15.00 15.00. Elegant $20.00 fur capes at $12.50. $12.50 12.50. All our jackets and capes at cost and less. $25 coats and capes at $15. $15 15. $20 coats and capes at $12.50. $12.50 12.50. Elegant $12.50 and $10 Jackets and capes at $6.50 to close. Elegant fur collarettes, $2.50 to $10.00. All our $1.50 and $1.75 kid gloves $1.25. All our elegant $12 dress patterns at $7.50. Elegant fur muffs, from $1.00 to $12.50. $8.50 patterns at 6.00. All dress goods at cost and less. Now is the time of your life to buy goods at your own price. AT RENNIE'S

Crimped Valve Leathers 4c each at Wilcox Dept. Store.

C. S. Clinton has on exhibition souvenir spoons on which are engraved the Episcopal church building in this city.

Mrs. H. L. Walsh received this morning a very handsome souvenir spoon on the bowl of which is an engraving of the Moline, Ill., high school building, which is a magnificent structure.

J. E. Manlick, of Broken Bow, who was the guest of Messrs. Ed and A. L. Davis for a few days, left Sunday night for the east. Mr. Manlick's visit here was ostensibly to clear up some old paper held by the J. I. Case threshing machine company, of Racine, Wis., of which concern he is collector for this territory. He met with good success here in making collections. Mrs. Manlick will continue her visit here a few days longer.

Fillsbury's Best Minneapolis Flour $1.50 per sack at The Wilcox Dept. Store.

Several youngsters were enjoying a spin around the city Sunday afternoon in a light buggy attached to a sprightly animal, and when in front of the Neville hotel the horse and front wheels parted company with the rest of the vehicle, causing the occupants, in the midst of their pleasure, to tumble out promiscuously into the dirt. The little fellows were so completely taken by surprise that they stood gazing for some time in awe and wonderment at the wrecked concern before they could comprehend what had happened.

The coming social event of the week, and one that should elicit the patronage of all who indulge in this mode of pastime, is the Thanksgiving ball to be given tomorrow night at Lloyd's opera house by the Gordon cornet band. The affair is looked forward to with eager anticipation by patrons of the dance and its success, so far as the social feature is concerned, is already assured. Show your appreciation of the band boys' efforts by turning out to-morrow night. The admission fee is only one dollar.

The funeral of Mrs. Geo. Wagner, wife of the North Side cigar manufacturer, who died Saturday night after a sickness of long standing, occurred yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Catholic church. Deceased went to Chicago early last summer and underwent an operation for cancer of the stomach. She was discharged from the hospital and returned home apparently greatly improved in health, but she has suffered intensely the past few weeks. Mrs. Wagner was aged 48 years and leaves a husband to mourn her untimely taking away. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved husband.

Christmas is almost here!

and it is time you were buying presents for your friends. Remember our promise, we will sell you goods in our line cheaper than they can be bought anywhere else, no matter where you go, and it will save you money to call and inspect our stock before purchasing. Finest line of novelties ever shown in our city. No trouble to show goods.

HARRY DIXON, Jeweler and Optician.

—Jim McMichael has the contract for building the Jake Miller house and will commence work on same at once. It will be a five room house, 28x30.

—DENTIST.—Dr. Allwine, of Omaha, will be at the Nebraska house November 29, to remain a few days. All kinds of dental work.

—Will Patterson, the obliging clerk of the Neville, has accepted a similar position in the Palmer house, Grand Island, and left for that place Sunday.

—George Takulve, an experienced shoe-maker, has opened up a shop in connection with the Yellow Front shoe store, where you can have your shoes mended cheap, neat and quick.

—There will be a meeting of the stockholders of the Mono Mining & Milling company Saturday afternoon, November 27, at 2 o'clock, in Masonic hall, for the purpose of electing a director.

—On New Years day the Y. M. C. A. will hold its customary dinner. In the evening a short musical and literary programme, together with the secretary's annual report, will be given.

Genuine Glidden hog or cattle wire only $2.35 per hundred at Harrington & Tobin's.

—Mrs. Dell Bonner returned from Omaha Sunday night with her son Harry, who since last March has been receiving treatment for a maimed shoulder at the St. Joseph hospital. He was discharged from the hospital last week.

—Jake Federhoof and son Martin had an exciting experience Saturday morning with a vicious horse while driving up Sixth street. The animal became fractious and before it was subdued it had kicked the dash board into smithereens and injured the harness to some extent.

—Mrs. M. E. Watts and daughter Mayne had planned on making a visit in Iowa the first of the week, but the latter was taken seriously sick very suddenly Sunday afternoon and the trip had to be postponed indefinitely. The young lady's many friends here will hope for her speedy recovery to good health.

—E. J. Newton, who has held the position of car checker here for several months, left Saturday night for Axtell, Neb., to accept a position as manager of a drug store. Mr. Newton's many friends will be pleased to learn that he has secured a good position, and as he is a first class druggist, there is no doubt that he will give his employer entire satisfaction.

NOT MUCH CHOICE IN THE FANCY SHIRTS WE OPEN TO-DAY. BECAUSE NOT A BAD STYLE IN THE LOT. IT'S KIND OF PICKING YOU ENJOY. FITS OF COURSE. ONE DOLLAR AND ONE TWENTY-FIVE. SEE SHOW WINDOW. STAR CLOTHING HOUSE.

—When going from the round house to the depot last Friday afternoon it was necessary in passing through the yards for W. W. Watkins to climb over a car that blocked the way, and in jumping from the car he stepped on the end of a tie in such manner as to sprain his ankle quite seriously. The injury has caused him intense pain and will oblige him to lay off for several days.

—The K. K. club held its meeting at the home of Nellie Zeibert Saturday, where each one of the juveniles had a capital time and abundant good things to eat. Next Thursday is the semi-monthly meeting night of the club but as Thanksgiving is booked for that day and some of the members will eat turkey away from the city they held their meeting a few days in advance.

—Rev. C. C. Shaveley this morning at 7 o'clock spoke the words that made Nathaniel Weaver and Miss Lucy Reed, man and wife. The ceremony was performed at the residence of Mart Cryderman. The groom is a well-to-do ranchman of New Cambridge, Kansas. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Cryderman and is held in high esteem by all who enjoy her acquaintance. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver left on the morning train for New Cambridge followed by the best wishes of their friends for a long and happy married life.

—The evening of the 21st being the end of the fourth year of the Cody Guard's existence, the four officers located at this station, met at the Armory and celebrated the event. A light lunch and refreshments were served by one of the members and a very pleasant time was had. An officers' lyceum was organized of which Maj. Scharmann is chairman and Lieut. Grau recorder. The past record of the company was gone over and plans laid for the future. Those present were Maj. Scharmann, Capt. Evans, Lieuts. H. Jeffrey and Ered Grau, and Sergt. Hammond acted as orderly.

Some People Would Rather Lose Money than Pay Cash For Their Goods.

We sell goods for cash only and our customers do not pay interest on somebody else's debts. When you trade with coupon books or with a firm that runs book accounts, that is what you do. OUR PRICES PROVE IT.

NOTION DEPT.

Crochet Cotton, three spools for 10c Thread, three spools for 10c Imported Saxony 6c a skein Spanish Yarn 12c a skein German Knitting Yarn 16c a skein Full Count Pins 2c a paper Best Needles 5c a paper Curling Irons 4c each Lace Edge Handkerchiefs 5c each Twin Dress Stays 5c a set 7-inch metal back Combs 8c each 7-inch celluloid Combs 20c each Side Combs 5c a pair 144 Agate Buttons for 3c Baby Ribbon 1c a yard Knitting Needles 3c a set Silk Handkerchiefs 10c each

CROCKERY DEPT.

Handled Cups and Saucers 40c set Dinner Plates 35c set

Pie Plates 25c set Eight patterns of decorated ware to select from. Twelve patterns of chamber sets running from the cheap to the best.

LAMP DEPT.

No. 1 Lamp Chimneys 4c each No. 2 " 6c each No. 1 " heavy 8c each No. 2 " heavy 10c each No. 2 Rochester Chimney 10c each No. 3 " mammoth size 15c each Lantern Globes 7c each Glass Lamps, Base Lamps, Banquet Lamps, Nickel Plated Rochester Lamps, Night Lamps—in fact the only complete stock of Lamps in North Platte.

HARDWARE DEPT.

Galvanized Sheet Iron 5c a pound

Nails 2 1/2 cents a pound Western Washers 35c each Best steel Stovepipe 15c a joint Russia Stovepipe 40c a joint Common Elbows 10c each Adjustable Elbows 15c each Russia Elbows 23c each Maydole Hammers 55c Liquid Stove Enamel 10c a bottle Rope 7 cents a pound Red West Cowboy Rope 12c pr lb Brass Honduras 8c each Glidden Painted Barb Wire $2.35 per hundred. Baker Perfect Galvanized barb wire $2.85 per hundred. 5-gallon barrel churn $2.90

GROCERIES.

Kerosene Oil 15c a gallon Pearlina 4c a package Minnesota Patent Flour $1.25 a sack Package Coffee 9 lbs for $1.00 Michigan Salt $1.80 per barrel

Wilcox Department Store.

Goods sold for cash and one price only. Goods delivered to any part of the City.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Newell Barritt Sundayed in Cottonwood precinct.

Fred Elliott spent Sunday in Lexington with friends.

Miss Mamie Thompson, of Broken Bow, is visiting the family of A. L. Davis.

Mrs. Chas. Newmann arrived yesterday morning from Florence, Colorado.

Attorney W. S. Strom, who was here on legal business a few days, returned to Omaha Sunday.

Mrs. McGlone went to Hershey Sunday to visit her daughter who is teaching school in that vicinity.

Chas. Brown came home Saturday night from North Bend, where he visited acquaintances for two weeks.

Miss Ellen McCullough, who is conducting a very successful school in district 95 was the guest of friends here Saturday.

Mrs. J. J. Wilson, who has visited her son Norman since September expects to leave Thursday for Sacramento, California, her home.

Henry Appleford, mayor, and J. W. Nugent, president of the city council, of Maxwell, were familiar personages on our streets yesterday.

Louis Richards returned yesterday morning to Gothenburg. He is still quite sore from his recent experience and moves about with some difficulty.

Judge Cooley, who will conduct the defence in case of the state vs. C. M. Duncan, and Dr. A. A. Edington, of Omaha, were in the city Saturday.

J. C. Hollingsworth and daughter Mrs. Albro, spent Friday and Saturday with H. B. Hollingsworth and family, returning to Nichols Saturday evening.

Geo. M. Graham made a business trip to Grand Island Saturday night returning the following evening. His wife, who has been visiting her mother there for several weeks, came home last night.

Gus McNeel, of the Birdwood, is going to the Klondike country next spring. He left for Butte, Montana last week and will remain there until spring when he will join the rush that will be made from the western coast to the golden streams of Alaska.

"Buck" McPherson, cashier of the Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Attorney Will Learned, of Omaha, Judge Grimes, Attorneys Hoagland and Halligan and Court Reporter Scharmann went to Tryan, McPherson county, yesterday morning where the case of the Union Stock Yards vs. Haskell will be tried.

HORSES AT AUCTION.

On December 4th at 1 o'clock p. m. I will sell at the White Elephant Barn about 40 head of grade Norman Horses, including one stallion. Terms cash. H. OTTEN.

Advertisement for Washburn's BEST HUNGARIAN PROCESS MINNEAPOLIS MADE. CHAS. McDONALD, SOLE AGENT, North Platte, Neb.

Advertisement for THE REPUTATION SHOES. In Our Dry Goods Department. We are receiving new novelties almost every day. Come in and see us. John H. Day.

—Mrs. Frank Foster has been quite sick for several days. Willie and Dot Besack were sick several days last week. Mrs. H. M. Wells has been quite sick for several days. Saturday Lester Eells sold his corner lot east of the O'Connell place for a consideration of $350. —Elmer Coates started out Sunday to buy up wheat for C. F. Idings at points west along the Union Pacific. Irwin Selby, of Farnam, brother of Editor Selby of the Gleamor, was in the city Friday on business before the land office. —G. G. McKay yesterday presented his wife with a valuable gift in the shape of a handsome upright piano. —Fred Weingand and Alvin Pool were quite successful Saturday in shooting quail. They bagged over forty birds near Brady. From start to finish Gloves are a skin game. Confidence in the seller helps you to worthy hand coverings. We have them from 25c upwards Star Clothing House. —Friday was Master Eddie Sawyer's eighth birth anniversary, and in honor of this important event his parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Sawyer, gave him a party Saturday afternoon to which about thirty of his playmates were invited. It was quite a swell affair. Several of the neighboring ladies assisted in serving and entertaining. The hours were from two to four. The youngsters had a merry time at their innocent games and devouring large quantities of sweets. Eddie was the recipient of quite a number of pretty little presents.

Advertisement for Men's Slippers. A man always likes a nice easy pair of slippers to put on when he gets home from work. We have them. Velvet Embroidery $ 75 Slippers 1.25 Velvet Embroidery 1.25 Finer 1.25 Bright Dongola 1.25 Tan Russia. Turn Soles 1.50 Yellow Front Shoe Store. DECATUR & BEEGLE. Geo. M. Graham, Mgr. NOTE—Your old shoes can be repaired at our store in a proper manner and at reasonable prices.