rection of Miss Pike, but it deserved a larger attendance. Several features of the programme were especially attractive, pleasing and interesting. Particularly is this true of the illustrated reading of Longfellow's "Blind Girl of Castil Cuille." Miss Pike read the poem, and the most prominent situations in the verse were produced on the stage in tableaux. The pose of those on the stage was excellent and the costumes very pretty. This presentation was somewhat new to a North Platte audience and it was accepted with applause.

Another feature of the programme that proved particularly pleasing was Miss Pike's recital of the arena scene from "Quo Vadis." This gave the reader an opportunity to $3.50-$3 Tans $2. fully display her ability and she won renewed praise from a North $2,50 quality, excellent service, $2 Platte audience.

Miss Pike also rendered "The Christmas Guest," and responded to two calls for reappearance.

Taken as a whole the entertainment proved a most satisfactory one and reflected credit upon all taking part.

That's not anything new about our shoe department, for shoe trade is good here, month in and month out, all the year round. We simply state the fact because there is a reason behind it—a good reason why the majority of people in North Platte and vicinity come here for their shoes. Of course, the reason is because they can do better. The best ads we or any one else could write would not bring people here twice if they were fooled the first time.
