Friday His Lucky Day. "I've quit her," said Gritly as he moked a good night cigar with his shum. "It's all off. Henceforth it will be like the memory of a dream; what the novelists call a passing romance."

"But I thought you were engaged?" "So we were. I had seven warm encounters with the old gentleman before I gained his consent. She wears my ring, and I'm paying for it on the in-stallment plan."

"What's gone wrong, then?" "It's her superstition. She's bright and cultured, but she's the most superstitious girl that ever came within my experience. I wouldn't believe it, you know; couldn't at first. I proposed to her on Friday. A fellow in love is lucky to know the year, to say nothing of the day of the week. Nothing must do but we break off so as to escape the bad luck. We happened to make this shift on the 13th, and I'll be blowed if we didn't have to break off again in order to kill down the boodco. Yes, sir, engaged three times and never had a quarrel. It breaks the record. "We never started any place yet that she didn't forget something. Do you trip. Of the ten passengers two were what cause they had for mutiny, they Barnato take a penny from you. They know that girl would always go to the servant girls going out to English fam- had taken three lives, and no matter do not want your money, even though end of a block before she would turn liles, five were men who were in search what testimony the passengers might they are not rich themselves, but they mon during the trying hot season. back? Did it every pop; all superstiti- of health or adventure, and the other give a British court would prize considerateness, sympathy It is now that a course of Swift's tion. I raked up my whole pile to take three consisted of a man, his wife and a severe punishment. There was really and fellowship. If we withhold these Specific her to the musical event of the season. | daughter 10 years old. The crew was no ringleader. One was as guilty as the | things that are surely within our pow-Passing into the theater she stubbed her made up of Englishmen, Americans, other, and all might expect the same er, probably we should not be so very toe. That settled it. She must get right | Swedes and lascars and was neither | punishment. As this came to be talked | generous if we had plenty of money. home to avoid a catastrophe. Had to better nor worse than the average. That over the men decided not to wait to be Philadelphia Ledger. hire a coupe and the driver carries my trouble came, followed by a tragedy, taken prisoners and carried home for

Hindoo Cruelty.

ted, no doubt-and lured into a cage. His captors then proceeded to noose his in the floor of the cage, and a black- about being weak handed or with the be found with the behavior of the men. The tiger's legs having been secured by and so far as testimeny went later on, but were quiet and kept to their end of door in the cage opened, and when the ing them about as was done. When we that first day no resistance would have captive put his head out they shut the were four days out, one man was laid been made, but as the hours slipped tiger was then released, to be baited by watch I was, until some of the passen- bedding and whatever could be thought dogs, and, despite his maimed condi- gers went to Captain Shaw to complain, of for the comfort and safety of her co-

If this story is true, and the information is said to have come from an eyewitness-and there is nothing impossible in the crippling part of the business -one would dearly like to take each of while the passengers were about, but at bands with each and every one of the those Rajpoot royalties in turn and read bim a lesson with a cutting whip .-London Sketch.

The Long Journey.

neral the relatives, both near and distant, returned to the family home, and the officiating pastor came with them. There they enjoyed a good dinner and average sailor will submit to thirst, For five days and nights after losing afterward gathered in the best room for hunger and cruelty a hundred times sight of the boat we worked our way to social converse.

serious event of the day, and presently of her lawful officers. But there is a der easy sail and her pace was slow. No the good pastor, drawing a deep sigh, limit to even what sailors can stand. crew could have been more orderly or sible liberty, and the advertisements solemnly remarked:

"Well, our departed brother has gone a long journey.'

share in the conversation, suddenly remarked in a tone of profound wisdom: "Well, you know, brother, thet they all say thet travel is such an eddicator!" -Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Stroke of Diplomacy.

Applicant-I have called to ask you, madam, to use your influence on my behalf. I am an applicant for a position dangerous thing for all concerned and and then there was nothing to do but in your husband's private oflice, but I

Madam (interrupting)-I'm sorry, sir, but I never interfere with my busband's Applicant—If I were as pretty as she is, I might— Madam-She?

Applicant-Yes, madam. My competitor is a most bewitching girl. Madam-Just call tomerrow, sir, and Strand Magazine.

Kentucky Fisherman.

"I am a tender hearted man," said Colonel Stilwell, "and as a rule I don't exception to my rule-I enjoy fishing." "Doesn't it seem rather cruel to self as a benefactor, sub, and a human-could not prevent her from swing-itarian."—Washington Star, could not prevent her from swing-ing off her course now and then. Had we reached the Meorish coast and got judge.

Social Student - I presume, with your abundant leisure, that you are interested in the most important question

Perry Patettic-You bet your life I am. An wit' me, same as anybody else, the most important questions of the day, when all is sifted down, is eats and sleeps. - Cincipnati Enquirer.

Spanish and French women of the bigher class are usually expert swordsgomen. They are taught to fence as sarefully and accurately as their brothers, and there are numerous schools in the two countries where young women are taught not only to fence, but to sometime overboard without being much hurt. The men then brought the bark to the wind, and just as the maneuver was completed the captain and watch below and three of the passengers appeared. Had the captain been the right sort of man the mutiny would have ended handle the broadsword.

Damaged By Earthquake, SAN FRANCISCO, March 31 .- Owing to damage done by las night's earthquake work has been shut down at the Mare Island navy yard temporarily, and the 1,700 employes are idle. Only two of the buildings escaped damage.

Ohio River Is Subsiding. CINCINNATI, March 31 .- All fear of another rise in the Ohio is averted to-day by the cool, clear weather and the river falling. The river is falling at Pittsburg and avall points as far down

TWO LOVES.

The woman he loved while he dreamed of he Danced on till ie stars grew dim, But alone with her heart, from the world spart, Sat the woman who loved him.

The woman he worshiped only smiled When he poured out his passionate love. While the other somewhere kissed her treasu most rare, A book he had touched with his giove. The woman he loved betrayed his trust, And he wore the scars through life, And he cared not nor knew that the other

But no man called her wife.

The woman he loved trod fested halls While they sang his funeral hymn, But the sad bells tolled ere the year was old O'er the woman who loved him -Ella Wheeler Wilcox

A MUTINY AT SEA.

BY CHARLES B. LEWIS.

South American coast, and she carried "I looked my record up and got word some of them had to suffer for it. . porarily, they must get rid of their pas-

to her that I was born on Friday, in the It was my second voyage as an ap- sengers. How this should be done was Kendrick Bangs, the humerist, is the dark of the moon, and with an unlucky prentice, and though I was not taken not settled without a further talk. The hero, has leaked out. Some time ago are so liable to attack it during star in the ascendant. She promptly into the confidence of the men I came passengers did not wish to go knocking Mr. Bangs received the following letter the summer when sickness is so called the engagement off, and that's to know all. From the hour of taking about the ocean in a craft without offi- from a city in one of the Pacific states: abundant. It is the best tonic what I was after. "-Detroit Free Press. | command Captain Shaw showed himself | cers or navigator, and when it was sugto be one of the most cruel and hard gested that they take to the longboat hearted masters affeat. He had been al- and make for the Azores, 300 miles The correspondent who sends the fol- lowed to select new mates to please away, there was not much opposition. lowing to the Calcutta Asian states that himself, and they were men after his Two of the single men knew something his information came to him on unim- own heart. We were not yet off sound- about handling a boat, and the craft peachable authority. During a royal ings when the officers began knecking they were to take was big enough to hunt in one of the Rajpoot states an ex- | the men about, and inside of three days | hold twice their number. Nearly the cepionally fine tiger was caught-net- the crew were a unit in declaring that whole day had passed before this dethe bark was a floating hell.

feet and draw them through holes bored | ing lot, and they had no fault to find | fore the next morning. No fault could smith was directed to draw his claws. | provisions. So far as I could observe | They did no work, as a matter of course, smith, with mallet and chisel, broke off bis bunk with a broken head, and no avoid being taken. his teeth. Preparations were concluded man had escaped being knocked down. During the night the longboat was by muzzling the poor brute with strong I had been rope's ended and kicked and got over and fitted out. She was providwire in some inhuman fashion. The cuffed by the chief mate, in whose ed with sailors, water, food, lanterns, tion, he killed several before the and yet no boy was willing to work cupants. The weather was pleasant, the "sportsmen" wearied of the game and harder or run faster at the word of com- season pacific, and there was every mand.

comes about through ill usage. The off with the passengers.

that a climax was at hand. We were a for days and days. The passengers, or a I will have the position for you .- short hadded erew when we left Liver- part of them, were on hand to give evialmost at once, and from that time on was much public sympathy expressed, more or less of the men were partly disabled. This made it hard work to sail ishment. Two men got imprisoned for the bark, and on several pocasions both life and all the others received sencare much foh spoht, but there is one mates had to go aloft to help out. What tences of from 5 to 15 years. As I was brought the climax to a head was the only a boy it was argued that I could action of the mate one night soon after have known nothing, and indeed all the coming on watch at midnight. We had men testified that such was the case, those creatures from having to pass a though one of the best men in the ship my sticking to the ship was an act calllifetime in all that watch, I regard my- was at the wheel the nicest steering ing for some sort of punishment. Hard sult would have been the same, and it been worse, as each and every one "be's a man of large family and was something not to be found fault would have been sold into slavery for one leg and two sons in the war." with under the circumstances. The life. mate, however, used it as an excuse to attack the sailor and do him grievous damage, and as the poor fellow lay on the deck unconscious he was kicked in the face again and again. When the watch on deck saw this, they rushed aft in a body and attacked the mate. He made a hot fight of it, but was thrown overboard without being much hurt. The men then brought the bark to the there, but he rushed upon the sailors with awful ouths and began knocking them right and left, when one of the men beat in his skull with an iron belaying pin. There was no stopping board, and then the men had full pos- time to consider. session. That was the end of the mutiny as a mutiny, however. I mean that, having got rid of their officers, the men se could stand, I suppose.—New York did not let their passions carry them World.

Under the directions of the oldest sea-men aboard the craft was stripped of her canvas and left to lie in that situa-A Segich Term.

shout of rejoicing was indulged in. If there was liquor aboard, the men did was not their fault as a crew, though trial. If they would escape, even temcision was reached, and then it was The crew of the Norwich were a will- agreed that no move should be made be-chance that the boat would land at the The protests of the passengers caused | Azores all right. She left us about 9 a row aft and a change in the usage of | o'clock next morning, all the passengers the crew. As to the change, the mates | zoing willingly and seemingly to be in were instructed not to exhibit temper good spirits, and all the men shook night, when they could do it unobserved, orew. When she was a mile away, sail they knocked the men about with more | was made on the bark, and we headed beartiness than before. The sailer with for the African coast. It had been setthe broken arm would have had no care tled among the men to run into the at all except for the passengers, and the Moorish coast and wreck the bark and In a certain township not many miles fact that he was an incumbrance seemed take their chances. I was ordered to get from Cleveland the good man of a local to harden the hearts of the officers ready and go with the boat, but protesthousehold was laid away in the little against all the rest of us. Unless there ed so vigorously that I was finally perchurchyard on the hill. After the fu- is treasure on board to be seized and di- mitted to remain, but the man with the vided a mutiny is a matter to grow by broken arm, who was still a great suf-

slow degrees. It is rare that mutiny ferer and useless as a sailor, was sent over before he is ready to rise in defi- the east, but being short handed and Naturally their talk turned upon the ance and take the ship out of the bands without officers the bark was kept un-But for the sympathy clearly shown by agreed better. There was not even a disthe single men among the passengers pute, por did any one suggest that the always headed with a crude woodcut of there might have been no mutiny, al- cabins be looted of their stores and val-There was a brief silence, and then a though I am sure that after the first pables. The only idea advanced was to consin of the deceased, a fussy little wo- week affoat some of the men were plot- reach the coast and get clear of any purman with an intense desire to bear a | ting to make an example of the mate by | suit. On the morning of the sixth day, striking him down during his watch when the coast was almost in sight, a and throwing his tody overboard. It British man-of-war which was coming was not that the passengers came among | up from Cape Town sighted us and beus and expressed their sympathy in gan signaling. No one aboard could so many words, though a word was make out what she meant or answer and actions plainly told us with whom aroused and she made pursuit. We they took sides. While that sympathy packed on sail and stood for the coast was merited and justly placed, it was a putil her shot began to come aboard, have one dangerous rival. He seems to not been sure of it they would have stranger was alongside our story was turned for revenge in some other direc- known, and within half an hour all our tion. One life might have been taken, crew except me were in irons. As to eral feeling and to make sure, after we committed suicide, but all others were pool, and one able seaman was laid up dence in favor of the crew, and there there been two men at the wheel the re- ashore their fate would probably have

The Chinese Painter. A story, which if not true is not badly told, runs to the effect that while the bark Cape City was at Hongkong a Chinaman was engaged to paint the necessary pame on each bow. He produced on one bow the legend "Capecity," without a space between the two words. Then he noted that the "Y" was nearest to the ship's stern, and, remembering this fact, he afforded an exrellent example of how severely logical his race can be, for in a little while he had painted on the other bow the strik-ing permutation "Yticepac," to his own delight and the crew's amazement.— Chambers' Journal.

The Prime Consideration. De Palmer-What did Mrs. Lakeside them after that. The second mate was brought from his berth and flung over-De Palmer-Time to consider what? Van Pullman-How much alimony tion until morning, and not even a -Atlanta Constitution.

One Can Always Give Simself.

One of the pleasantest of day dreams not hunt for it. Now that the mutiny is to imagine how charitable you would had come to pass they talked freely in be if you had plenty of money. The role my presence, and one and all seemed of a bountiful master or mistress is a much cast down that they had been delightful one, and it is easy to imagine forced to make such a move. There was how, if you had a command of a formuch talk as to what should be done, tune, you would make people happy but it amounted to nothing until after and with what grace you would receive breakfast next morning. Then every- their gratitude. Of course few persons body aboard the bark except the woman can venture to indulge the hope that and her daughter gathered aft for a talk. they will be rich, but while we are Two or three of the passengers were dreaming these dreams it is well enough outspoken in their sympathy for the to think whether we are showing ourmen, and all others were at least neu- selves charitable in the use of what is tral. At the instance of the seaman who really within our command. Take, for had charge of the craft a-paper was instance, one's thoughts. It is natural drawn up setting forth all the facts in enough to put a hard and bitter conthe case, and this was signed by both struction upon the actions of others. Possibly, from a superficial point of No one aboard knew anything about view, their conduct warrants it. But a winter, and right now is the time navigation, and it was at first proposed | thoroughly charitable person-one who to get rid of them. A thorough that we remain where we were and fly would use money beneficently if he had course of Swift's Specific is needed a signal of distress. In the course of it-will certainly make allowances for to cleanse the blood and puri-The Norwich was a bark of about 700 two or three days we were sure to be others and only reluctantly come to the fy the system, toning up and tons, plying between Liverpool and the sighted and relieved. This plan was severe judgment. It is a mistake also agreeable to all for a few hours, but to suppose that money can do everyafter awhile the mutineers began to thing. There are a good many persons from 5 to 15 passengers on her outward grow nervous and afraid. No matter who would not if you were as rich as a

The Joke on the Joker.

A good story, of which Mr. John Mr. John K. Bangs: .

Yours very truly, favor of the -- inst., and in reply would say is $500 per speech. I have not as yet, however, opened up this line of goods in the west, and as I am anxious to secure custom in that part of the country I will offer you special terms—namely, $250 for such an address as you describe, the amount to be paid as soon as good. ropes, the royal sportsmen had a sliding door in the cage opened, and when the ing them about as was done. When we that first day no resistance would have shipment is made. If the terms proposed are satisfactory, kindly let me know at once, but captive put his head out they shut the door down on his neck while the blacksmith, with mallet and chisel, broke off were four days out, one man was laid been made, but as the hours slipped in that case I would request you not to mention the matter to Chauncey Depew or General smith, with mallet and chisel, broke off his bunk with a broken head, and no avoid being taken.

> This letter was duly sent, and on the day when it reached its destination Mr. Bangs received the following telegram: Your letter just received. If Chauncey De-

-New York Post.

"To Cut Stick."

This expression had its birth in the days when people relied more on their legs as a means of locomotion than they do nowadays,

When a man started to foot it from lating the adventures of an Irishman was very popular in Glasgow. It began: "Oh, I creished my brogues and I cut my stick."

The phrase took hold of the American mind in the days of slavery.

A runaway black would generally cut a stick to help him on his travel to possible liberty, and the advertisements concerning runaway slaves were nearly always headed with a crude woodcut of concerning runaway slaves were nearly always headed with a crude woodcut of witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz: Samuel Ensie, his shoulder.—New York World.

Henry C. Welch, Dora Gaedke and Fred Gaedke all of Somerset, Neb.

French Detectives.

The ability of French detectives in the matter of disguising their identity is marvelous. Some years ago one of them made a bet that he would, in the course of the next few days, address a dropped now and then, but their looks her, and as a result her suspicions were gentleman with whom he was acquainted four times, for at least ten minutes each time, and that he should not know him on any occasion until the detective had made himself known. As a matter of course, the gentleman was on his North Platte, Nebraska, led to lamentable results. Had the men surrender. Ten minutes after the of course, the gentleman was on his guard and mistrusted every one who came near him. But the man won his m-23-6, bet. It is needless to enter into the parbut things would have stopped there. the longboat, she was picked up next ticulars. Suffice it to say that in the As I said, the men did not take me day after she put off, and her people course of the next four days he present. into their confidence, as I was only a carried back to England. We were tak-boy, and they feared me, but I saw and en to London without a stop. On the maker's assistant, a back driver, a venheard enough to satisfy me of the gen- voyage a mutineer named Hawkins erable old gentleman with a great interest in the Bourse, and finally as a waiter had got down to the south of the Azores, safely landed in court. The trial lasted in the botel where the gentleman was staying. - New York Ledger.

One Verdict. The Atlanta Constitution tells of a curious verdict rendered by a Georgia jury in a case where the guilt of the prisoner was clearly established. If was not thought the jury would be ten minutes in recommending him for the penitentiary, but three hours elapsed before the 12 men filed into court again, when a verdict of "Not guilty" was read, to the astonishment of all.

"How could you bring in such a ver-

"Well, jedge," replied the foreman, "be's a man of large family and lost

At the Station. Mrs. Hayrick-I say, is that clock

Porter-That ain't no clock; it's a weighing machine. Mrs. Hayrick-What do you want with a weighing machine here?

Porter-So folks wot wants to leave town kin git a weigh.-London Fun. His Beginning. The wild young man decides to settle down and become serious. To begin his

"What are you going to do about it?"

"Pay the 17 francs and 35 centimes at once and make arrangements for the Can be found at.,

Ask your grocer today to show you a package of Grain-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has the rich seal brown of Mocha and Java, but it is made from pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress, 1/2 the price of coffee. 15c and 25c per package. Sold by all grocers, Try Grain-O! Try Grain-O!

Don't Invite Sickness

Which is better, to thoroughly cleanse and purify the blood just now, or make yourself liable to the many dangerous ailments which are so prevalent during summer? Impurities have been accumulating in the blood all strengthening it all over. Those who take this precaution now are comparatively safe all summer; but to neglect it is to invite some form of sickness which is so com-

S.S.S. The Blood Ready for the Spring trade with will accomplish so much toward rendering the system capable of resisting the evil influences which and system-builder on the market, DEAR SIR-I have been asked to respond to a toast at our board of trade's annual dinner next month, and I write to inquire what would and is made solely to search out be your lowest terms for preparing a good, and remove all impurities, and rattling, funny speech for me to deliver on that occasion. A prompt reply will oblige. supply an abundance of pure, rich and red blood. S. S. S. is made To which Mr. Bangs immediately sat exclusively of roots and herbs, down and penned the following reply: and is Nature's own remedy. It DEAR SIR-I am in receipt of your esteemed is purely vegetable, and is the that my regular rate for after dinner speeches only blood remedy guaranteed to

Purify

Legal Notices.

March 25, 1838.

Complaint having been entered at this office by Oscar H. Bradley against Lewis E. Grandstaff for abandoning his Homestead Entry No. 17661, dated one town to another, he usually cut a stick or a sapling to help him along on his journey.

April 8, 1893, upon the north half of the northwest quarter, the east half of the northwest quarter section $2, township 10, north, range 27 west, in Lincoln county, Nebras-ka, with a view to the cancellation of said entry, This habit was particularly common in Ireland, and it is more than probable that the expression found birth in that the expression found birth in that the expression found birth in that

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

JOHN F. HINMAN,

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. Land Office at North Platte, Neb . ? Who made Home Stead Entry No. 16194, for ne is sec. 20, to is n, r 29 w, He names the following wisness

D. M. HOGSETT

+ Contractor and Builder, +

AND AGENT FOR

ECLIPSE and FAIRBANKS

WINDMILLS.

NORTH PLATTE, NEB.

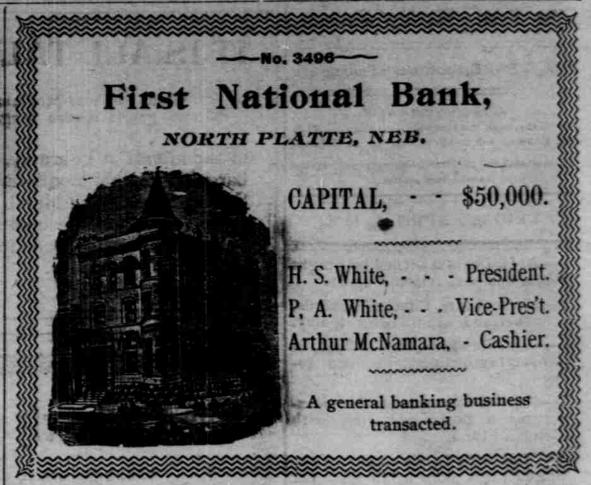

J. F. FILLION, Plumber, Tinworker General Repairer.

Special attention given to

BICYCLE REPAIRING. WHEELS TO RENT

found the total 145 017 france 35 cen-

IN TOWN

F. J. BROEKER,

MERCHANT TAILOR.

fine line of choice suitings.

-SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.

A. F. STREITZ,

Druggist.

DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS * OILS-

Painters' Supplies,

Window Glass, Machine Oils.

Diamanta Spectacles.

Deutsche Apotheke.

DAVIS, THE HARDWARE MAN,

Exclusive agent for the

And the Celebrated

ACORN STEEL RANGES.

The only big stove house in Lincoln County. Call and get prices.

Foley Block.

A L DAVIS (Who no one owes.)

C. F. IDDINGS,

LUMBER, COAL

AND GRAIN

Order by telephone from Newton's Book Store.

North Platte Pharmacy.

Drugs and Druggists' Sundries.

- We aim to handle the best grades of goods
- Sell everything at reasonable prices, and
- warrant all goods to be just as represented.

All Prescriptions Carefully Filled by a Licensed Pharmacist. Orders from the country and along the line of the Union Pacific Railway is respectfully solicited.

First door north of First National Bank.